

They were incredulous with JOY
and were AMAZED

*Lord Jesus, open the Scriptures to us;
make our hearts burn while you speak to us.*

They were incredulous with JOY and were AMAZED...

Our Gospel today from Luke takes place just after the two disciples returned to Jerusalem from their way to Emmaus. They found the Apostles in hiding and “recounted what had taken place along the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread.” Just to recap, these two men were distraught at the events of the crucifixion, so much so that they were ready to throw in the towel, leave Jerusalem, and head home. Even though they were followers of Jesus, amazed by his teachings, amazed by his miracles, amazed by his kindness, amazed by his authority, amazed by his prophecy that he’d die and rise, amazed by his friendship... perhaps, just perhaps he wasn’t who he said he was after all... While they were on the road, Jesus appears to them, but these disciples, once amazed by him don’t recognize him. Literally, metaphorically, and spiritually, however, Jesus meets them “where they are” until they finally see him in the breaking of the bread... in the Eucharist.

So these guys are telling this very story to the Apostles when BAM, Jesus stands in their midst with the greeting, “Peace be with you.” And just like that, the two disciples and Apostles, el al are terrified... TERRIFIED. Two of them just saw him on the road and in the bread!!! And they were terrified. Yet, patiently, lovingly, Jesus shows them his wounds, his side, and while they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them for something to eat and he ate (ghosts don’t eat...). As he has their full attention, He recalls the Scriptures to them, and the events that had to take place, namely his death and resurrection. And that they are WITNESSES to these things. The Gospel ends there, but as we know there are several other events where Jesus appears to his disciples up to and including his Ascension to heaven. And each time they’re amazed by what they saw.

How wonderful the ways the way in which God amazed the early church, and how those stories continue to amaze us. And how many times in our personal lives does God amaze us through his beautiful signs and wonders: the birth of a child, the smile of a loved one, the care and concern for a neighbor, the selflessness of a stranger, the beauty of nature... and most recently, the solar eclipse! How many of us were amazed that day? Gosh, for sure our city of Cleveland! How many traveled to the “path of totality”, took time off of work, and camped for hours for those four minutes of amazement? Was it worth it? Absolutely. Yet, just like the Apostles forgot the risen Lord in the short time-span between His visits, how many of us already forgot that “feeling” of transcendent peace in astronomical amazement? By the time you read this it’ll almost be a week since it happened. Perhaps this article it even reminding you that it did, ha! Just like for the first disciples life gets busy, confusing, or hard and numbs our hearts to the amazing works of God in our lives past and present. All the same, however, we need to be aware of His patience in the many, yet gentle ways he reminds us, most importantly in the sacraments. Sometimes His signs and wonders are flutters of the heart, or a monumental, communal experience, but they exist to all of us every day if we’re open to them, if we are aware of the great gift afforded to all of us as “witnesses of these things.” Keep reminding yourself of the “amazing” things that God has done for us as a faithful people, yes, but also for YOU PERSONALLY in your life. Write them down. Take the pictures. Don’t let your hearts grow numb to the amazing things he has for you, nor be terrified when you experience them. Rather, receive the gift as he assures, “Peace be with you.” ~ Sara

Prayer in Times of Darkness

Dear Jesus,
When I feel troubled,
alone, frightened, be with me. Be a flicker of flame in this darkness.
Help me to know you in the stark seasons as I do in times of elation. You are the light I seek.

Amen.

AMAZING!

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Angels

Question:

I've heard that we become angels when we die. Is this what the Church teaches?

Answer:

As human beings, we are both spiritual and corporeal. We are body and soul. This makes us unique in all creation. No other physical creature – plant or animal – possesses an immortal soul made in God's image and likeness. Like the distinction with plants and animals, angels have an entirely different sort of existence. Angels are pure immortal spirit, and they have been so since the moment of their creation. While they may take on an appearance of a body in Biblical history, they are not a body like we are. Angels are neither male nor female, despite the art we often see.

As the result of the Fall, human beings experience death. Our souls are temporarily separated from our bodies. However, we do not become something other than human. Every Sunday in the Creed we profess "I believe in the resurrection of the body." As Jesus was united with his body on the third day, so too will we be united with our bodies at the end of time.

My Dear Friends in Christ,

How truly blessed I am by your presence in my life. The people of St. Colette come together to form a beautiful parish centered in Jesus and the Eucharist. We are an amazing reflection and expression of the Body of Christ. I am humbled to be called to shepherd, lead, and nurture this faith community. Together we will work to help build God's kingdom in our homes, neighborhoods, and parish. I can't thank you enough for your friendship, love, and support.

Let us pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit as we look to the future with great hope and joy in our hearts.

God Bless and keep you.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Sometimes when God appears in our path, we do not recognize him. In these moments, Jesus invites us to reach out and touch him. Remember that Christ is real, Christ is alive, and Christ stands before each one of us — so reach out. Touch him.
