Dear Parish Family,

We come to the holy season of Lent. It comes as a reminder of the mercy of God and that the love of Jesus is personal to each and everyone of us. We will walk together through these 40 days and use them as an opportunity to deepen our love for God and make real our call to Discipleship. I hope that this season, with all of the limitations imposed on us by COVID, can become a meaningful and profound experience of all that Lent calls us too. We have arrived at a Lenten Schedule which can be of some assistance with a Lenten Series, Stations of the Cross, our Mass on Wednesday and Friday and a Church that is Open for your personal use throughout the day. Some of our events will be live-streamed for those who do not yet to come into the Church.

I urge you to keep Lent in your own personal way as well. Pray more often—remember the needs of those on our sick list...remember the needs of our nation, remember the needs that are brought to the church on a daily basis.

I remind you that confessions will be heard following the Wednesday and Friday Mass as long as the priest has not been called to some duty following Mass. We remain more than grateful for the assistance of Fr. Ron and Fr. Caesar. Remember, that the Easter duty for last year was suspended and no sin occurred if you were not able to make the Easter duty.

If you did not receive a copy of our Lenten Schedule—which was included in last week's bulletin please stop in the parish office. We will also have the schedule available for a few weeks at the entrances of the Church.

I have always believed that the more that we personally 'keep Lent' the greater the celebration for us at Easter. May we know the grace and wonder of these 40 days: from Cross to Glory!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE
February 21, 2021 First Sunday of Lent

St. Oscar Romero said, “Aspire not to have more, but to be more.” These powerful words provide the perfect framework for a conversion oriented Lenten experience. God is giving us this Lenten sign to stop being concerned about what you have and focus on who you are. This requires that we create a desert space and listen more attentively for God to reveal His presence. It is all so wonderfully simple on the one hand and so incredibly challenging on the other. The message is simple: love God, neighbor, and self. Those simple words make great sense, but we struggle translating them into reality. Our attachments, compulsions, obsessions, addictions, routines, and busyness all anchor us to the “idol of the self,” keeping us mired in our compulsive need for self-aggrandizement. It’s not about us!

God vowed, long ago, to nurture, sustain and protect the relationship He has with His people. He called us into being, nurtures us in being, and sustains us in being. Without the Loving Divine Presence, all life would cease. Once we slow down a bit and clear away some of the clutter, we can see how the journey of our life is unfolding. We can see what brings us in and out of tune with God’s love and how we can better imitate God’s loving fidelity in our relationship with Him. In short, we will see our myopic short sightedness and figure out how we can better share the Divine Fire within with others. Lent isn’t just about giving stuff up for forty days and indulging again at Easter. We need to push things much farther and wrestle with the question of how we can be more. “Being more” means becoming more fully alive and in touch with the holiness of life and the divinity that lives in and empowers all beings and things. It is realizing that the “quality” of our presence is crucial to being an effective witness and herald of God’s unconditional love.

The illusion we have bought into causes us to believe that the wrong things and systems matter. We tirelessly fight to keep things the way they are, to return to the former ways of doing things or restore some nostalgic fantasy memory of “life in the good old days.” Lent isn’t about maintaining what we have or returning to something that is gone. It’s about becoming something new. It’s about being more focused, centered, convicted, and grounded so that we can be a person who truly loves and treasures being made in the image of God. The secret to Gospel living is not found in accumulating anything for ourselves, even merit points for heaven. Gospel living means learning how to live with less so that others can live with more. The thought of permanently giving something up makes us feel uncomfortable. Truth often does.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Throughout history God has given His people signs. Our season of Lent offers us God's sign that it is time to stop the ordinary routines of our lives, create some desert space, and listen more attentively for God to reveal His presence. We are asked to unplug from our attachments, compulsions, obsessions, addictions, routines, and busyness to clear the slate and take stock in who we have become. We are asked to remember the ancient sign of God's covenant with humanity in which He vowed to nurture, sustain, and protect the relationship He has with His people. Once we slow down a bit and clear away some of the clutter, we can see how the journey of our life is unfolding. We can see what brings us in and out of tune with God's love and how we can better imitate God's loving fidelity in our relationship with Him. Even though some good solid self-denial is the order of the day, greater happiness and wholeness will be the fruit of our labors. Pleasant journey through the desert!

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED- Genuflection

Genuflection is an act of devotion that literally means "to bend the knee." For many Catholics, it's an almost automatic gesture that we perform before entering our pew or row of seats at Mass. But, like many of the symbols and gestures of our faith tradition, genuflecting can also be an invitation for deeper reflection.

The practice of "bending the knee" is an ancient way of recognizing the presence of someone greater than we are. It has been said that the practice dates back to the time of Alexander the Great, but it became a common part of etiquette in the royal courts of the Middle Ages. From throne rooms and palaces, it was a small step to genuflecting, becoming part of the devotional lives of Christians who used this secular gesture as a way of recognizing the presence of the One who is King of Kings, especially in the Eucharist. In our tradition, although many have been taught or prefer to genuflect by placing their right knee on the ground, there is no prescribed way to genuflect. This is especially important to keep in mind if physical limitations or age make certain movements difficult for us. Today, Catholics are asked to genuflect in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament (whether in the tabernacle or exposed on the altar during Eucharistic adoration). So, while it has become second nature to genuflect before entering your seat in church, we should pay attention to where the Blessed Sacrament is kept in each church or chapel we visit, and genuflect in the direction of the tabernacle where the Blessed Sacrament is kept. In churches or chapels in which the tabernacle is in a separate space, we are invited to simply bow toward the altar.

Lily & Grace!

Our parish gift shop is open during office hours and after all weekend Masses, On Saturday the store opens at 12:00 Noon. Kathy Pelegrin has displayed items for St. Patrick's Day, Spring items and Easter. There are beautiful statues of the Lord's passion and resurrection from Roman. Stop in and see all that we have!

Once again I remind you that I will NOT email you, message, you or call you asking for anything for the Church or for particular needs. I regret that some of our people are getting these requests. Simply delete them and make NO response to them. It is just the world that we live in.....!

Fr. Krizner

On the morning of February 12 the first Robin was spotted in the Atrium Courtyard.

We are sorry about running out of bulletins last weekend. At the same time we were pleased to know that our number at Mass is increasing! We have remedied the problem. Thank you for understanding!

As we continue to live stream please note that we do so at the 4 pm on Saturday and the 8 and 10 am, on Sunday. For the time being we will continue on that schedule. Hopefully there will be a time when we can cut back on one of the Masses. Please understand that it has taken quite a bit to schedule the staff to do the live-streams.

Thank you again for responding in a normal speaking voice at Mass. As mentioned previously—loud responses throws off the people around you—music ministers—the priests and the live stream team.

Almighty and Everlasting God,
You have given the human race
Jesus Christ our Savior as a model of humility.
He fulfilled Your Will by becoming Man
And giving His life on the Cross.
Help us to bear witness to You
By following His example of suffering
And make us worthy to share in His Resurrection.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son.

By Your Holy Cross You have redeemed the world!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Unlikely Suspects

Have you ever taken a nature walk? Have you leisurely strolled through a forest or field, with no real destination in mind and your only objective being receptivity to and observation of all God's creation?

Sometimes, Scripture readings can feel like a nature walk. All of salvation history plays out against the backdrop of the natural world, with all elements of God's creation — plants and animals and the dust of the earth itself — turning in a supporting performance. How about Jesus in the hot and dusty desert, tempted, living "among the wild beasts?" Noah departed from his ark with the animals he rescued, observing God's sign in the very clouds of the sky. Even God Himself, offering us salvation from original sin through the waters of baptism.

How often do we remember that God speaks to us through all of His creation, even in the unlikeliest suspects?

Let's go back to the nature walk. It sounds like a lovely way to pass an afternoon, amongst wildflowers and butterflies, but don't forget the beating hot sun, mosquitos, and threat of rain on the horizon. Remember, we're not in heaven yet. Here on earth, God may be present in His creation, but that doesn't mean it's always easy to endure.

Lent is, essentially, a time to listen for the voice of God in places we may not expect: the mild irritations you experience when you're craving the chocolate you gave up, or the dull pangs of hunger during the Ash Wednesday fast. It's a golden opportunity to see the divine hand in all of creation, even those unlikely suspects.

Prayer for Reverence for Life

Almighty God, giver of all that is good,
We thank you for the precious gift of human life:
For life in the womb, coming from Your creative power,
For the life of children, making us glad with their freshness and promise,
For the life of people who are disabled, teaching us that all life has value,
For the life of the elderly, witnessing to the ageless values of patience and wisdom.
Like the Blessed Mary, may we always say “yes to your gift”.
May we defend it and promote it from the conception to its natural end.
And bring us at last, O Father, to the fullness of eternal life in Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen.

**Prayer composed from the words of a homily of Pope John Paul II at Abbotsford and the talk given to the youth, seniors and disabled at BC Place Stadium during the Papal Visit on Sept. 18, 1984**

Please pray for those serving in the Military
