

I am the gate...

...come, find pasture.

Good Morning | Good Afternoon!

Today is known as Good Shepherd Sunday. It is Jesus who gently and safely cares for us...the flock of the Lord. The Shepherd guides us on the journey and attends to each of our needs. Let us pray that we can keep our ears, and mostly our hearts, attentive to the sound of the Shepherd's voice. He will always lead us to a fullness of life...now and forever.

This coming Wednesday, we are working to bring a group together to help us plan a celebration of New Life for Father Krizner. He was a gentle and faithful shepherd for Saint Colette. We want to create a parish celebration to give thanks for his life and ministry and rejoice that he has found the fullness of life in Christ in Heaven. Watch for more details next week so we can all come together in a celebration of Fr. Krizner's life and ministry.

The other day someone asked about some sort of 'grief' support as they/we mourn the loss of Fr. Krizner. Lisa Radey is collecting the names of anyone who would like to come together to find comfort and support in this time of loss. Once we see what is needed, we will put a good plan for support in place. Please let Lisa know if you would like to be involved (lradey@stcoletteparish.com).

Many priests will be available at Saint Ambrose this Wednesday for the Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession) from 4:30 pm to 6 pm. It's a great opportunity to come to the Fount of Mercy, Jesus Christ. All are welcome.

As we walk into the month of May, we reflect on the faithful 'yes' of Mary. Over and again, she said 'yes' to the Lord and, in so doing, her life was full of grace – the Lord was with her. How can we keep looking to Mary's example to inspire us in our own life of faith.

Please let me know how I can be of help and support to you. May this month of May be filled with God's grace and blessing.

Father Bob Stec
frbob@SaintColetteParish.com

S've said it before, but it's the truth! These Sunday Readings were made for our time as a parish family, and praise Jesus for his comfort through them. Our Gospel from John this week says, "The sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out." Fr. Krizner used to fondly talk about his time as a new Benedictine Monk in Boston before coming to St. Andrew's in Cleveland. Part of his duties were to tend the sheep, and (no surprise) it was the joy of his life! One of the amazing things that he shared was that the sheep had many human onlookers, but only responded to the call of their shepherd. Anyone else who tried the same call signs and sounds had no success. This story strikes a tender chord in my heart for a number of reasons, among them being that no matter the noise and distractions of whatever may be going on in our lives on a personal or parish level, when the Shepherd calls, we'll know His voice.... we'll just know. When we "fix our eyes on Jesus" and go wherever he leads, we enter through his Gate of security and peace until, like Fr., we're led home.

In my imagination I like to think of Fr.'s first glimpse of heaven as a parallel to his monk/sheep story: that he's RUNNING with a body no longer broken or in pain, through a field of the most lush, green grass, playing with the lambs... and as he runs to the gate, the shepherd turns to greet him, and it's Jesus. God love you this week! ~Sara Father Krizner will be missed greatly. He touched our family's heart one weekday mass last year. My wife, Luda, immigrated from Ukraine 16 years ago where she still has all of her family. Her mother, Mariya, passed away last year after a yearlong battle with cancer. The next day we came to Friday mass to pray for Mariya. We sat in the back of the church and spoke with Fr. Krizner. We told him about Mariya and he was heartbroken for us.

After one of Fr. Krizner's great homilies he said a few words about Mariya which was unexpected but really touched us. He spoke about how hard it is to lose a Mother. Especially during a horrible war in Ukraine that cost so many innocent lives. Many times, Father would pray for Ukraine and offer his support. He flew the Ukrainian flag, lit Ukrainian colored candles, and provided pray cards in the bulletin. Luda told Mariya about how supportive Father and the St. Colette church was of Ukraine. This brought comfort to Mariya even though she was suffering so greatly. The day when Fr. Krizner said those kinds words is something we will never forget.
