GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

April 18, 2021

Third Sunday of Easter

We often act out of ignorance. Armed with the best of intentions, we think we are seeing clearly and correctly, but we are not. We don't always understand the full meaning of things and only perceive part of the truth. Hence, our judgments and actions can be impaired by myopic, incomplete or erroneous perceptions. The meaning of life, understanding of human experience, and negotiating life's challenges can all become skewed without proper understanding and vision. The resurrection of Christ is the corrective to our incomplete and limited view of life. Looking at things with the eyes of faith brings a depth of clarity and understanding to how we see God, ourselves, others, and the world.

Even the disciples struggled with their limited understanding and ignorant perceptions. It was only when Jesus opened their minds to understand the Scriptures that their eyes were opened. It was their "aha" moment when everything clicked. We all want the substance of our lives to come together, make sense, and have meaning. This is easier to achieve when things are going positively and life is good. It is when suffering, disappointment, death, hardship, and injustice enter the picture that things can become unsettled and disoriented. Our faith in the goodness and love of God is tested. We tend to shift our focus on these difficult and challenging moments and do not see them within the greater picture of how God intends life to unfold. We can gain, from the passion and resurrection of Christ, the clear vision we need in order to move away from ignorance to enlightenment.

We need our "aha" moment when everything comes together and clicks. It can come in a fleeting instant when we feel totally connected with God, where we find ourselves, others and all of creation. It is a moment when all is right and good, regardless of how difficult our journey. Our "aha" moment assures us that God is here, right with us, in us and around us bringing us a gift and blessing we can receive nowhere else: peace. In those brief sacramental encounters when we are lifted up out of ourselves and centered, we can hear God say, "peace be with you," and we feel secure. It's all okay. The resurrected Christ has the power to bring this gift to us. Some people, as they are facing their deaths, remark about this peace. When looking into the window of eternity, they experience a depth of joy and are amazed at God's goodness and closeness. We are called to be witnesses to this Good News.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

When the greeting “Peace be with you” is sincerely offered to a person, it can resonate very deep within, bringing comfort and reassurance. When someone possesses the power to bring peace, it brings us to a place of safety and fills us with joy. The resurrected Christ has this power. God can open our minds so that we can more fully understand the meaning of Sacred Scripture and God’s compassionate, loving, tender, and untiring embrace constantly present and offered to people throughout history. Without the anchor of truth that only God can provide, we can easily become startled and terrified at the sight of what life brings us. Being open to God’s offer of peace, we can turn away from old habits and short-sighted vision and experience the gladness and joy of God’s gift. Only then can what is wounded and broken be mended and reconciliation achieved. We are the resurrection witnesses called to proclaim the Good News.

Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate
me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen
me.
O Good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds hide
me.
Permit me not to be separated from you.
From the wicked foe, defend
me.
At the hour of my death, call
me
and bid me come to you
That with your saints I may praise you
For ever and ever. Amen.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: Do children need to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation before their First Communion?

Answer:

For centuries the Catholic Church has taught that a person needs to be in a state of grace (free from mortal sins) in order to worthily receive the Eucharist. To that end, Catholics should make an effort to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation any time they recognize the need for the sacrament (and in keeping with the precept of the Church that asks that we celebrate this sacrament at least once each year).

In the case of children preparing for their First Communion, the Code of Canon Law is very clear that they should also celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation before receiving the Eucharist for the first time: “It is the responsibility, in the first place, of parents and those who take the place of parents as well as of the pastor to see that children who have reached the use of reason are correctly prepared and are nourished by the divine food as early as possible, preceded by sacramental confession” (Canon 914).

While some might question the significance of the Sacrament of Reconciliation — especially in the case of children who might not fully understand the reality of sin or the meaning of the sacrament itself — a child’s “First Confession” can be a wonderful time for families to reflect together on the quality of their relationships, how they put their faith into practice, and, when it is possible, to celebrate the sacrament as a family. In the end, the celebration of these two sacraments marks important moments in the spiritual journeys of children and we hope their “First Confession” and “First Communion” help instill in them a love of the sacraments of the Church.

As of Tuesday when the bulletin is sent to be printed.....

An update on Father Ron: we have not yet heard the most recent news. We know that he has managed to keep his spirits up when we do talk and he is counting and grateful for our prayers.

In our last conversation he asked that I tell you all that he said hello!

Please continue to keep him your prayers.

Congratulations to all of our Confirmation candidates on the reception of the Sacrament. Our prayer is that the Holy Spirit so encourage and enable you to live the Catholic Faith with integrity and enthusiasm. As the Abbot told us—‘we are made in God’s own image and He loves us beyond imagining. Experience that love, live that love, share that love.’

You are now full members of the Church—the Church needs You and you need the Church, We are a community, a family of believers and the gifts of the Holy Spirit should empower you to share your faith with a world that needs it.

To our 9th graders—you are always welcomed to join us on Sunday Evenings for CELEBRATION—our youth group. The time we spend together is solid, no peer-pressure, and faith and fun filled. Do not think that Confirmation ends your religious education—it actually begins it in a whole new dynamic way. Join us!

Dear Parish Family,
We are quickly moving through the 50 days of Easter! It is the one time of the year I personally wish would slow down that we might fully realize and enjoy the impact of the Resurrection of Jesus our Lord. Time, however, has its own way of moving through the days and last Monday we celebrated Confirmation with Abbot Gary. The liturgy was much like a prelude to Pentecost. Thanks again to all who assisted these past 8 years in preparing the students for the reception of the Sacrament. Our gaze turns now to the First Communicants—just around the corner. Joy-filled occasions of the love of God and the faith we are united in.

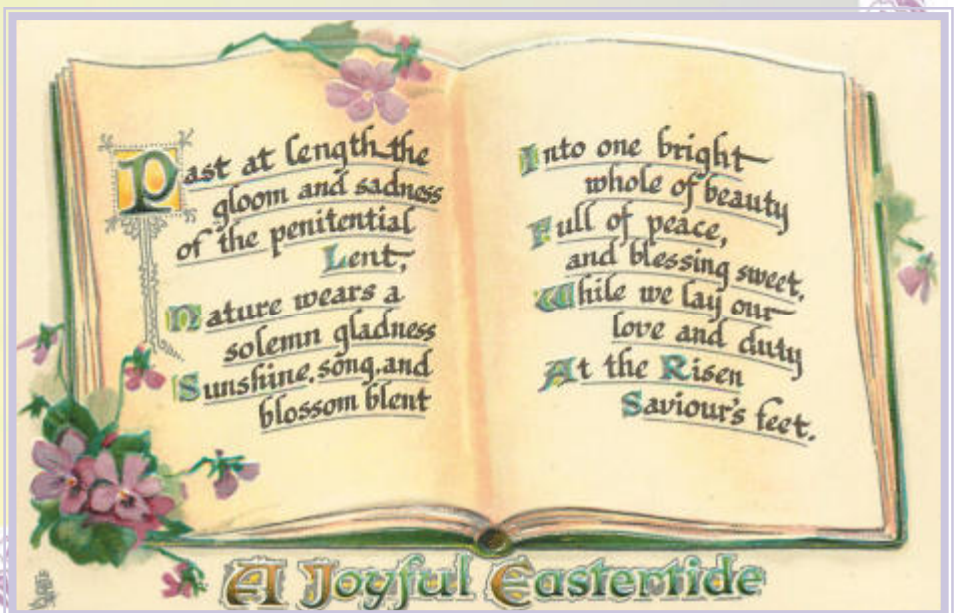

Looking to the future we are planning a Rummage Sale – because we need one and the funds that it produces for the education fund. We also need ‘activity’ to overcome the COVID-blues! If you are a member of the parish and interested in helping—we only need a limited number of people—call the parish office. We have a crew ready to go.

Please continue to keep the parish in your prayers—we had a great number of requests for prayers for all kinds of needs. May the merciful God hear our prayer.

Thankyou again and again for your Easter greetings and prayers. They are truly appreciated.

You may have seen that Lily is in a dog (wheel) cart as her back legs are weak. Together we are a sight: me in my go-cart-and Lily in her dog cart. But the truth is we are both doing well!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

How to Fail Your Way to Heaven

You know what are some of my favorite moments in Scripture? The little “Easter eggs” of Jesus’ humanity, things like Jesus falling asleep, Jesus drawing in the sand, Jesus playing with kids. And how about Jesus rising from the dead, appearing to his disciples and saying, “So, have you got anything to eat?”

It’s right for us to always keep in mind that Jesus is God. But we also have to remember that he was man. He got hungry. He cried when he felt sad and laughed when he felt happy. He got tired. He got bored.

Because he was God, none of those feelings ever led him into sin, like they do us. He never spent a car ride trying to pass the hours by seeing how annoyed he could make his older sister. He never smacked Peter over the head for saying something really stupid. But he did unleash some Biblically righteous anger on those traders in the temple, didn’t he? And he wasn’t shy about calling Peter “a Satan” when his friend tempted him to take the easy way out.

It’s the tightrope walk we all try to balance every day, honoring our human emotions while still answering God’s call to be better. Being perfect isn’t the domain of the Christian — that’s the domain of Christ only. Trying and failing, then trying again (and failing again) and again and again? That’s the domain of the Christian.

SORRY-

There was a miscommunication last weekend at one of the Sunday Masses and members of the parish did not receive Communion. It was an oversight on the part of the Eucharistic Ministers and myself.

Please understand that with the present arrangement during COVID we have not achieved the perfect means of distribution of Eucharist. We are doing our best. That should never happen again.

At the same time—thank you all for your patience during the past year and your cooperation. The necessary changes have been difficult for all of us and hopefully we will soon be back to normalcy. Fr. Krizner
