

Who do you say that I am?

You are Peter, and upon this rock I WILL BUILD MY CHURCH... Leadership matters. It sets and defines the tone from everything from family dynamics to major companies, to national governance. No well-run entity survives without solid leadership. As leadership changes, evolves, or dissipates so do the entities themselves. Family names perish, businesses thrive and plummet, nations rise and fall. Throughout history there's been only one structure that's survived, stood the test of time, seen empires, trends, and the like... and that's the Catholic Church... because leadership matters, and its leader is God himself.

Founded on the back of Judaism (technically the oldest monotheistic faith) as Jesus was a Jew, Jesus made it clear that he was the fullness of God's revelation to man. That everything that transpired leading up to his incarnation was in preparation for him, and that everything to come refers back to him. The Church loves to use metaphors and symbolism to point to truth and reality. So, let's do that. Scripture refers to Jesus as the "cornerstone rejected by the builders." The cornerstone is the most fundamental stone of a building—It's not the first stone, as the foundation is laid first. But from it, the rest of the particulars of the building are calculated. Jesus is the source of structure and support for the Church, the stone that gives the foundation its significance and the rest of the blueprints its fruition. Without Him, there's no building... but what about the rest of it? What about the rest of the structure and how does it continue after the "cornerstone" has done his job?

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks his Apostles "WHO DO YOU SAY THAT I AM?" He asks his friends if they "get it"... only Peter responds with "the Christ". Leadership matters... and Jesus knew that like any structure that was to survive it would need solid leadership, a solid rock placed on his cornerstone of truth. Peter proved himself to be that rock. From what we know from Scripture and any theatrical biblical interpretation, Peter is far from the shiniest, smoothest of rocks. He's strong-willed, prideful, self-pitying, and painfully cowardly in difficult situations. And I doubt these flaws ever went away the moment he was commissioned by the Spirit to spread the church. Jesus knew Peter's shortcomings, but only defined him by his goodness—his strength and bravery, motivation and work ethic, and passion for truth and justice. Jesus knew the kind of leadership he needed for HIS church--and he's very clear about that... "You are Peter, and upon this rock, I will build MY church." It's Christ's church, and he knew exactly what he was doing when he made Peter it's first pope, then Linus after him, and Cletus after him, and Clement after him, all the way to Francis today. It's CHRIST'S CHURCH, not Peter's, nor Clement's, nor Francis'. Leadership matters.... And Jesus knows what he's doing.

But what about bad leadership within the church, the chaos and turmoil that's existed or still exists... bad popes... anti-popes?! Hey, we've all read some form of church history. And it's not all pretty. Or what about today's church? It's not all pretty. I'm sure many of us or people that we know have some notion about what the leadership of the church is and is not. So, what do we do... what do we think? We refer BACK to our cornerstone! Here's some Scriptural references to assist with that: Isaiah 55:8-9 God's thoughts are higher than ours; Matthew 7:13-14 Enter through the Narrow Gate; Matthew 7:15-23 Beware of wolves in sheep's clothing; Matthew 13:24-30 The weeds and the wheat; Matthew 14:25-31 Walking on Water; Luke 12:48 To whom much is given, much is expected. AND the assuring words of Jesus today... "that the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it."

What God creates is good. Therefore, the Church is good. Its leadership is good... and it matters. And if human nature makes a mess of that, God's going to fix it in his time. It's true that God called Peter to be his first rock... but it's also true that we're all called by God to something! If God can still call Peter all the same despite his shortcomings, what beautiful assurance that he calls us too despite our own... That he defines us by our goodness and uses us as building blocks to continue the work of his church, his kingdom that will never pass away. Build your week on that one! And pray for the leadership of the church. Leadership matters. God bless you, Christ's Church! ~Sara

August Parish Prayer to Blessed Carlo for our Kids!

Dear Father, who has given us the ardent testimony of the young Servant of God, Carlo Acutis, who made the Eucharist the core of his life and strength of his daily commitments so that everybody may love You above all else, let him soon be counted among the Blessed and Saints in Your Church.

Confirm my Faith nurture my Hope, strengthen my Charity in the image of young Carlo, who, growing in these virtues, now lives with You. (Mention your request here... for the children going back to school)

I trust in you, Father, and your Beloved Son Jesus, in the Virgin Mary, our Dearest Mother, and in the intervention of Your Servant, Carlo Acutis. "To always be close to Jesus, that's my life plan". "The Sacrament of the Eucharist: My Highway to Heaven."

Blessed Carlo Acutis, pray for us! Our Father-Hail Mary-Glory Be+

Good Morning! | Good Afternoon!

..."Oh, the depth of the riches, and wisdom, and knowledge of God! How inscrutable are His judgments and how unsearchable His ways! For who has known the mind of the Lord or who has been His counselor? Or who has given the Lord anything that He may be repaid? For from Him, and through Him, and for Him are all things. To Him be glory forever. Amen." Our second reading this weekend from the Letter to the Romans is a beautiful prayer of praise. It's also a powerful reminder of the depth, and the breadth, and wisdom of God. It's beyond our comprehension and understanding. However, that doesn't mean we shouldn't keep striving to learn and grow in the ways of the Lord. We need to ponder deeply the depth of God's love. We need to be so mindful of the blessing of God which should stir in our hearts an overwhelming sense of gratitude. For from Him - and through Him - and for Him - are all things!!!

...This past week Deacon Scott, along with Father Dan, Father Andrew and Deacon Matt Harley, Deacon Tom Sheridan and I came together and engaged in a very good and productive conversation about how best to share some good information with you about the upcoming November election and the constitutional amendment up for vote. A key part of the conversation resonates with this letter to the Romans. We are called to prayerfully reflect on all things seeking the deeper truth of God. Discernment calls us to focus and search for the mind and heart of God. Deacon Matt Harley will be offering an opportunity for you to learn more about the amendment and what it contains and Father Dan Samide will be offering a conversation on the separation of Church and State and what it means for us. Watch for dates coming soon... Wednesdays in September. Hopefully, these two presentations will help you engage in prayerful reflection and meaningful discussion.

...This weekend we welcome Bishop John Stowe to Saint Colette. He comes to share with us some of his experience in serving the needs of his people in Appalachia. Please join me in welcoming him.

...It's hard to believe that the end of August is upon us... which means the start of school and all things Fall. Please continue to pray for all of our students, teachers, staff and all involved in supporting our schools and students. May God keep them safe and engaged in a blessed year of learning and growing in the ways of the Lord.

...As we move into September, this is a great week to register your child(ren) and grandchild(ren) for PSCF. Helping our children explore and learn about the depth and breadth of God's love and the mystery of our faith is so important. God bless Larry and Chris Pizon for their leadership.

...Those planning for Confirmation this Spring should plan to join Sara for a Parent Meeting on Sunday, September 17 after the 10 am Mass. She will outline all the details and requirements.

...Coming on September 28 is the launch of the Youth Ministry Year at 7 pm. Watch for details in the coming weeks. In the meantime, save the date.

...Many of you have asked about ways to support the DiTeodoro children at the unexpected loss of their mom, Angela. Giuseppe has served as one of our college maintenance team members for the past several years and returned back to college this week. After discussion with his family, anyone who is interested in offering a gift in support for Giuseppe, and his sister and brother, can make a donation to Saint Colette. All proceeds will be deposited into their college fund at Unity Catholic Federal Credit Union. Mark the memo and envelope with this note: DiTeodoro College Fund. God bless Giuseppe and his family.

...We are now accepting Mass Intentions for the first half of 2024. See today's bulletin. It's a beautiful way to remember a loved one and/or celebrate a special occasion (anniversary, etc).

...Speaking of daily Mass, remember we have rearranged the schedule to daily Mass on Tuesday and Thursday at 11 am. This allows everyone in our region to have a daily Mass opportunity.

...God bless Mark Henderson and his team for a great Brothers in Faith gathering last week.

...Have a blessed week. Take some time to ponder deeply the depth of God's love and care for you. Be assured of my thoughts and prayers.

Father Bob
