GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

February 6, 2022

5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man,” these words, uttered by Simon Peter, can be found on any one of our lips. What real significance do I have in the big picture of God’s Divine plan? Even though we try our best to hide it, we all suffer from a lack of faith. We get tired, confused, and often lack any sincere desire to put anything into our relationship with God. It’s easier to simply reap whatever benefits the world has to offer and call it a day. Floating along on the superficial currents of life doesn’t require much effort and seems to get us through the day. Confronting our own infidelity, apathy, weakness of spirit, and doubt in God’s providence, how can we even remotely be considered a worthy vessel of God’s presence or credible voice for His message?

This is the irony of faith. God doesn’t seek the perfect vessels. He likes the broken ones. There is something to be said about living honestly and sincerely, and wrestling with sin, imperfection, and weakness rather than skipping through the peripheries of life with pretention, arrogance, and mendacity. If we believe ourselves to be our own “god” and serve only ourselves, we close the door to ever being used by the real and only True God. But, if we at least acknowledge that there is One greater than ourselves, then even in our deepest poverty and lowliness, God can enter.

Lessons are best learned from those who suffer. Only someone who has been lonely and lost can attest to the beauty of both Divine and human friendship. Only those who have really lost their way know what happens when they are found. Only those who are afraid know what it is to be calmed by God. The Gospel is messy because life is messy. There are no black and white solutions to problems and challenges that are hazy and gray. When our hesitancy to encounter God gets replaced by friendship with God, we become more aware of our dignity and the fact that we are loved just as we are. We cannot be afraid to share our struggles, reservations, fears, and sinfulness with others. Our genuineness and sincerity will speak of the God who blesses us in our weakness.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Lord's Prayer

Question:

Why don't Catholics add the "For yours is the Kingdom ..." prayer at the end of the Our Father like Protestants do? Where did it come from?

Answer:

The conclusion of the Lord's Prayer that you refer to is called a doxology, which is a prayer of glory and praise. This particular doxology we do use in the Mass. After the Our Father, the priest prays the prayer that begins, "Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil..." and the people respond with the doxology. The doxology is not found in the Bible, but it is very ancient. It was first found in The Didache, also called "The Teaching of the Twelve Apostles," which dates probably from about the year AD 90. It was a letter of instruction to early converts to Christianity. Protestantism dates only to the sixteenth century, so the doxology is actually a Catholic prayer. Some scholars and the catechism (#2760) indicate that the doxology was connected to the celebration of the Eucharist and was not used apart from it.

Remember, both the Lord's Prayer and the Eucharist were part of the "mysteries of faith," things taught only to believers. Ironically, a remnant of a prayer used during the celebration of the Eucharist has come to be used widely by many Christian churches that do not celebrate the Eucharist! Truth is indeed stranger than fiction!

Lord Jesus, Son of the Living God, I have heard your call repeatedly. At times I have eagerly followed. At times I have hesitated and delayed. At times I have closed my ears to Your Voice. I will follow You, Lord, but I need Your grace to urge me on—to push me forward—to think less of myself and more of You. Lord, take my hand in Yours and I will follow...

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

When we encounter or even ponder God’s magnificence, power, and awesomeness, we easily begin to feel our own smallness and perceived insignificance. After all, who can compete with eternal greatness, seraphim, or the ability to catch great numbers of fish? We unfortunately think that God’s presence somehow overrides us, reduces our importance, and only seeks to judge our inadequacies and doubts. Things begin to change a bit when we realize that what we may have seen as overwhelming and frightening is really only unconditional, unmerited love. Love has tremendous majesty and power. When we listen to this power and stop seeing it as threatening or dooming, our fear dissipates and Divine friendship takes root. Remaining close to what we once preferred at a distance, we can journey to places we never thought possible and do things we never thought we could do. Strengthened by Divine friendship and encouraged by its life-giving power, we can say “here I am, send me!” when God asks, “whom shall I send?” Sin and fear no longer are of concern to the one who remains close to God in a bond of trust.

This coming Friday is the feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. It is the world day to pray for those who are ill. The miraculous grotto of Lourdes in France continues to bring countless miracles to the faithful. The amazing story of Bernadette, a girl of 14, poor, humble, unknown to the world saw the Blessed Mother in the most unlikely place between February and July of 1858. When asked repeatedly who this beautiful lady was, Mary would smile—finally she revealed herself, “I am the Immaculate Conception.” Bernadette died when she was only 35 as a Nun in Nevers, France. Her body has been found incorrupt—looking as beautiful as the day she died—and so it remains even to this day.

On Friday, February 11, Fr. Caesar will assist Fr. Krizner in the Anointing of the Sick following the 11 a.m. Mass. If you are in need of that Sacrament please join us.

“For me, Jesus Himself is my honor, my delight, my heart, my spirit, He whom I love, what I love, my home Heaven here on earth. Jesus is my treasure and my love and Jesus crucified is my only happiness.” -- St. Bernadette Soubirous

Lady of Lourdes, pray for us. St. Bernadette, pray for us!

Dear Parish Family,

And so the results of Punxsutawney Phil are in! I hope you are not disappointed! Taker heart—there are 42 days until Spring officially begins!

Last weekend we addressed the matters which jeopardize our Police. I am grateful for your personal response. It is so very important that we lift those men and women up in prayer daily. There is an anonymous quote which reads ‘Police work for a cause, not applause’. Let’s remember them and all those who serve our cities and Nation in our prayers.

Though the weather has not been terrific, unless you are a plow driver or skier, the Church is continuing to fill up with both new and ‘the regular’ parishioners. We are glad to have you back! Watching Mass on the computer or tablet is not the same as being a part of the community and certainly not same without Eucharist. If you are hesitant to sit in the Church the Atrium allows you to be separate and yet a part of the liturgy.

I hope your week is blessed and that you’ll find joy in these days of February. Please remember those who have asked our prayers.

Remember LAMPSTAND—we are awaiting your ‘story’. On Monday, Fr. Damian Ference, Vicar for Evangelization of the Diocese, will be here for a diocesan meeting. We welcome him and the members of his group to our parish!!!

God’s peace to you, our Nation, and our World!

Fr. Krizner, Gracie, Annie, Cotton & All

While I was growing up in the Hungarian - Slovak neighborhood in the shadow of St. Benedict's and St Andrews Abbey after World War II, my dad didn't have much to do with church. The relatives would joke about my answering the phone saying "Daddy go work, Mommy go church. "We moved to the southeast side near St. Henry's where I made my first communion. That day my mother told me that every time I go to communion I should pray that my father would come back to the sacraments. So I did, and a lot. At St. Henry's the schoolchildren went to 8 o'clock mass every day. I was an altar server and was usually assigned the 6 AM mass on a weekday but mostly on Saturday. I also prayed for St. Joseph's help, partly because he was my father's patron saint, but mostly because as a child I felt sorry for St. Joseph because the Blessed Mother received so much attention. I even made up a prayer like the rosary for St. Joseph that I called the "lilary." When I was 14 my mother went with my father to mass on March 19 for St. Joseph's day when he received the Eucharist for the first time since the war. I was not there, but I was convinced of the power of prayer ever since. I continued my devotion to St. Joseph without expecting how he would gently lead me to the Blessed Mother.

After we were married I commuted to work downtown by bus. One day I found in my coat pocket a rosary ring that my aunt had given to me as a child. I had no idea how it got there. I started saying the rosary occasionally as I was commuting.

Our family was growing and we desperately needed a new house, but we were in a historically high mortgage market, at that time 20%. As I jogged or bicycled in our neighborhood, I would go down St. Joseph Street and pray that St. Joseph would help me find a way for our family. When I did it turned out to be a mortgage assumption that I we signed on the Feast of Assumption. After we moved became members of the Parish of Assumption. For some reason I had always had a problem with that feast day, but with all the coincidence I started to rethink it.

After my father died I started saying the rosary every day commuting downtown, now by car. At first it was for him but then I started meditating increasingly on the mysteries.

Just before moving to St. Colette's, I read the book Rediscovering Catholicism. I learned that the most faithful Catholics regularly set aside a period of the day for prayer and devotional reading. It took a while but I started doing just that. Later at St Colette's (we signed that mortgage on March 19) I joined the men's prayer group. Soon thereafter we started a regular group rosary. I finally learned how to say the rosary properly. Through the inspiration of those men, my brothers in faith, I have come to pray it and more and more often. My devotional reading helped fill out more details for meditation on the mysteries of the rosary so that now it has become a prayer in which I can contemplate Jesus through Mary, with St. Joseph's help.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Josephine Bakhita | February 8

The story of St. Josephine Bakhita (1869-1947) is a story that many people taken into slavery have experienced. Born in the Darfur region of Sudan, she was kidnapped at the age of 8 and sold into slavery many times. As she passed from owner to owner, she experienced the moral and physical humiliations associated with slavery. It was only at the age of 13 that her suffering was alleviated after she was bought for the Italian Consul in Sudan. It was here that she was fortunate to receive kindness, respect, and peace from her new master.

She was later handed over to the Canossian Sisters when she made the case that slavery had been outlawed in Italy for years. She was baptized and confirmed in the Catholic Church in 1890, where she took the name Josephine. She later entered the Institute of St. Magdalene of Canossa in 1893 and made her profession three years later. St. Josephine Bakhita's next 50 years were spent serving people through cooking, sewing, embroidery, and housekeeping. She was a source of encouragement and her constant smile won people's hearts, as did her humility and simplicity. Today she is known as the patron saint of victims of modern slavery and human trafficking. LPi

Endeavor

When the weather breaks in late February and early March, you will begin to see the initial phase of construction. With this will come changes to certain parking areas as the general contractor positions construction trailers and equipment behind the church. They will be installing a fence around the construction site that will limit driving around the back of the Church. The side entrances will become our main entrance areas.

As we proceed we will update you with details relating to the building of a retention pond behind the St. Nicholas house (our guest house between Crestview and the Church) for water runoff and other parking issues.

As of today, we are planning on a full March construction timeframe running through the summer—barring any material issues relating to supply chain problems.

Thank you again for your understanding, your patience, and the generosity that has made this possible, ~ Ed Pfahl
