GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

August 1, 2021

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“You cannot see the forest for the trees” is a widely known saying that can bring wisdom to our understanding of our journey. Often, our sight becomes limited to what is immediately before us. We lose touch with lessons and experiences from the past and promises and hope for the future. As human beings, we have the privilege of being able to choose things. What I like and don’t like, want, and don’t want can be major preoccupations of our minds and hearts. Our preferences and desires begin to define us more than the simple fact of our being. Who we are matters more than what we are or what we have. If we don’t move beyond the external and superficial stuff to what really is of essence, we risk becoming very unsettled, disorientated, angry, and unhappy. We fail to see the bigger picture of hope and promise that lies ahead and the Divine Presence that has sustained and carried us before.

We like it when the “now” time of our lives satisfy us. Even the people who witnessed Jesus feed the five thousand got confused and distracted. It felt good when thousands of people were able to eat. They wanted to know what they could do to get this to happen again! But Jesus quickly reminds them that this is not the point of this sign. As much as the now time of our lives is of concern, it is not what is ultimately important. We need to learn the difference between being and doing, drawing more strength from who we are and who God is rather than what is happening around us and the choices we can make. Jesus is the true bread that came down from heaven. Jesus is the very incarnate presence of God who sustains life and assures us that we will not perish. This is not easy to understand and feel. We have to practice being in the presence of ourselves, others, creation, and God. We are brought to a holy place when we encounter the sacredness of being. This is real prayer.

Then, we learn to trust. It is when we cease trusting that we start to become afraid, uncertain, apprehensive, and doubtful, and overly self-concerned. We even start to grumble. God has our back. That is the essential powerful message of the living bread come down from heaven. God, who is alpha is also omega, the beginning and the end, and has everything in between in his care as well. A woman once remarked that her most powerful God moment happened when she and her husband cuddled with their new baby for a time. Without exchanging words and using only the affection communicated through sight and touch, they rested in being with each other. This brought them to the sacred, where they realized that a greater Being was with them. It was real. They knew that they were part of something bigger, intimate, and profound. When we rest in the Living Source of life, we will find that our souls are no longer hungry or thirsty.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

When we lose our ability to trust, we become afraid. When we are afraid, we may begin to grumble and question whether where we are is where we need to be. For us who have faith, we even question whether God is who God says He is. Trust is so important to our success on our journey. Often, the road of our lives can become a bit treacherous. We may find ourselves feeling more unsettled than comfortable and less fulfilled than we would like to be. As much as we try, the pieces of our puzzle don't quite fit together as they ought. We wonder if we will ever experience happiness again. Then, something reminds us that God is very much present in this mess we call life. God is still bringing hope out of despair and life out of death. After all, God is the true bread that comes down from heaven to give life. All that is necessary is for us to trust in this truth, even when we may be lacking in some of life's essentials. The God who gives life is the same God who sustains it. He is also the same God who assures us that we will not perish.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: What can I do to help our family practice our faith each day?

Some families practice their religion together as just another event on their schedule: go to church, observe Lent, help at the parish picnic, go to a meeting, volunteer time, make your confession, use your envelope... But the focus needs to be on who we are—God's people, in relationship with him, loved, forgiven, and redeemed, and called to live and proclaim the Gospel. Our awareness of God's presence and our sense of mission are supported by the daily rituals, celebrations, and traditions that help us stay focused. Sharing our faith strengthens us and clarifies the beliefs and values of Christian living. Daily family practices include time for prayer—before meals, before bed, before important meetings and activities. Attend Sunday Mass together and discuss the homily afterward. Create family celebrations for holy days and holidays. Make religion a regular part of your discussions. Include others, especially the elderly and the less fortunate, in your activities and charitable efforts. By applying the virtues of faith, hope, and love to each day, faith becomes part of who your family is. It influences how you act towards others, what you value, and how mindful of God you are. Faith is the leaven of life that helps all of us rise to our calling and dignity as God's people. ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Practicing Graciousness in the Desert

Looking back over my journey of parenthood, I know there were days when I traveled the extra mile for my children. I made their toast the way they like it, let them play in the park an extra ten minutes, or let them go to the movies with their friends and I finished up the chores on my own. And then, it happened: the attitude. The request for the smallest thing from one of them is met with disdain or bewilderment.

Sometimes you can be made breathless with the ingratitude of another person who takes so much and with so little shame, only to scoff at the idea that they, too, give even the smallest amount.

But if we're being honest with ourselves, we will admit that we do the exact same thing to God. Haven't we all been the Israelites in the desert at one point or another? God has parted our Red Sea in some way. He's led us out of some great trial, given us some great blessings. But then we run into a little resistance somewhere along the way and we throw up our hands. How could you do this to us, Lord? How could you ask this of us? No, I can't go any further. No, I won't do any more.

Persisting in the blindness to the many ways God continues to protect us is nothing short of a temper tantrum. It robs our Everyday Stewardship of its graciousness, of our ability to accept with joy the trials of life because we are also constantly aware of its blessings.

Loving and Gentle God,
Creator and Father, You bring us
to another month and renewed opportunities to grow in our love for You and one another. Look with mercy on our torn world and extend Your hand of Peace. As You have made all things and all things obey Your Will bring us tranquility and touch our hearts
that we might respect one another as Children of One Father!

We ask this through Christ
our Lord.

Getting ready for the Amazing American Penny Carnival! 2021

Dear Parish Family,

An incredible week of preparing for the Amazing American Penny Carnival! Such huge thanks goes to our Maintenance Staff: John, AJ, Vince, Giuseppe & Owen, to Ed Pfahl, to Jo Ann Papa, to Jo-El & Zoey Fuller, the Celebration Youth Group and Music Ministry under Sara's direction. It has been a lot of work—some stress! - but we are ready to OPEN for the Season. As this bulletin goes out the Carnival has already happened(!) but Gratitude is Always!

Annie was at the Hinckley Animal Hospital this past Monday- (you know the operation that has to happen for puppies.....although the office staff talked me out of not taking her so that we could have 8 or 9 more puppies at the parish)! All is well with her! The stress is always for the human in that situation!

May the week bring you blessings! Enjoy August!

Plans are being finalized for our building. As I mentioned at Mass the pandemic took a toll on our plans. Phase One was completed to our satisfaction—the baptistery, new bathrooms, and the larger cry room. Phase Two is the Parish Center itself. We had to modify our plans for financial reasons. We just did not have enough money to do the elaborate plan with classrooms. Countless meetings and phone calls brought us to a final plan which we believe will aptly suit our parish needs and provide a gathering place which exceeds the number which our parish hall allows. It will also have a full kitchen and some of the amenities which were in the original plan.

It is a prudent decision on the part of my staff to work with what we have and with what we can do. We do not want to burden the parish, have a towering debt, or change the present life-style which we have. You know that so many things that we do are 'free' and I want to keep it that way. I think you will be pleased with what we have arrived at. Very shortly we will publish the full plan in the bulletin and speak to you from the pulpit of our on-going progress.

Know that I and we remain more than grateful for your generosity and your patience, for your interest and your concern. It has been a long haul but we have had to be practical and prudent. We'll get there!

Thank you again—so very much—it is a project I would have NEVER tackled if we didn't honestly need it. May God bless our plans and bring it to fulfillment.

Fr. Krizner

Would you consider joining the St. Colette CARE Ministry?

The CARE Ministry is a group devoted to helping people through their grief when a loved one has passed. We do this through celebrating the lives we've lost with memorial Masses three times a year and a Christmas luncheon. We make funeral home visitations to let people know we are praying for them and their loved ones and that we care. We host funeral luncheons by request and provide bakery for the luncheons. We also supply bakery at the funeral home if it is requested. In addition, we take Eucharist to the homebound. Meetings are held as necessary throughout the year and there are no dues. If you are interested in any or all of these, please call the office and leave your name, phone number and email. Someone from CARE will contact you.

We'd love to have you!
