GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

August 7, 2022

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

St. Thomas Aquinas reminds us that, “Three things are necessary for the salvation of man: to know what he ought to believe, to know what he ought to desire, and to know what he ought to do.” Everyone is called to work toward their salvation, which is ultimately union with God. Those who take this call seriously must embark upon a journey inward to the deepest recesses of their soul. In the adventure and wonder of that journey, we work out the details of our union with our Beloved. We cling to what we need to believe, remain firm in what we truly desire, and are guided by what we know we have to do. Once we know that our goal is to be one with our Creator, life becomes an exciting expedition to pursue that end. We make necessary preparations, follow the map, and remain on course.

Whenever we really want something, we put our entire selves into achieving it. Being fully invested in our labor, we willingly work extra hours, devote an abundance of energy and effort, and remain vigilant for beneficial opportunities that may come our way. We certainly do not passively sit by doing nothing! Such an attitude leads to laziness and the accomplishment of little. Worse yet, some look to others to do the work for them, hoping to reap the benefits of another’s efforts. Conscientiousness and diligence are the only means to success.

For the one who eagerly awaits the day when they can be fully with God, life becomes a joyous adventure indeed! Alert, ready, focused, convicted, and willing to be a servant they constantly watch and prepare themselves for meeting the Lord. Loving the journey and being in love with their Creator, their lives become joyful witnesses of love and service. They are secure in their hope, confident in their faith, and perfect in their love. Never looking for recognition or gratitude, they stand as gentle inspirations of what the Holy Spirit can do in the hearts of those who believe. Because we do not know what tomorrow will bring, we stand ready to be used as God wills and run eagerly toward Him when He comes. How much do we desire to experience the joy of salvation?

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The fruits of our labors are not always seen in our lifetimes. Faith is not conditional on seeing results. Faith is a radical trust in what is unseen. It requires vigilance and self-investment. It requires our attention even when our efforts don't bear fruit or are unappreciated or unrecognized. A person who is open to accepting God's presence, however it comes, and is willing to share the love received with others is a true inspiration. Good works will flow from this vigilant depth of faith. It will be directed where it is most needed and detached from the need for recognition or gratitude. Faith exercised in secret is the most profound expression of faith and a testament of true love for our Creator. No one needs to know the humility, generosity, and goodness of our hearts, only God. Standing erect and watchful, we are prepared to receive the gift of Divine Love and freely share it with others, without recognition or self-benefit.

A prayer at Morning!

My God, I adore You, and I love You with all my heart. I thank you for having created me, made me a Christian, and preserved me this night. I offer You the actions of this day. Grant that all of them may be in accordance with Your holy Will and for Your greater glory. Protect me from sin and from all evil. Let Your grace be always with me and with all my dear ones. Amen.

Psalm 113:3
From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same the LORD'S name is to be praised.

A PRAYER FOR STUDENTS

Lord our God,
in your wisdom and love
you surround us with the mysteries of the universe.

Send your Spirit upon these students, our sons and daughters,
and fill them with your wisdom and blessings.

Grant that they may devote themselves to their studies
and draw ever closer to you,
the source of all knowledge.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
R/. Amen.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question:

On August 10 we celebrate the feast of St. Lawrence. Can you tell us a bit about him?

Answer:

Little is known about Lawrence other than he was a deacon during the reign of Emperor Valerian from 253–259. In 258, Valerian began a persecution of the Roman Church. Lawrence was in charge of the purse for the Church of Rome. Roman officials demanded that the riches of the church be handed over to them. Lawrence asked for a few days to gather them.

Lawrence took the money he had charge over and distributed it to the poor of Rome. Then he gathered all the homeless and poor together. When the officials came again demanding the riches of the church, Lawrence pointed to the destitute and homeless, saying that these were the true riches of the church. For this he was imprisoned and tortured, and put to death by burning on a gridiron. It is said that as he was dying, he told his executioners to turn him over because he was done on one side and needed to be fully cooked for the Lord.

Lawrence continues to be a model for us today. The church needs continual reminders that its riches are the people. The primary purpose and mission of the church is to be continually sensitive to the needs of all God's people, most especially the least of our brothers and sisters.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Caught in the Rising Action

Think of some of your favorite iconic movies. I'm not talking about the feel-good comedies or the offbeat coming-of-age flicks. I'm talking about the movies that you found had a profound impact on you or made you go "Hmmm."

I'm willing to bet that the plot of this film features some tough moments and difficult scenarios. However happy the ending, at some point, the situation for the protagonist might look awfully hopeless. The script speaks some truth to you about what it is to be human in difficult circumstances. What it means to persevere.

We're attracted to the tension that exists when the hero is besieged. We're captivated by the decisions he makes in the darkest hour of the night when it seems like the dawn will never come. Why? Because we know that feeling so well. This is the essence of our human life on earth: waiting, hoping, doubting — and enduring.

We know the ending to our story, but we don't know when it's coming. We live our whole lives in the rising action of the narrative. Sure, it gets old. Tiresome, even dull. We may start to despair that the climactic scene is coming at all.

But faith is the realization of things hoped for, and evidence of things not seen. We feel it watching a great movie, because we recognize it intuitively: it is faith which earns the happy ending. No one is drawn to the story when the hero gives up or gets tired of waiting for the

THE AMAZING AMERICAN PENNY CARNIVAL 2022

A HUGE THANK YOU!

You can't imagine how gratifying it is to see so many families and so many little ones enjoying the AA Penny Carnival! It seems everyone had a great time. There are far too many people to thank –the adults, the kids, the kitchen crew and on and on. But I assure you none of us brings about this event for a thank you—rather, it is a sign of Church for every age group and we are all the Ministers of Faith and Fun! Needless to say the Entertainment on Saturday Night was stupendous, the food was excellent, and the workers did an amazing job of co-operation.

A ton of work goes into this two-day event and it's well worth it. Whenever we can bring people together of all ages then it is Church! I am so grateful to the parents who brought their children and to the visitors of every age group who took the time to join us. Thank you for supporting us and sharing with us in a spirit of Euclid Beach Park—a simpler time in a less-complicated world!

By the time this bulletin is published and everything has been dismantled we will indeed be 'Closed for the Season' but take heart there are more things ahead, after all, 'we provide the atmosphere and you make the memories'!

Thanks to all!

Fr. Krizner

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Jane Frances de Chantal | August 12

Saint Jane Frances de Chantal was born to a noble family in Dijon, France, on January 28, 1572. Her mother died when she was an infant. Her father raised her and provided for her education. In 1592 She married the Baron de Chantal, the couple were devoted to each other. They had six children, three of whom died in infancy. As Baroness, Saint Jane Frances restored the custom of daily Mass, and was famous for her charitable works. Unfortunately, her husband died in a hunting accident only eight years after their marriage. Devastated Jane Frances was forced to live in her father-in-law's strict household where she took a vow of chastity.

In 1604 while visiting her father in Dijon, she met Saint Francis de Sales and he became her close friend and spiritual director. Although not many of their epistles have survived, the pair had a lively correspondence which lasted until Saint Francis died.

Under the direction of St. Francis de Sales and with his partnership she established the Congregation of the Visitation at Annecy in 1610. This was a unique order, without the extreme ascetical practices typical in other religious orders, accepting women and girls and those rejected by other orders because of poor health or age. The new order was also unusual in its public ministry, rather than a strictly cloistered life. Saint Jane transformed her convent at Annecy into a hospital during the plague of 1628.

The saint died at the Visitation Convent in Moulins on December 13, 1641. At the time of her death, there were 86 convents of Visitation nuns. She was canonized in 1767 by Pope Clement XIII. ©LPI

ALL GORY TO YOU, LORD JESUS!

Father Julius will be leaving on Tuesday for the Cameroon. With a quick stop n England to put together his belongings he will venture Home and receive his new assignment as Catechist for the Diocese. It has been a joy to have him visit with us—and we wish him all of God’s blessings as he assumes the responsibilities of his diocesan position. While we will miss his infectious laugh we know that he will, in turn, keep us in his prayers. Bon Voyage and Go with God! ~ our every prayer and blessing!

Philippians 1:6; “being confident of this, that He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.”

Loss by Suicide Bereavement Support

For those struggling with the loss of a loved one by suicide, the Catholic Diocese of Cleveland is collaborating with Cornerstone of Hope to provide licensed counselors to facilitate a Loss by Suicide Bereavement counseling sessions. The group is limited to 15 participants. Cost is $40 per participant. The sessions will be held at St. Albert the Great Church, Hall A, in the church hall. Sessions begin Monday, September 12th and run for 10 consecutive Mondays beginning at 6:30 p.m. Please contact Terri Yohman, Director of Marriage and Family Ministry, for more details or to begin the registration process at: tyohman@dioceseofcleveland.org or 216-696-6525 ext. 2322.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)

Have you been coming to Mass for a while, but are not Catholic?

Do you have questions about God and Faith, or do you know someone who does?

Do you have questions about the Catholic Church?

Perhaps you are searching quietly and need some answers.

Starting in the fall, our parish will begin a journey of faith, to share the richness of the Catholic Church and the love of our parish family.

We invite you to learn what the church teaches and how we choose to live as Catholic Christians.

These gatherings are for those who are unbaptized, Catholics who have been away from their faith, as well as those who are baptized Christians from various backgrounds.

Call Lisa Radey at the parish office 330.273.5500 or email her at lradey@stcoletteparish.com

Remembering with Love...

Our loving prayers and deepest sympathy are extended to the family of Charlie Hannan (husband of Cheryl) who was called to his Eternal reward. Please pray for him and all the faithful departed.

Live in Light & Peace!

DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO CAN USE THE GIFT OF PRAYER?

Ladies from St. Colette's have made beautiful prayer shawls/blankets for anyone needing some extra prayer. The shawl/blanket is created prayerfully with much love and is a way to wrap yourself the love and mercy of our God.

If you know of someone who could use a little extra prayer please come to the parish office and we will let you select a prayer shawl.
