GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Sunday of Advent

At sixty years of age, Maria and Paul had a beautiful life. High school sweethearts, they had four children, five grandchildren, a successful business, good friends and a fabulous beach house. They felt very blessed. Their strong faith in God saw them through some difficult challenges. Without warning, Paul died suddenly. Maria was devastated. Why did God do this? Why did God allow this to happen? An indescribable depth of sadness weighed heavily upon her heart. She felt betrayed by the God she thought was looking out for her. She was overwhelmed by despair. Have you ever experienced such incredible and deafening sadness? Where is God in all of the pain?

We often want God to fix things or intervene and change nature's course. When He doesn't act as we desire, it shakes our faith. We do not always understand or appreciate why things happen as they do. There is much that is beyond our control. John the Baptist prepared the way for Jesus and Jesus is the way to God. There is something more going on in life than what we can see with human eyes. We are on a sacred path, and God is with us. God is with us in our confusion, suffering, doubts, and intense sadness. Jesus announced God's vision for humanity and taught people to see God and themselves for who they are. There is a way through and beyond all hardship and suffering. God does not abandon us.

God has a clear vision for the future, both for us individually and for our world. It is a vision of harmony and gentleness where all will live as one and the "wolf shall be a guest of the lamb." God is not indifferent. He is the God of "endurance and encouragement." In God, we see what we may be, what may come and who we can become. When Maria opened herself to God's creative presence, she learned to trust. She began to realize that she could endure more than she had imagined. She also discovered a spark of encouragement, bringing her through the sadness to where she could be. In retrospect, Maria knew that God's reassuring presence was with her.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

How Much Is Enough?

I've got some great news for some of you: Jesus Christ doesn't care what name you bear. He doesn't care where you were born, and he doesn't care what your family tree looks like. He doesn't care where you grew up or where you went to school.

I've also got some bad news for some of you: See above.

It's so easy to take our salvation for granted. The mercy of God makes it so. Look at John the Baptist — he was pouring water on everybody who wanted it. Everybody but one group: those who expected it. Those who thought it was a given because of who they were, because of what they were. Those who had no intention of doing the work of repentance.

Sometimes, because God is so faithful, we make the mistake of forgetting that He is also just.

I am baptized, we think. I made my First Communion, and I was Confirmed. That's enough.

I went to Catholic school. I know all the Ten Commandments and I can tell you anything you want to know about the Popes. That's enough.

I'm on parish council. I put money in the basket, and I volunteer. That's enough.

None of it is enough. It would never be enough. And before we look upon the Pharisees and Sadducees with too much judgment, we need to remember: the work of repentance is ongoing. It is a process that we must commit to within ourselves, continuously.

God is the missing element to this equation. He is the one who raises children to Abraham from the stones. If we rely only on our own abilities, our own merits, our own offerings, it will never be enough.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The God in whom we believe is “the God of endurance and encouragement.” Have you ever thought about God in those terms? Our sight can become limited by the concerns of the world and our individual lives. We can look to the past and see what is happening in the present, but the future is primarily left to our imaginations. God has a clear vision for the future. It is one where the “wolf shall be a guest of the lamb and the leopard shall lie down with the kid.” It is a vision of harmony and gentleness where all will live as one. We can see the complete picture of life in God. We see what we may be, what may come, and who we can become. Preparing the way for the Lord means moving beyond the limitations of ideology, time, space, preference, and self-focused concern so that we can see as God sees. God will give us what we need to endure whatever comes, and the encouragement we need to get where we can be.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Sign of the Cross

Question:

Why do Catholics make the sign of the cross?

Answer:

The sign of the cross is a devotional practice that dates back to the first Apostles. When making the sign of the cross, we remember Jesus Christ who died for us and also bear witness to the fact that we belong to him and are called to share the Good News to all the world. At our Baptism, we were signed with a cross and marked for Christ. That mark remains on us throughout the entirety of our lives. We remind ourselves of that mark every time we make the same gesture over our bodies. We also remind ourselves that to be a Christian means we are to “put on Christ” and be Christ for a world that needs to know him. In a way, this devotional gesture covers us with Christ so that others may see him in us.

Catholics are not the only ones who make the sign of the cross. Orthodox, Lutheran, and Anglicans are examples of other Christians who maintain this same ancient traditions. ©LPi

A Tremendous Thank You to Kevin Laughlin who put up the lights in front of our church Building! He is a remarkable artist of sorts and, with his imagination, has displayed the perfect Christmas décor.

Thanks also for the atrium Christmas tree which has the ornaments of the past years from various parishioners! Thanks for your work!

Come see what surprises we have!

All-powerful God, your eternal Word took flesh on our earth when the Virgin Mary placed her life at the service of your plan. Lift our minds in watchful hope to hear the voice which announces his glory and open our minds to receive the Spirit who prepares us for his coming. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

“O Father, in your Truth (that is to say, in your Son, humbled, needy and homeless) you have humbled me. He was humbled in the womb of the Virgin, needy in the manger of the sheep, and homeless on the wood of the Cross. Nothing so humbles the proud sinner as the humility of Jesus Christ’s humanity.”

– St. Anthony of Padua

Slovak Maternal Blessing with Oplatki

Before serving the meal the mother sprinkles holy water on the table and house that the blessings of God 'rest upon them'. The father serves oplatki with a kiss to his wife asking forgiveness for anything he may have caused. The father then takes honey and makes a small sign of the cross on the foreheads of all present, This is to remind them to keep Christ in our thoughts and to live, work in harmony and pleasant fellowship—may our lives be sweetened.

Slovak Christmas Blessing

We wish you on this glorious holy day of the birth of Christ the Lord—God give you happiness, health, an abundance of grace, blessings, and after death the Kingdom of Heaven. Praise the Lord Jesus,
Vesele Vianoce

This is an encouragement to make the most of the Christmas period. It means that Christmas comes just once a year, for those that don't make the most of it – it's their loss.!

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Ambrose | December 7

Saint Ambrose was born to an aristocratic Roman Christian family in 339 in what is now Trier, Germany. One popular legend tells of a swarm of bees alighting on the infant Ambrose's face and leaving behind a drop of honey which his father took as a sign that Ambrose would be an eloquent speaker with a 'honeyed tongue.'

Ambrose was educated in law and rhetoric in Rome. Like his father, he went into public service and was made governor of Liguria and Emilia about 373. In the second year of his governorship, he went to moderate the election of the bishop of Milan because the heretical Arians were challenging the succession. Unbaptized and untrained in theology, Ambrose was called by popular acclamation to be bishop. Though he attempted to flee, he was found and within a week he was baptized, ordained, and consecrated bishop on December 7, 374.

As bishop Ambrose studied scripture and the writings of Church fathers, he gave his property and wealth to the poor, and became an impactful orator, hymn writer, and renowned teacher. He highly praised consecrated virginity, likely influenced by his sister who took the veil. A contemporary with St. Martin of Tours, he also defended the faith against the Arian heresy (which questioned Christ's divinity), and against the state. Ambrose required Emperor Theodosius do public penance after the massacre of Thessalonica. His classic education contributed to his writing and sermons which attracted and converted Saint Augustine of Hippo who Saint Ambrose baptized.

Saint Ambrose is one of four original doctors of the Church. He died in 397 in Milan, Italy. His remains can be seen today at the Basilica di Sant' Ambrogio, where he lays with Saint Gervasus and Saint Protasus.

LAMPSTAND

At the age of 74, my holiday memories are like Santa's sack; full and busting at the seams. My most special memories are that of family.

I can close my eyes and see my mother in the kitchen on Christmas Eve, Christmas apron wrapped around her waist, towel over her shoulder, sweat dripping down her face, mixing up the mashed potatoes, checking the turkey, yelling at me and my brother---"Get in here, I need your help, Santa's watching, you know !"

Christmas Eve has always been a special time in my family, a time to gather with family and friends, a time to share, a time to laugh and a time to believe and hold on to our tradition. Christmas Eve was always celebrated at our house. The relatives came, we exchanged gifts, Santa stopped by and we all shared in the traditional Christmas Eve meal.

My father would call everyone into the dining room, 'Time to eat', he would say, 'he who hesitates is lost'; then the lights were turned off and silence settled over us all. My father would enter from the kitchen, carrying a tray filled with Christmas tradition: a Blessed Candle that he lit and proclaimed, ' On this night a child was born to a virgin in a small stable in Bethlehem, a child who would take away the darkness and be the light of the world.' With that he continued on: Holy water to protect us all from evil, he would bless us all with the sign of the cross...Bread, the staff of life, Figs to nourish our journey, Honey, to sweeten our life, Garlic for strong health, Olive oil to make our journey through life smooth (my dad's special touch), and finally a collection of change representing prosperity for the coming year.

With that the tray was passed around the table for all to share and give each other a Christmas blessing. My father then would ask us to bow our heads and give thanks to God for the gift of His Son and to be grateful for all we have received and will receive, we prayed for all those in need and alone and finally for all those who now rest in the sleep of His Peace.

I love this tradition, I maintain this tradition and some day I will pass it on as it was passed on to me. God bless and Merry Christmas to all!!
