GOSPEL MEDITATION

April 24, 2022

2nd Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday)

Even Thomas struggles to remove his boulder! Being very pragmatic and determined, he wants to see the risen Christ for himself! Thomas's boulder is heavy with mistrust. Many of ours are too. A certain amount of skepticism is good, as it can save us from being duped or misled. But we can become so skeptical of things that it erodes our ability to trust anything we see or hear. Skepticism can actually be a well-disguised defense mechanism that we use to prevent us from being hurt or perceived as a fool. Having too much ego protection is a real risk. Thomas, because of the boulder blocking his vision, could not even trust the word of his friends.

Boulders are hard to move. It's difficult to seek change or take a risk, especially when we are so afraid to be vulnerable or reluctant to trust another's word. When we are closed minded, overly pragmatic, unwilling to see things in a different way, stubborn or defensive, it is difficult to be surprised by God and stretched. We need to be less guarded, self-assured, and self-absorbed. God cannot break into the ordinary moments of our lives and inspire us when we cling to doubt. If we are going to discover resurrection faith, we have to believe that what the witnesses say is true, especially when they are credible. We also have to trust that the risen Christ is alive in us, too!

While the first witnesses to the resurrection have faded into history, there are many others who have come after them. They continue to inspire by walking the talk of faith. They are the martyrs who offer their lives for the Gospel, the simple holy people in our communities who cling so steadfastly to their faith, those who have touched despair and found new hope and the ones who, even in spite of ridicule, still pursue their hunger and thirst for God. They are our friends, acquaintances, biblical heroes, and saints, and many others who are convinced that they have seen the Lord! The risen Christ may not surprise us with the same kind of visit as he did the first disciples, but God finds other ways. All we have to do is open our eyes, remove whatever is preventing us from seeing and believing and exclaim: "My Lord and my God!"

LAMPPSTAND

It is said that miracles happen around us every day, but, with everything happening in this world, it is easy to not notice them, or to think that God isn't listening. I have had at least two very important instances in my life where I know that God heard and answered my prayers and performed a miracle.

When I was about 9 years old, our mom went through a serious surgery in which afterwards, mom's body went into a type of shock and major organs began to shut down. Her doctor told our dad that they had done all they could and to go home and pray. If mom's condition didn't turn around in 24 hours, there would be no hope. My dad came home with tears in his eyes and called my brothers and me together. We knelt in prayer in the living room in front of our statue of Jesus. Miraculously, the following morning, in less than 12 hours, mom was much better and made a complete recovery. The doctor told us that it was the prayers, his included, since all of his prior actions had brought no changes to mom's conditions. She lived another 40 wonderful years.

In 2011, I had the sad experience of bringing my dad home from the hospital for the last time under Hospice care. On that morning, as I was walking our dog, I prayed. I prayed for God to give me strength and the courage to see this through and not lose faith. At that very moment, I felt my Mom's hand slide into mine. Mom had passed away one year prior to this. I immediately felt strength and a calmness enter me. I looked over immediately and excitedly said "Mom?" As soon as I uttered that question, the feeling of her hand in mine left me, but not the feeling of calmness and strength. God allowed the "visit" to occur to show me I wasn't alone. He was there to help guide me through.

While all of my prayers are not answered as I would wish I know God is listening and I must accept His plans. I have prayed for more than a decade regarding one situation in my life. While the exact outcome is not as I have prayed, God has definitely heard and granted a part of my request for which I am grateful. With this world as it is, keep praying and keep your eyes, mind, and heart open. I am sure you will see, or experience a miracle or two.

The Lampstand

I was born in DuBois, PA, the 3rd of 5 children, all of us less than 2 years apart. Both of my parents were Catholic, but neither of them were church-goers. I was baptized Theresa Lynn at St. Catherine of Sienna Church. As a young girl, I loved my beautiful church, the altar was large and white and had saint statues in lots of cubby holes. My mother made all of us go to catechism class every Saturday morning and mass on Sunday. We thought it was a long walk, but not really. Without adult supervision we weren't always on our best behavior, causing a few nasty looks and pointed fingers.

In the 2nd grade my teacher was Sister Audrey Ann and I just loved her. She prepared us for our 1st holy communion and taught us about Jesus. She made me want to be a nun when I grew up, but that changed when I learned that nuns couldn't have children and I loved babies. But my love for Jesus never waned. In the 6th grade I made my confirmation along with my sister (7th grade) and brother (8th grade). The bishop only came to DuBois every 3 years. After confirmation, I kept going to catechism and mass and made sure my 2 younger brothers went with me. My older brother and sister were not interested.

In June, 1963 having left my alcoholic father, our family was preparing to move to Cleveland. On my last catechism day, my teacher (another favorite Sister), gave me a crucifix to hang on my wall in my new home. I still have it hanging in full view. Once we moved to Cleveland (age 12), we had a hard time finding a Catholic Church close by. My sister & I ended up at a Greek Orthodox Church and they made us sit upstairs with the other children. NOT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH we thought it was. I started going to St. Patrick's on Bridge Avenue. We moved again and I went to St. Stephen's on West 54th Street. By this time, it was hit or miss on the Sundays I attended. Again we moved, this time to Denison Avenue. The Blessed Sacrament Church was a little far, so I started going less and less. Then I met a friend who lived close by and she went every Sunday so I started going with her. In my teen years, even though I didn't receive Jesus in the Eucharist, I never lost my faith and felt very close to our Blessed Mother and St. Therese.

I met Bill when I was 18. He was Byzantine Catholic but not practicing. We married the day before my 21st birthday. Our 1st apt. was in Lakewood so I attended St. Rose Parish. When Brian was born he had to be baptized Byzantine, but then Bill got permission to become Roman Catholic so that our children could be baptized Roman Catholic. By this time my Mother started going to Al-Anon and returned to mass and the sacraments. She and I became even closer in our shared love for our Blessed Mother. We had 4 beautiful children (in 5 ½ years) and they attended St. Vincent de Paul Catholic school in Cleveland. It was there that I made my 1st renewal and worked a few. After renewal, instead of "looking up to Jesus, I knew that he was always right by my side". Our oldest son went on to St. Ignatius High School but when we moved to Brook Park our other three children attended public schools. I loved St. Peter the Apostle Church and was in the choir for 19 years before we moved to Brunswick 10 ½ years ago. My 1st Sunday I went to mass at St. Ambrose (very close to us) and then I went to mass at St. Colette's and I knew this was my home. My husband started coming to mass with me about 7 years ago and received the sacraments a few years later. GOD IS GOOD!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Life is about to get very interesting for the disciples. Finding themselves questioning what happened to Jesus and whether he actually was raised from the dead, they are afraid and uncertain. In the midst of this fear, questioning, and uncertainty, Jesus decides to surprise them with a visit! This visit, complete with the gift of peace, fills the disciples with great excitement and joy. But their detailed testimony is not enough to convince their absent friend Thomas. He wants to see for himself. We struggle with belief as well. It is hard for some to give themselves over to the testimony of another. We want to see the resurrected Christ in person. God, through the gift of eyes of faith, gives us the ability to do precisely that: when we witness the healing that comes from forgiveness, the beauty that flows from love, the wonder of creation, the new life that comes after we fall, and the unique soul that lives behind each person's life. Christ is risen. Life will get very interesting for us too, when we stop unbelieving and believe!

LPI

Easter is not simply one day, The Easter Season lasts 50 days. We anticipate the Ascension and then await the Great Feast of Pentecost. The world brings Easter to an abrupt end but the wonder and mystery, the beauty and reality of His Resurrection cannot be contained in one day or one weekend. Christ has died! Christ is RISEN! Christ will come again. This is Eastertide!

Dear Parish Family,

A million thanks for making our Easter so prayerful and so wonderful! The faithfulness of our parish beams through the liturgies of Holy Week and Easter! I believe that the Risen Lord smiles upon us as we so whole-heartedly celebrate Resurrection. All throughout Holy Week the Church was crowded with the faith and hope that each of you bring. Thank You! I want to express a word of gratitude to all who assisted with the Liturgies: this includes the servers, Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Music Ministry, and the Sacristans. Thanks to the Maintenance Staff for so many set-ups and take-downs. Thanks to the Office Staff for their assistance. THANKS to all of YOU!

Thanks also to the cards and treats for me and Gracie and Annie & Cotton!!! I was amazed to find in a basket (after the Food Blessing) that not only was there candy but there dog treats, a carrot and Fish food!!! Thank you AGAIN!

Easter goes on.....it is truly a 50 day celebration and rightly so. His Resurrection is our hope and promise. Heaven is ours!

It was so very, very good to see so many young people in Church—especially high-school and college age. I hope you felt welcomed. You too are Church and we need your witness of Faith!

Ahead of us is First Holy Communion, Confirmation, the Ascension and Pentecost –the Birthday of the Church. Ahead of us is hopefully warm weather.....!

With all this said, I leave you with one final word: ALLELUIA!

Fr. Krizner, Gracie, Annie, Cotton & the fish!

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Pedro de San José Betancur | April 25

Central America's first saint, St. Pedro de San José Betancur (1626-1667) was born a poor shepherd in the Canary Islands. His family lands were seized because of debt, and he worked as an indentured servant until his early adult life when Pedro left his home to travel to Guatemala. His money for the journey ran out long before he arrived. He was destitute when he did arrive and was forced to join the bread line the Franciscan Friars had for the poor.

In 1655, he joined the Third Order of St Francis. Pedro began to serve the poor, the enslaved, immigrants, abandoned children, anyone that needed him. In 1658 he was given a hut which he made into a hospital for the poor. This small start grew into a shelter for the homeless, a school for the poor, an inn for priests, and several small chapels in poor areas. He was supported by many patrons and was joined in his work by both men and women, who became the Bethlehemite Brothers and the Bethlehemite Sisters.

Pedro prayed for the souls of those in purgatory, walked through the streets of rich neighborhoods ringing a bell and calling the wealthy to repent, and ministered to prisoners. Most accounts credit him with beginning the tradition of posadas, a procession in which people representing Mary and Joseph ask for lodging from their neighbors. This tradition continues today in Mexico and Central America. Because of his work with the poor and marginalized Pedro is often referred to as the "Saint Frances of the Americas". St. Pedro was canonized on July 30, 2002, in Guatemala City, Guatemala by Pope John Paul II.

WHY DID I INCLUDE THE LETTER FROM THE POOR CLARE COLLENTINE NUNS?

I just wanted to share with you the beautiful letter from Mother Dolores. The Nuns are a gem in our diocese and closely associated with us as they follow the Rule of St. Colette. They are a cloistered community who spend most of their day in prayer. They assure us of their prayer for our Parish.

This is not a request letter of any kind—just a thoughtful letter from the Nuns which I wanted you to see.

Deacon Tom, on a regular basis, offered them a Holy Hour. They miss that personal connection & his visits to Rocky River Drive.

As they pray for us let us also pray for them throughout this Easter Season.
