GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

December 11, 2022
3rd Sunday of Advent

Life can leave us feeling dark and desolate. Sandy was just twenty-eight when her husband, Rob, died, leaving her to raise their two young children. She was without paid employment. Rob went to work one morning and never returned home. Sandy, though, had faith and trusted that somehow God would help her through, even though most days brought deafening, piercing loneliness. She persevered, and the darkness gave way to light. Remarking one day to a friend hesitant to commit to a relationship, Sandy shared her wisdom. Even if she knew the outcome would be the same, she would marry Rob again. She assured her friend that she would even do this if eight years could only be eight minutes. We are being led by God and God transforms the darkness into light.

“Be strong, fear not!” Those are easy words to say. Putting them into practice is the challenge. When our paths are dark and life’s roads become treacherous, we can easily complain about life’s unfinished nature. When will the pain go away? Will the loneliness ever cease? Will I experience happiness again? As the farmer needs to exercise patience with the soil, we need to do the same with our lives. We have to wait for the early and late rains to come, properly tend to our gardens, and ensure that the rich nutrients of God’s merciful and tender presence continue to enrich us. God is not done. God has only just begun his work in us.

We cannot allow life to hold us captive. The systems, agendas, protocols, regulations, expectations, and unfinished business can distract us from what it means to be God’s child. Life can leave us feeling cheated, negative, and parched. All times and seasons of our spiritual and liturgical lives lead us to three virtues: faith, hope and love. Stop complaining about what is wrong and look to what God can make right! Joy that flows from the Baptist’s message: in Jesus, the one mightier than he, are found healing, reconciliation, and freedom. Christ will save us from life’s distortions, illusions, and disappointments. Do you believe this?

Rejoice!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We can often feel parched, desolate, lifeless, and dark. Even though we still engage in the business and demands of life, we find ourselves somewhat detached, disengaged, and removed. We lack joy, wonder, awe, and zest. Rather than being an experience of freedom and excitement, life holds us captive. We are tethered to systems, agendas, protocols, regulations, and expectations that go against the grain of what it means to be God's child. We find ourselves in a desert. Jesus came to release us from all of this negativity and desolation. John the Baptist announced the arrival of the One who embodies healing, reconciliation, freedom, and life. Stop complaining about what you don't have. Prepare for the arrival of the remedy to life's despair. Be strong, fear not! Christ will save us from life's distortions, illusions, and disappointments. Be patient. With proper time and care, all will be well.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED
Strengthening Faith

Question:

Our prayer group is discussing ways we can change and strengthen our faith. What one thing could we change that would have the greatest impact on our faith?

Answer:

A famous coach once said that when the team is in trouble and things aren't going well, go back to the basics; when the team is winning and things are going well, go back to the basics! Any renewal program, faith development, or spiritual growth effort has to start with the basic core of what it means to believe. If the foundation is not strong, the house will not stand. So if you work on one thing, begin with the idea that God is love, who loves us and calls us to love one another. If we really take that belief to heart, it changes how we see God, ourselves, and one another. It would change how we pray, how we treat others, and how we understand and live our own life. Our sense of mission and purpose will be more focused on God's plan and our role in it. Love is the core of faith, the goal of life, and the hope of heaven. Whatever we do to strengthen and deepen our faith will begin and end with love.

the hopes and dreams of all the years

We hope you'll save the date for Thursday December 15th—7pm-it's our Advent/Christmas Concert—a surely beautiful way to anticipate and celebrate the Joy of the Season! Bring a neighbor/friend—We'll have a Christmas cookie reception to follow--AND to change things up a bit and make everyone feel more a part of it, we invite you to bring your favorite Christmas cookies to share! If you're a holiday baker, I'm sure there's nothing you enjoy more than sharing your favorite cookie recipes with family and friends—and the truth is in these walls we're all family! So, if you'd like, bring your cookies to the concert or a day or two before and we'll share them together!

Sara & Music Ministry

The Gift Shop and Office will be open from 9a.m. to Noon on Christmas Eve. The Office & Gift Shop will be closed on Christmas Day. On December 26 the Office & Shop will be open from 9—1 p.m. Only.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Season That Gives Back

I don't have anything left to give.

You can't pour from an empty cup.

All I do is give. Who is giving to me?

Raise your hand if these thoughts have ever run through your head. I'm sure they occur to all of us from time to time. We can become so easily depleted by the fast pace of life and whatever vocation God has called us to, whether that's parenthood, a demanding professional career or the caretaking of friends and family (or as so often happens, a hybrid of all three). Many of us also undergo certain seasons — seasons of the year, but also seasons of life — that seem to sap us of energy and leave us totally empty.

In these times, it seems impossible to continue in the spirituality of Everyday Stewardship. Graciousness, mindfulness, prayerfulness, gratitude, accountability — maintaining some semblance of these characteristics in our daily life feels not only overly optimistic, but totally impossible.

The Church gives us certain liturgical seasons that are meant to fill us up, almost like spiritual pit stops. Advent is one such season, and the Scriptural passages we reflect on at Mass during these four weeks are filled with images of nature defied. We see the dry steppe blooming. We see the weak made firm. We see the frightened made strong. We see the lame walk. We see the Virgin give birth.

If you think you don't have anything left to give this Advent, think again. This is the season of miracles when what we thought was depleted brings new life.

“A Joyful Sunday. The Third Sunday of Advent is also known as Gaudete Sunday. The word “gaudete” is derived from the Latin words “gaudium,” joy, and “gaudeo,” to rejoice or be glad. Gaudete Sunday occurs eight to thirteen days before Christmas, and the nearness of the feast is reason for great joy.

The Term

“Gaudete.” Gaudete is taken from the Entrance Antiphon: “Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice. Indeed, the Lord is near” (paraphrase, Phil 4:4-5). Advent is a time of joyful expectation and eager preparation for the Solemnity of Christmas.”

LAMPSTAND—Christmas Memories!

IF ONLY I could return just one more time to my best childhood Christmases – in Johnstown Pa where my maternal grandparents lived. While I would spend most childhood summers there , it was Yuletide that my grandparents, (Finnish/Irish/Hungarian immigrants) made unforgettable. The house smelled like a wonderful blend of evergreen and citrus. Beautiful pastries and cakes painstakingly made after hours of work and devotion, were ready for the Christmas Eve smorgas table; and final touches were made to the dinner for Christmas Day. I got to sleep in my mother’s childhood room, which made me feel like a princess. On a obscure shelf in the kitchen, there was a YUBAN coffee tin in which my grandmother hid small surprises for us; she would say “Yuban stood for Yuletide Banquet” and we would just have to wait after our “banquet” to see what was in there. The Christmas tree was simply decorated with the candy cane- shaped bubble lights that many used at that time. Buttered Limpa (Nordic rye bread spread with sugar and cinnamon) would be left out for Joulupukki (the tall, slender Finnish Santa Claus) and carrots for his reindeer on Christmas Eve . We were allowed to have a sip of the fruity holiday Glug that had fermented and been stirred for months in a plank-covered crock in the old basement. Not sure if our cheeks were red, (to the distain of our mother), from trying to sip more than allowed or due to the excitement of the day to come -- seeing our cousins, who lived nearby, to share a beautiful dinner after Christmas Day mass. Whenever I hear someone mention Johnstown, my heart skips a beat -- it was, and always will be, my second home. If only I could see those dear and beautiful faces once more and tell them how loved and special they made me feel and how magical they made my childhood, especially at Christmas. “...I’ll be home for Christmas, if only in my dreams...” IF ONLY.

-Kathleen

Dear Santa,

Annie has not been on your nice list for a long time now. I know that she is my sister but things can be a little difficult with her abundant energy. I’m a bit older now and sometimes she gets on my nerves. I’m sorry about that. What should I do?

Santa’s answer: Guess what, Gracie, you are almost human! Sisters argue ,brothers argue, and sometimes they get on one another’s nerves but you got to love Annie all the same. Yes, she had been on the naughty list –especially after she has turned three rolls of paper towels into what looked like a blizzard!

You are sisters and if you didn’t disagree once in awhile or have differences I’d be worried about you! After all, humans do that all the time and I don’t think they deserve to be on a naughty list– if they did no one would make the nice list. Try to understand! Love– Santa

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Damasus | December 11

Saint Damasus served as bishop of Rome for 18 years as Pope Damasus I (366-384). He had to endure significant controversy early in his pontifical reign when a factional group of bishops insisted that their chosen claimant, Ursinus, was the true pope. Both sides resorted to violence before the issue was decided in favor of Damasus. He went on to make the unification of the Church a central focus of his papacy and fervently fought to counter any division caused by the many heretical teachings of his time.

While he was pope, Christianity was declared the official religion of the Roman Empire and Rome's authority in the Church was decided by a synod that Damasus called in 382. This synod established Rome as the direct descendant of the Church founded by the apostle Saint Peter, the apostolic see, and put an end to confusion stemming from Constantinople, which some were already calling 'The New Rome'.

To further unify the Church, Damasus introduced Latin as the principle liturgical language and commissioned his secretary, Saint Jerome, to compile and revise the various translations of the Bible into one official translation to be used by the entire Church: The Latin Vulgate. This successfully preserved the original Scriptures by making them more accessible to the average Christian.

A writer and poet himself, Saint Damasus lives on in history through his many epigrams and verse inscriptions that can be found on the Roman catacombs that he restored during his papacy. Saint Jerome described his friend, Pope Damasus, as being "an incomparable person, learned in the Scriptures, a virgin doctor of the virgin Church, who loved chastity and heard its praises with pleasure."

Help aging Religious. Senior sisters, brothers and religious order priests have devoted their lives to prayer, service and works of mercy. Most ministered for little or no pay. Today, their religious communities do not have enough retirement savings. Your gift to today's Retirement Fund for Religious collection helps to furnish medications, nursing care and other necessities. There are envelopes at the church entrances for your convenience.

Gluten free Eucharist

For those wishing to receive, please see a Sacristan before mass.

OPLATKI

Oplatki are shared on Christmas Eve with the head of the table saying a prayer, thanking God for the family's blessings and asking forgiveness of anyone he or she has injured. A piece of the oplatek (singular form of oplatki) is broken off and shared, then the oplatek is passed to the next person and the ritual repeats itself.

Oplatki are available in the Atrium.

Parish Activities

Daytime Believers - Wednesday, December 14 - 10am

Brothers - Saturday, December 17 - 8am

Baptism Class

The next Baptism Class will be held Sunday, January 15th after the 11:45am mass at St. Colette.

Diocesan policy requires attendance at a Baptism class for parents who are planning to present their first child for the Sacrament of Baptism.

To register, call the Parish Office at (330) 273-5500.

DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO CAN USE THE GIFT OF PRAYER?

Ladies from St. Colette's have made beautiful prayer shawls/blankets for anyone needing some extra prayer. The shawl/blanket is created prayerfully with much love and is a way to wrap yourself the love and mercy of our God.

If you know of someone who could use a little extra prayer please come to the parish office and we will let you select a prayer shawl.

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort 2 Corinthians 1:3
