

See you in the Eucharist

Hello Parish Family!

I'm not sure how long I'll be writing bulletin entries, but it seems fitting for now. I was privileged to share in some of Fr. Krizner's creativity, and his beautiful thoughts over the course of our friendship and working for him. If I can be a bridge between him and you in any way during this time of transition, it's my honor, truly. So I'm happy to share some thoughts with you. As I think back to the events of the last three weeks— Fr.'s passing, Holy Week, Easter, Fr.'s Mass of Resurrection, newfound (grateful) guidance under Fr. Bob Stec, and the very first week of a 'new' (unwanted) normal without my Fr... I can't help but be in awe of how much these events parallel the Easter Season. Today's Gospel is the Road to Emmaus... Fr. LOVED this Gospel. The picture on the front of the bulletin today belongs to him. I remember the many times he preached about it.... It's Easter Sunday night, and two disciples of Jesus recall the past days, feeling a sense of hopelessness as everything they knew with the friend they loved was gone. Don't we feel that way? Haven't the past 16 years under Fr.'s beautiful leadership been the most fun and spiritually uplifting? Doesn't it in a way feel a bit hopeless as we've "lost" such a beloved person to each of us, so quickly, without warning, without a real chance to say goodbye? Sounds awfully familiar to today's Gospel. But then, the "stranger" comes and walks with them, reminds them of what they've been taught and what they know to be true... that death hasn't won, but been redeemed. It wasn't until the 'breaking of the bread' when the disciples finally realized it was Jesus they were walking with all along. Fr. Andrew Hoover on Holy Thursday said that when we come together at Mass and 'break bread' in the Eucharist, we're not only united with each other present, but with the entire Communion of Saints in heaven, those named by the Church and those members of our families gone before us. This Gospel today not only reminds me of Fr.'s strong belief in the reality of the Eucharist, in the reality of Christ's Resurrection, but in the reality that every time I go to Mass... that WE go to Mass, Fr. Krizner is there with us and all of the saints, with Jesus, and Mary in the Breaking of the Bread. I miss you, Fr. Krizner. We all miss you. And that's not going to go away. But rest assured I'll look for you at Mass, and I hope you all will join me. See you in the Eucharist. ~Sara

Dear Parish Family of St. Colette

Thank you to everyone for your prayers, kindness, sympathies and overall caring for Fr. Krizner. We all are feeling the loss of a great Pastor, Brother, Uncle and Cousin.

There are some many people to thank that it would make it impossible to list everyone and try to not leave anyone out.

Fr. Krizner's Family

The next Sanctuary Candle will be lit in memory of

Carol Thompson

“Alleluia!!”

It’s our Easter song... and our hope. The promise of Easter is the hope of Eternal Life.

God bless you - over and again - for the beautiful celebration of new life that you gave to Father Krizner. It was an outpouring of your love and care for him, and his faithful ministry and service to the Lord and his parish family.

Special thanks to the parish staff who poured their heart out to create such a prayerful Holy Week and Easter celebration amid the sadness of loss. Please keep them in your prayers. May God bless them for the outpouring of their love, faith and time.

When Jesus returned to his disciples he said, “Peace be with you.” And, again he said, “Peace be with you.” May your peace come from knowing that Father Krizner is with the Lord and trusting that God is with you and your parish community.

Bishop Malesic has asked me to serve as the Administrator in this time of transition. Father Andrew and I are both happy to assist the staff and walk with you as a community of faith. Please know of our prayers, our care and our support for you and your parish community.

Over and again, Jesus offered the gift of Christ’s peace. Be assured of my prayers and care.

Have a blessed week.

Father Bob Stec

Lampstand

St. Colette Church is a parish where Fr. Krizner's spirit and warmth and love and shepherding fostered a family and community spirit.

We were attending another area church when we were invited to try St. Colette's at the urging of one of my husband's staff members. We found St. Colette to be a very nice church with an amazing music ministry, so we continued to come to the 8:00 mass. After our third or fourth time, the couple that sat in front of us introduced themselves to us and welcomed us to the parish. We soon meet the couple that sat next to us and before we knew it, we were all a church family together. Our 8:00 mass family has grown to include others. We all look forward to seeing each other every week. If one misses a Sunday, someone is calling to check on them. This is not something that we experienced in other parishes we attended throughout our lives.
