

AS AUGUST WANES...

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

August 29, 2021

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Albert Einstein said that the “true measure of intelligence is not knowledge but imagination.” Being a disciple of Jesus Christ requires a great deal of imagination. It is not enough to simply attend to facts, rules and rituals and consider the job done. Quite contrarily, the Gospels demands creativity, of trying to discern how to put flesh on the Beatitudes and properly serve God’s children. Jesus never doled out a top down agenda. Not once did he ever demand conformity over conversion or sacrifice over mercy. The Gospel is always about putting people in touch with their compassionate, forgiving, and unconditionally loving God and meeting them where they are.

For Jesus, it often meant breaking a few rules. Well respected and time-honored traditions had to be set aside in order to attend to what really mattered. God’s compassion, mercy and true conversion were always the trump cards. The story of the Good Samaritan, healing on the Sabbath, and bypassing of purification rituals all display this theme. Human beings can get too hung up on protocol and tradition. This is so much so that often preserving all of these things is of greater concern than the beggar knocking on our door or the sinner looking for mercy. It is no wonder, then, that we can easily become hypocritical. Many can see us on our knees in prayer while our true heart and actions, rooted in judgment and self-preservation, are hidden from others. It is a trap into which we can easily fall. Who cares how we live our lives as long as our hands are properly washed!

Here enters the need for imagination and the distinction of truly being a wise and intelligent person. It takes a good measure of creativity and a lot of guts to really be a doer of God’s word and not merely a hearer. Being a person who doesn’t just tell people about God but shows people God requires courage and ingenuity. That’s why people like St. Francis of Assisi and St. Teresa of Calcutta are timeless. Their genuineness speaks volumes generation to generation. It’s risky business taking the step to allow God into our hearts. Permitting God to release us from the grip of our evil thoughts, infidelity, greed, malice, sexual improprieties, licentiousness, envy, arrogance, folly, and the like takes courage. That’s why we prefer to spend our energy rearranging the future rather than take measures to secure a foundation that is most certainly crumbling.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: My friend has never heard of Christ and I want to share the Gospel with her but I'm afraid to. How do I share my faith?

Answer:

There are a lot of ways to bring up the topic of religion, without being judgmental or pushy. Begin by asking what her thoughts are about religion, or what her experience was growing up. Finding common ground is often easier than you think, because the questions and problems we have about God, the presence of evil, our purpose in life, and our relationship with God are universal concerns.

Why are you afraid? If you do not want to insult or offend someone, don't be pushy or judgmental. If you are uncertain about how to explain your own faith, do a little reading or practice with a friend. If you measure success only by this person converting, focus your attention more on beginning the conversation, not on bringing it to a perfect close! Faith is a journey of many acts of belief, many discussions about God, and many choices about how we practice what we preach. In some we will have great success; in others we will need forgiveness and perseverance. The most important thing to keep in mind is that the Holy Spirit is always at work and our most humble efforts can bear great fruit. Have faith in God because he has faith in you!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

What makes a person wise and intelligent? Certainly it is not the ability to memorize facts or minute details about a situation. What makes a person wise and intelligent is when their words and actions harmoniously unite and produce virtue. A person can know many facts and even do the right actions but still have a grave flaw in their character. We sometimes want to delude ourselves into thinking that as long as we are “doing” everything correctly, we are automatically in right relationship with all. Such is sadly not the case in the kingdom of God. We are called not to be just hearers of the Word, but doers as well. That means getting to the heart of what laws and rituals are meant to signify and nurture. If we do not bring the actions home, where they belong, and allow them to speak of the goodness, mercy, compassion, and love of God, then they are simply empty worthless gestures. Welcome the Word that has been planted within you so that you can be a truly wise and intelligent disciple of Jesus Christ.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Give it all Back

Pop culture has given us a unique idea of the term justice. Justice, we often think, is about taking. Taking what's owed. Taking revenge. Taking what we deserve. This worldview tends to make mincemeat of our Catholic social teachings. Seeking the good of the poor, a call to community and participation, solidarity — on the face of it, in a society where everything must be earned and we are encouraged to hoard for ourselves whatever success we can achieve, these principles look a lot like highway robbery.

But when you remember the presence of an omnipotent, all-loving and all-merciful God, it turns our gunslinging sense of justice on its head. For how does justice inhabit the same universe as a God who is so quick to give and indeed to forgive?

Well, very easily, when we remember Who exactly is the source of every good and perfect thing in this world. There is no law that cannot be traced back to the Word. And the Word saves our souls.

Is that justice? No, that is a gift. It is the reckless, indulgent gift of a father whose love is greater than His anger. What is justice in the Biblical sense?

The answer is simple. Look at your life. See the hours in your day? See your spouse, your kids, your grandkids? See the house they live in, the money in your wallet, the food in your fridge, the breath in your lungs?

Calling it all your own, refusing to share any of it — that's robbery. Giving it all back to the One who gave it to you — that's justice.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

We pray to You, Almighty and Loving God, to look kindly upon our Nation and upon our world. Hear the cry of so many who are suffering at the hands of others. Empower us to live as brothers and sisters—as Your adopted children. Father, our world is in great strife, be merciful and let Your grace fall upon this earth. May we know the peace which Your Son imparted and be comforted by Your Holy Spirit.

Dear Parish Family,

Thank you for welcoming Father Vincent last weekend. Each year we are sent a Missionary priest—a reminder that the Church is universal and one. I especially welcomed the opportunity to take a Saturday and Sunday off and spend it in my little place in Hinckley. While I enjoyed it the two dogs were bored, restless and eager to come ‘home’ to St. Colette. Annie was at a loss for ‘people’!

By the way Annie found a TV remote and removed the batteries. I found one but could not find the other. In a panic I took her for X-rays and there was NO battery! Thank God and thank St. Francis. The next day the Rabbit got lose and got stuck behind a bookcase. After 45 minutes of searching for her Kathy Plumb, the Secretary found her. Yes, the entire Staff was involved in the search.

The pet blessing in October can't come fast enough!

We had a very productive meeting with the builders and a representative from the Diocese. We have a solid working plan and are awaiting one final approval to begin work. I know that you have heard this before but this is the most confident that I have been. Again, we work with the money we have but also with a plan that is suitable for our present needs. Thank you for being so patient with us.

Benedictine High School hosted their Freshman Retreat last week here at St. Colette. Father Abbot celebrated Mass with the class and they found us to be welcoming and enjoyed their day long visit.

Later in the season we will again welcome Holy Name High School, Juniors and Seniors for their annual retreat.

There is a lot happening here all the time. We are anticipating the “DAY BEFORE SEPTEMBER ELEVENTH” memorial. Please plan to join us.

..watching the cows go home..

Across from my place is a wonderful farm—and all the sounds & sights of the country!

As always please remember those who have asked our prayers—there are so many looking for the Healing Hand of Jesus. May your week be blessed and peace-filled.

PRAY FOR OUR NATION!

Fr. Krizner, Gracie, Annie, Cotton! And the fish.

Franciscan Sisters, T.O.R

Please join us for our Share His Mercy Benefit 2021, themed Living by Faith: In the Footsteps of St. Joseph. This year we joyfully extend the invitation to join us at our home, our Motherhouse. The event begins with lunch at 1pm. This meal will include indoor or outdoor seating options for our guests. Following the meal, our program will be held in our chapel, where our sisters will share their original music and what inspired it. A Sunday vigil Mass will close our time together. Additionally, we will be offering the option for guests to join us virtually from their own homes. Please consider attending or sponsoring this event, as it is our most significant fundraiser of the year. More than 70% of our income comes from the generous support of benefactors like you! Your support makes it possible for us to live our life of prayer, participate in works of mercy to the poor, give guidance and witness to students on college campuses, visit our friends in nursing homes, promote vocations, and provide formation and guidance for our new sisters. Registration is required for both the in-person and virtual options and can be found under the events page at www.franciscansisterstor.org. We hope to see you there! If you have any questions or need more information, please feel free to contact Sr. Anna Rose at 740-544- 5542 ext. 135. -Sr. is a HN grad.
