*"I Have Become All Things to All,
to Save at Least Some."*

February 4, 2024
5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Maybe I'm weird, but I like spending time in doctor's offices, confession lines in churches, auto repair shops, prison cells, and support groups of various kinds. It's refreshing to be with people who humbly admit something is wrong and forthrightly set out on a path toward a solution. When we ignore what is off kilter, we become alone and fragile. In places where people are honest and hopeful about brokenness, sturdy if subtle fellowship usually ensues.

Consider the image we see of Jesus in the Gospel of Mark. "...they brought to all who were ill or possessed by a demon. The whole town was gathered at the door." The community is afflicted in various ways, and so it

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK
Jesus went from town to town, synagogue to synagogue, following the need. He follows it still, to this very day. Your life is the town he is visiting, your heart the synagogue where he preaches. Remember that for this purpose he has come. LPi

in him
The entire human community gradually forms a strange new community around Jesus. The healer from Nazareth is like a sun of health around which orbits a throng of humanity absorbing his healing rays. These blessed souls can't fix themselves and become healthy, and they know it. But they have found in him the living source of all imaginable healing.

It's the Church, isn't it? A sin-sick community gathered and healed is what happens at the beginning of every Mass. We shuffle in through the door from everywhere and announce that we are not okay, and we can't fix it. In doing so, we are drawn into the orbit of the healing power of Christ — and into a renewed community with the whole human family. It's nothing to fear or rush. Maybe we can even learn to enjoy more how good it is to be in such a happy place.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Is Gossip a Sin?

Question:

Is gossip a mortal sin?

Answer:

To really ask this question, we must consider the Eighth Commandment: "You shall not bear false witness."

In its reflections on this commandment, The Catechism of the Catholic Church invites us to not only think about what bearing "false witness" means, but to also consider how we understand the truth and how we communicate more broadly. This is why so much of this section of the Catechism has to do with the gift of language. With this in mind, we will notice that the word "gossip" isn't used by the Catechism. Instead, we find the words "detraction" and "calumny," which are actually two forms that gossip can take, and both can be quite serious.

First, detraction is the of revealing "another's faults and failings to persons who did not know them," without morally valid reasons. Calumny, by extension, is saying something about another person that is untrue, and it is sinful because it "harms the reputation of others and gives occasion for false judgements" (see no. 2477).

In all of our communication, we have to always recognize that we have a moral obligation to the truth and to always work to protect the reputation and honor of our neighbors (see no. 2479).

Gossip can, in fact, prove to be a very serious sin. After all, the Catechism reminds us: "No one is bound to reveal the truth to someone who does not have the right to know it" (no. 2489). When we have gossiped, especially if we are aware we have damaged another person's good name or reputation, we want to make every effort to undo the damage we have done, including seeking the grace and forgiveness offered in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. ©LPi

Hello from Fr. Julius!! Greetings from Holy Name Parish in the Cameroon! Continue to keep Fr. Julius, the children at his school, his parish, and the church in Africa in your prayers. And rest assured of his as well. He prays for us all of the time! Life looks a lot different there than it does here... and see what their beautiful joy has to teach us! God bless you, friend in Christ.

The cross leads to the grave... the grave leads to Resurrection! To everything and in everything, there's no Easter without a 'lent'.

My heart is not as it should be...
Lent begins on Ash
Wednesday.... February 14th
this year.

- ◆ We're marked, signed by ashes with the Sign of the Cross.
- ◆ The ashes symbolize A moment when we realize... "[the world] is not supposed to be like this... I'm not supposed to be like this. There are parts about my heart that love what I shouldn't, and there are parts about my heart that don't love what I should."
- ◆ The Sign of the Cross symbolizes that even through our sin and brokenness, Christ has claimed us,

Lent is a time to find our way back to Jesus through:

Prayer

Fasting/Abstinence (to "give something up")

Almsgiving (Charity/service)

Lent is coming... what's it all about?

Lent 2024 ~ Lord, how can I use these upcoming 40 days to make me the person that You want me to be?

Here's some thoughts to get you started...

Read Mark 10: 17-27. If you were the rich man in this Gospel and Jesus were talking to you, what would he ask you to do for Him? What would he ask you to pray, to "give up", who would he ask you to serve? And what can you do this Lent to make a step in the right direction with the help of His loving hand? Write down what comes to you here:

Prayer—

Fasting (give-up)—

Almsgiving (Charity)—

What will challenge you, what will motivate you... most importantly, what will change your heart to grow in deeper love for the Lord who's claimed you, who's saved you...

Feel free to cut this out of the bulletin and put it somewhere that you see it each of the 40 days.

Meet Dylan Buzzelli Dear Family and Friends,
 I have been given the amazing opportunity to be a part of The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society's (LLS) 2024 Student Visionaries of the Year Campaign. My passion for helping raise funds for LLS is driven by my desire to help others and to recognize those that have won their battle with cancer. I am also inspired by my close family friend who was diagnosed with Acute Myeloid Leukemia over 1 year ago. I watched my family rally around her with support and most importantly I learned about the desire to live life to the fullest extent. She has successfully completed treatment, had a bone marrow transplant and is currently cancer free. Her drive to choose life should inspire other patients who want to beat this devastating diagnosis and win this battle. Raising funds for this cause is the stepping stone to assuring that more research can be done and more treatments and therapies can be made available for an increased surviving rate.

Meet Zoey Fuller

Hello friends and family!
 I have been given the amazing opportunity to be a part of The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society's (LLS) Student Visionaries of the Year 2024 Campaign. This is a seven-week fundraising competition to raise money in support of LLS starting January 17 - March 8th, 2024. As a part of Team Brunswick for a Brighter Future led by my friends Maggie Romano, Theodore Bickely, and Sebastian Morales. I will be working to help raise the funds necessary to benefit those who need them. I am asking my friends and family to help us assist the efforts of the LLS to find a cure for blood cancer. Like many others I have seen cancer affect many people and their families. I am Passionate about LLS because it helps the patients in need and their families. My friend Maggie told me about LLS and everything they do to help raise money and get more and more people invalid with LLS. I just got invested and loved the whole idea and really wanted to help.

Our Parish Lenten Almsgiving Project!

The family of St. Colette is proud to promote the service efforts of two of our fine young people. Dylan is making his Confirmation this May, and both he and Zoey are active in our Youth Ministry program. This Lenten Season, please join them to help support the efforts of The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. By donating in any amount, you are supporting the programs and critical research LLS is doing. This is how you can help be part of the cure! There are two ways you can make a tax-deductible contribution by March 8th.

Check: Please make all checks payable to "The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society" and print "Brunswick for a Brighter Future" in the Memo section. Checks can be mailed to Zoey Fuller at 5110 Wakerly Circle Brunswick 44212 or Dylan Buzzelli at 319 Glendorn Drive Brunswick, OH 44212

Online: Visit our fundraising page using this link and click "Donate Now"
