

So sets the sun on a beautiful chapter...

Thank you, Mrs. Papa!

A life of faith is always something to CELEBRATE!

We are immensely grateful for the witness, dedication, and love of Mrs. Jo Ann Papa through her leadership of Celebration, our parish's youth ministry. As she moves forward in her new endeavors, we look back on the fun and faith of Celebration – memories and building blocks that will always be a part of our parish life and tradition. See you in church, Jo Ann!
With all of our love and support, the Family of St. Colette.

It has been a wonderful experience serving in Youth Ministry at St. Colette for the past several years. When Fr. Krizner informed me that I would be the Youth Leader, I initially doubted if I was the right fit. Nevertheless, he consistently reassured me that I was indeed suited for the role. I have loved serving our young community. I strongly believe in the significance of Youth Ministry. The lives of these young individuals are filled with noise and chaos. They have the weight of the world on their shoulders. They require a safe space to unload their burdens, insecurities and simply be carefree kids. My ability to undertake this responsibility was greatly supported by Fr., Jo-El Fuller, Tina Grant, the Saunders and the parents. This journey has deepened my faith and provided me with hope for the future. I've witnessed the unlikely union of teenagers who wouldn't typically come together. They have grown in their faith, gained confidence, and formed lasting friendships. Observing God's influence in their lives has been incredibly powerful. Throughout the years, I've walked alongside them, sharing amazing memories, laughter, tears, and prayers. A few things I have learned is that they just want to be kids, they want to feel "part of", they need hugs, to feel safe and have support. They need direction and reassurance. Everyone has insecurities no matter how tough they may seem, and all we need is love. While I will undoubtedly miss our Sunday gatherings, I sense that God is beckoning me towards a new path of faith. I trust in God's unwavering guidance to steer me correctly. Thank you for trusting me with your children. My prayer for them is continued Joy, Faith, Friendships and Unity for these teens. May God shine His light upon them and keep them. Carlo Acutis, Pray for them. God Bless, Jo Ann Papa Celebration meets for their final bonfire on Sunday August 27th at 6:30! All teens of the parish are welcome to join!

Youth Ministry WILL CONTINUE at St. Colette. Stay tuned as the new chapter begins this Fall...

To our young men women... always remember that YOU are the version of God that he wanted to share with the world...

Go out! And share your light!

Prayer to Blessed Carlo!

Dear Father, who has given us the ardent testimony of the young Servant of God, Carlo Acutis, who made the Eucharist the core of his life and strength of his daily commitments so that everybody may love You above all else, let him soon be counted among the Blessed and Saints in Your Church. Confirm my Faith nurture my Hope, strengthen my Charity in the image of young Carlo, who, growing in these virtues, now lives with You.

(Mention your request here... for the children going back to school)

I trust in you, Father, and your Beloved Son Jesus, in the Virgin Mary, our Dearest Mother, and in the intervention of Your Servant, Carlo Acutis. "To always be close to Jesus, that's my life plan". "The Sacrament of the Eucharist: My Highway to Heaven." Blessed Carlo Acutis, pray for us! Our Father- Hail Mary-Glory Be+

If you ever call the parish office between Noon and 12:45ish :) it's likely that no one will answer the phone because... well, we're at lunch! I know much of the world does not honor lunchtime as 'sacredly' as St. Colette, but there's a reason for that. The first is quite practical, we're hungry. Secondly, we do enjoy the "break". None of us think of parish life as a "job", but even the wonderful days are clouded with stormy ones. But the third and most important reason is the fellowship. The friendship that the parish staff developed over the years is best described as a family. If you eat lunch with us, you're part of us. And its not a notion that's revolutionary, but one that takes its roots in Scripture. The people Jesus ate with were the ones to whom he felt the closest: friends and family. Martha was preparing a meal for Jesus when he came to visit her, Mary and Lazarus; He made breakfast for his apostles after appearing to them on the seashore; Jesus celebrated a wedding feast at Cana with a banquet; he ate his "last supper" with his Apostles... There's something to be said about a meal and friendship— a lesson Fr. Krizner also taught us. When Fr. had to meet with us, whether it was for something silly, fun, business, spiritual, or even admonishing it was always before or after a "here, have a donut" or a candy, pastry, or sometimes a meal. There's something comfortable and spiritual about sharing a meal with somebody. This past week, we said goodbye to our college maintenance team. And of all the many fun times we've had over the summer, over the years, what we'll miss the most is the friendship that started with lunch. We've been blessed with many great kids over the years, but there was something special about AJ, Giuseppe, and Owen this past summer. We've laughed together, cried together, did ministry together, talked about our faith together. They breathed life into our late spring when our spirits were down and joy dwindled. They brought laughter and fun back to our work-place and reminded us that what we share together isn't bound by space or time, life or death, physical proximity, but in the heart. No matter where God takes these boys in his plan for them, we hold the time we shared and the memories that will last a lifetime close to us. So to Giuseppe (Ohio University) and AJ (Mount Union) who are pursuing their degrees in physical therapy, and Owen starting his freshman year at St. Joseph's in Philadelphia to study accounting, we're proud of you, we're with you, and we love you. You're always home at St. Colette. Never forget that. Parish family, I encourage you to join in our parish prayer to Blessed Carlo for these guys and all of our kids returning to school from the littlest to the biggest. Jesus says, "let the children come to me, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to them." And that includes the big kids too!. Even in their adult-like appearance, they bring that insurmountable joy that we as the "real" adults often forget—the fun, the silliness, the little things. They are our "children" too and they deserve the Kingdom of God. We pray THAT for them and all of our young people. So have a great year, and see you soon! And as Fr. would say...

BE SURE TO GET TO MASS! ~Sara

Hello, my name is AJ Fuller and for those of you who don't know, I have worked at St. Colette from the Fall of 2019 through this past Summer of 2023. I am returning to The University of Mount Union this year as a sophomore pursuing a degree in Exercise Science. Over the past 4 years, this parish has given so much to me. From the lifelong skills that I have learned to the lunches with the staff here at St. Colette, I truly have been blessed. The community here at this parish is truly a catholic community like no other. Every day that I worked over the past 4 years I would meet complete strangers that were some of the friendliest individuals I have ever met. The outstanding faith of these individuals is the reason I have stayed so devout in my faith. Coming back from school in early May of this year I really thought this year would be a drag, considering the loss of Fr. Krizner. However, the parish staff and parishioners that I had conversations with daily truly made this a memorable Summer. I look forward to returning to mass at St. Colette during my breaks and cannot wait to celebrate Christmas in this amazing parish in just a few months. -AJ

The Beautiful, Universal Church!

..."Thus says the LORD: Observe what is right, do what is just; for my salvation is about to come, my justice, about to be revealed." The prophet Isaiah, thousands of years ago, proclaimed this message. "Observe what is right, do what is just.." It's that simple. Another way of saying it, "Love God and Love your neighbor." Can you imagine how wonderful and blessed our world would be if we simply observe what is right and do what is just?? We will be bold proclaimers of the justice and mercy of God. It's the mercy and justice of God that we count on (reflect on the Psalm) and it's that same mercy and justice we should share with others.

...Many thanks for your kindness for Father Julius during his stay at Saint Colette. Please keep him in your prayers as he returns to become the Pastor of Holy Name Parish in his home Diocese of Mamfe in the Cameroon. Next weekend we welcome Bishop John Stowe, OFM Conv., from the Diocese of Lexington, KY. He comes as part of the annual mission appeal. Your support will continue the work of the Church in the Appalachian region. Welcome Bishop Stowe.

...We are a Universal Church. Father Julius and Father Caesar are examples of the universal church. Bishop Stowe reminds us of the work we need to do nearer to home. God bless all who donated school supplies for our local students in need. Last week, 104 families received food and school supplies from our community outreach. God bless you for your goodness. We are called to observe what is right and do what is just for those most in need.

...Many of you have also had the opportunity to meet Father Don Bosco. He is from Vijaywada, India. He's been staying at Saint Ambrose while doing mission appeals across the Diocese. Father Bosco and his Bishop will be hosting an authentic Indian dinner on Friday, September 2 at Saint Ambrose. Both are great cooks. Come and share an authentic meal, great company, and learn about the work going on to break the cycles of poverty and suppression for teen girls in India. The Church is doing important work to help these girls in need. To RSVP, please send an email to: mhalenar@StAmbrose.us. There's no charge. Everyone is welcome.

...As you will read in Sara's bulletin letter, Jo Ann Papa is bringing to a close her many years of great work and ministry with our high school students. Jo Ann has a great heart, strong faith and has faithfully tried to observe what is right and best for our high school students. We thank her for her many years of ministry and service.

...Last week I had the opportunity to talk with Larry and Chris Pizon. They are excited about the upcoming PSCF year. There are opportunities for all of our young people to learn and grow in the ways of the Lord. This is a good time to learn more and sign up for the PSCF program that serves the needs of your child(ren) and grandchildren. See today's bulletin for all the details.

...This coming week we welcome Rich Forgach to our maintenance crew. He will be working part-time to support John in caring for our parish facilities. Please join me in welcoming him when you see him on campus on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday.

...Speaking of the bulletin, you can see that we are working hard to create more space to 'lay out' all the good things taking place at Saint Colette.

...Save the Date. We are planning the wonderful Saint Colette tradition of doing a very special service for First Responders on September 11 at 7 pm. Come and pray for peace in our world and for the safety and protection of all who serve to protect us.

...If you are looking for a fun night out for a good cause, there's a special event...The Grand Slam Gala... on Saturday, August 26th at Progressive Field. You can see - and experience - all kinds of cool things and it's a fundraiser for Mission Possible. Over the past 12 years, several members of Saint Colette have helped the poorest of the poor in the Dominican Republic. We would love to have you join in the fun and the good work we are doing for those most in need. To learn more go to: www.missionpossible.us/gala

...Special prayers for all of our students as they return back to school. May God watch over all of our faculty, staff and students in this new year of learning and growing in the ways of the Lord. May this year be blessed. Let's hold them close to the Lord in prayer.

...Observe what is right. Do what is just!! Together - we can create a kinder and more loving community and world for all. God bless you.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Venerable Mother Celestina Bottego was born in Ohio. She went on to be the foundress of the Xavier Missionaries Sisters of Mary in Italy. The Sisters rejected the traditional habit commonly worn by religious women in favor of wearing the same clothing styles as those they served.

Prayer

Almighty and merciful Father, You placed in the heart of Mother Celestina Bottego the ardent desire that Your Kingdom spread throughout the world and made her capable of giving all of herself for the creation of a missionary Family. We humbly ask You to allow us to imitate her holiness of life and, through her intercession, to grant us the grace that we confidently ask of You. ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY! INSPIRATION FOR YOUR WEEK!

"O woman, great is your faith!" The Canaanite woman stood firm in her belief that God would answer her — even when those closest to him tried to send her away, and even when Christ himself challenged her. She never wavered. ©LPi

Join us on Thursday September 7th at 6:30PM for a special celebration in honor of Mary's Birthday! W elcoming Bishop John Stowe, OFM

Conv! Bishop will be here August 26 & 27 for all Masses to discuss the needs of Appalachia. He is sent to us from the Diocese of Cleveland Of-

Bishop John Stowe, OFM Conv., was ordained as the third Bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Lexington on May 5, 2015, succeeding Bishop Ronald Gainer who was appointed as Bishop of Harrisburg, PA in 2014.

Bishop John was born April 15, 1966 in Amherst, OH. He attended grade school at St. Anthony of Padua Parish, staffed by the Conventual Franciscans, and Lorain Catholic High School. After a year of community college, Bishop John joined the formation program for the Conventual Franciscan Province of Our Lady of Consolation at St. Bonaventure Friary in St. Louis, MO. During the time of his candidacy he began studies in philosophy and history at St. Louis University and completed a Bachelor of Arts degree in each in 1990, after an interruption for his novitiate. He subsequently earned a Masters in Divinity and a Licentiate in Church History from the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, CA.

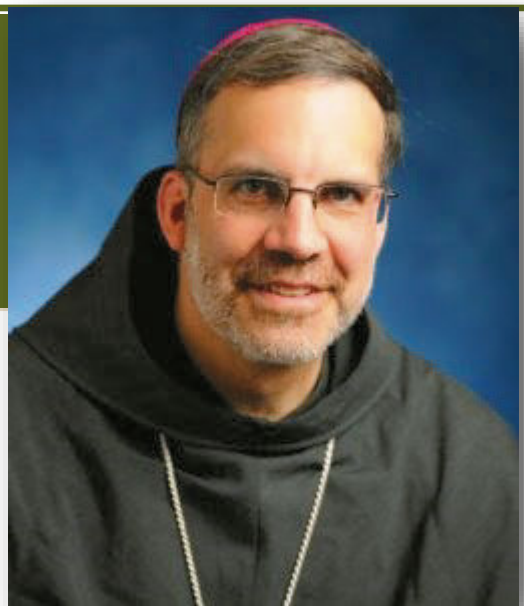

Bishop John made his solemn vows on August 1, 1992, and was ordained to the priesthood on September 16, 1995.

Bishop John served in Texas as a pastor, Moderator of the Curia, and eventually as Chancellor for the Diocese of El Paso. In 2010, he was elected Vicar Provincial of the Province of Our Lady of Consolation and became Pastor and Rector of the Basilica and National Shrine of Our Lady of Consolation in Carey, OH.

On March 12, 2015, Pope Francis named him the third Bishop of Lexington.

Quick Facts:

- + Born April 15, 1966
- + Solemn Vows August 1, 1992
- + Ordained as priest September 16, 1995
- + Ordained and installed as bishop of Lexington, May 5, 2015

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments.

Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people.

Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom.

Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry.

Help them to become instruments of your divine grace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest.

Amen.

There will be a second collection for Bishop's ministry the weekend of August 26 & 27.

Thank you so much for your kindness!!
