

ALLELUIA!

The Parish Staff wishes you a blessed and joy-filled Easter. May the Risen Lord find room in your home, a place in your heart, and an Alleluia imparted among all of your loved ones. This Miracle of Life has happened for you and me. He has gone from cross and crown to the glory of an empty tomb, Rejoice and be glad! He has Risen as He promised. Death no longer has a hold. His promise is true: I am the Resurrection and Life!

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Fr. Krizner and the entire Staff with Blessings!

GOSPEL MEDITATION April 17, 2022
Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

There are many stones in our paths that keep us from truly living and being free. Some of these boulders have been there for a very long time. They have been there so long that they have even settled into the soil of our lives with other weeds, vines, and compacted soil keeping them firmly in place. We find them hard to move and trying to do so can be exhausting. What are these suffocating albatrosses that keep us so tethered and immobile? They are many things.

They are past childhood wounds and hurts that stem from disappointment, rejection, or abuse. People may have told us we were unwanted, that the world is frightening, that there are only some acceptable feelings you can have and others you cannot. We may have tried to love someone or struggled to figure out how and were met with rejection. Maybe we trusted someone completely and were betrayed. We come to life collecting barnacles that begin to attach to other barnacles and before you know it, we have a mass of solid matter blocking our vision and keeping us from moving. We live in fear. We are afraid of losing what we have, afraid that the future will be empty, afraid that we won't succeed and even more afraid that we will not be loved. There is so much fear. Didn't Jesus tell us not to worry and to not be afraid? Either we believe in the message of Easter, or we don't!

Go confidently into the night. Walking with God you will find the light and strength you need. Often without even knowing, God will move those boulders and stumbling blocks that bind us and, with putting one foot in front of the other and looking forward, we will move. The resurrection of Christ is really all about receiving the gifts of trust and faith and doing new things. The rocks that bind us keep us spinning the same wheels and doing the same things. When was the last time you threw caution to the wind and actually did something totally out of character and different? This is where we find God, in the spontaneous, the adventurous, the fun, and the creative choices we make! God is not boring and stuck. God is exciting and engaging. Jesus Christ is risen from the dead! Find a way to trust that this is true and live.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Alleluia, Christ is risen! What a glorious and holy day. The resurrection of Christ speaks of freedom, new life, restored faith and enduring, unconditional love. The huge stone, separating death and life, has been moved, allowing God's radiant power to usher in eternal life. When we see the truth of Christ's resurrection through eyes of love, we see the fullness of timeless beauty, truth, and wonder revealed. The emptiness of the tomb is filled with the eternity of love. We have many stones and boulders blocking the path to freedom, love, and joy. They are often too big for us to move, and they cripple us. We can take a leap of faith today and believe with all our heart, mind, and soul that there is much more than can be seen by the naked eye. There is something very holy, sacred, and eternal stirring within us. We want to live forever! Christ's resurrection brings us joy and allows us to see ourselves as we are meant to be seen, as God's children destined for glory!

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Fruits of Holy Communion

What are the "fruits" of holy Communion?

The Eucharist, like all sacraments, offers its own unique grace. We receive a special share in God's life that helps us in our faith journey. We are given all we need to sustain and nurture our relationship with God. The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life. Everything we are and everything we hope to become is found in this sacrament. It is essential to the life of the church, to each member of the church. Without it, there is no church. The Eucharist is the center of our spiritual life and has enormous effects on our growth, our holiness, and our way of life. The fruits of holy Communion are the benefits one receives from the sacrament. These fruits of holy Communion are discussed in the catechism in the article on the Eucharist. The primary benefit is union with Christ. We become one with him sacramentally, just as we hope to become one with him for eternity. The Eucharist also separates us from sin, both past and future. It forgives the venial sins of the past and, by the love we receive, protects us from mortal sin in the future. The church community is also unified and strengthened by the Eucharist. It unites us to the poor and offers the pledge of eternal life.

As you make your way to the tomb to anoint the body of our Master, set aside your tears. Do not let your hearts be troubled. The dark morning skies are giving way to the new light of day. It is nearly morning!
Look the sun is rising....

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Leave It in the Tomb

Today, on the most important day of the liturgical year, the Apostle Paul is calling us out.

“I see you hiding in that tomb,” he says. “I see you baking with that old, stale yeast, thinking no one will notice.”

He says it a little more elegantly, I’ll grant you. But the message is this: If you want to be raised with Christ, you’d better be ready to step out of the shadows. Seek what is above — not what is on earth.

I can feel myself responding almost reflexively, “Great idea, Paul — but I’m pretty comfy here.” Because sometimes, it’s just easier to stay in the tomb. It’s easier to crouch in the shadows and look outward at everyone else, thinking of the changes they could make or the sins they could overcome.

Today we are called to embrace newness. New hearts, new lives, new futures, new chances. If there’s anything keeping you from that, you need to leave it in the tomb. It’s a little scary, sure — maybe Jesus thought so before he stepped into the light of that first Easter morning. But no loaf of bread worth eating was ever baked using stale yeast that wouldn’t rise. No new life worth having was ever lived through the broken sins of yesterday. No Easter morning ever dawned without the tomb sitting empty.

Step into the light. He is waiting for you.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Back home, safe in my hutch from a long Easter run bringing candy and surprises to all of my ‘friends’!

Prayer for the people of Ukraine

Heavenly Father, Your Son taught us "Blessed are the Peacemakers for they shall be called Children of God."

In this time of great worry, we fervently pray that Your Holy Spirit sustain all the people of Ukraine to be vigilant and dedicated to peace and justice. Grant their leaders wisdom and prudence. Yet, may they also have the strength and perseverance to defend their land from all adversity and foreign attacks. Help us all to live according to your Divine Will.

O God, our Father, in the days to come, we beseech you to comfort the suffering, heal the wounded, and accept the souls of the faithful departed into Your Heavenly Kingdom. We ask also that the Most Holy Mother of God extend her blessed mantle of protection over our Ukraine. Amen.

The movie FATHER STU, a true story of man who had been a state champion boxer, a failed actor, a butcher and troublemaker. His search led him to pursue faith and a desire for a deeper relationship with God. His is a true redemptive story. While there are obviously parts of the movie that are a little rough – it is a true story of conversion and vocation. It could be an Easter get-away movie. Compared to the ‘stuff’ out there this is a positive, uplifting, movie. - Fr. K

Dear Parish Family,
Christ is Risen!
He is Risen, Indeed!

I hope your table is plentiful! After the 40 day Fast it is on to ham, kielbasa, colored eggs, paska bread and lots of candy! Finally, a brownie!

Long anticipated Easter! It is the promise fulfilled and, in the midst of Spring, a time of renewal and hope. While the world is ruled and regulated by so much political divisiveness and mistrust we find our hope in an empty tomb and a Living Savior. May we share in the fullness of joy that the Apostles experienced on that first Easter Day. Although HE had foretold all that would happen they were incredulous human beings...and so the sheer wonder and joy at seeing HIM back in their midst had to be overwhelming. Let the living Lord stand in your midst this day and offer you the word He imparted to the Apostles, ‘Peace’!

I am so very grateful to everyone who assisted with the liturgies of Holy Week and Easter! Thank you for being a part of the most solemn and important week of the Church year. Grace and Blessings to all! Gratitude to all of our parish for making Holy Week so very meaningful and solemn.

May grace, peace, and mercy be to those who we have promised to pray for and to the war-weary people of Ukraine!

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Anselm | April 21

St. Anselm of Canterbury left his home in Italy to travel as a young man and ended up at the monastery in Bec, France, which was known for the teachings of its leader, Lanfranc. Anselm rose quickly to become abbot of the community and his writings are now compared in importance to those of St. Augustine.

In 1093 Anselm was appointed Archbishop of Canterbury by William II Rufus, the son and successor of William the Conqueror. However, at the time there was a controversy in Europe over whether kings or the pope had the power to invest bishops. Anselm, who believed only the pope should have the right to invest an ecclesiastical authority, spent much of his time as Archbishop exiled in Rome.

St. Anselm's teaching and works of theology are his most important contribution to the Catholic faith. He is considered of the fathers of scholastic theology and his chief achievement in philosophy was the ontological argument for the existence of God. His work Cur Deus homo? taught that atonement for sins could only be achieved through Christ. He was canonized in 1494 and named a Doctor of the Church in 1720. ©LPi

Come Celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday - April 24 At Our Lady of Grace in Hinckley

Divine Mercy Sunday is celebrated on the final (8th day) of the Easter Octave, this year on April 24. Immerse yourself in the mercy throughout Lent and, if at all possible receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation in preparation for Divine Mercy Sunday. Pick up your Divine Mercy Novena and Chaplet pamphlet in the vestibule beginning April 9. Individually, begin the Novena on April 15 -23.

Then on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 24 we will meet in Church at 1:15pm to begin our Divine Mercy celebration with recitation of the chaplet and the Patriotic Rosary (booklets provided).

Parishioners from St. Albert & St. Colette are invited to attend

Baptism Class

The next Baptism Class will be held Sunday, May 15th, 2022 after the 11:45am mass at St. Colette.

Diocesan policy requires attendance at a Baptism class for parents who are planning to present their first child for the Sacrament of Baptism. To register, call the Parish Office at (330) 273-5500.

ENDEAVOR

It's HAPPENING

You will begin to see the initial phase of construction. With this will come changes to certain parking areas as the general contractor positions construction trailers and equipment behind the church. They will be installing a fence around the construction site that will limit driving around the back of the Church. The side entrances will become our main entrance areas.

As we proceed we will update you with details relating to the building of a retention pond behind the St. Nicholas house (our guest house between Crestview and the Church) for water runoff and other parking issues.

As of today, we are planning on a full construction timeframe running through the summer—barring any material issues relating to supply chain problems.

Thank you again for your understanding, your patience, and the generosity that has made this possible.
