

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

February 7, 2021

5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

If I only knew then what I know now, how different life would be. This sentiment, expressed in myriad ways, is found on every human being's lips at one point or another. Life may have brought us to a vulnerable place where we see some of the poor choices we made and the effects they are having. Perhaps we fell into some destructive and dysfunctional relationships or behaviors and are finding how they held us captive. Our zeal and passion for life may have drifted away and we are waking up to the reasons apathy has taken hold. Life can be hard. In fact, some would describe their lives as a drudgery. They walk through each day with an anxious unsettledness, wondering when their restlessness will cease. There is a temptation to believe that what I see is all I will get. Mortality and hopelessness await the dawn. If I could only have known what would come in the future, I could have made better choices and avoided all of this misery!

Really? While we can certainly give into weakness, sin, impulsiveness, and idiosyncrasies that cause us to stumble over ourselves, life is really a journey. If we don't make the mistake of wallowing in the mire of self-pity and realize the new life God is calling us to, then there are thrills, adventures, surprises, and soul-searching graces we can surely miss. We are not tethered to our past nor are we bound to the ills life can bring upon us. We are never hopeless or helpless. The problem is that our myopic vision only allows us to see the misery and misfortune that is before us, not the potential that can come from choosing healthier and more life-giving options. Jesus came that we might have fullness of life. We need to learn how to reach for Jesus' hand and let him help us to our feet.

We need to allow God into our pain and heal our past. We have to wrestle with our histories, agonize and search and cry out for the Divine healing we need to restore our faith, hope, and love. Job could not see how his story would end or trust the guidance of the God who called him. We live in that same blindness and suffer from the same lack of confidence. Once we allow ourselves to be touched by God's healing power, we begin to see that all of the pieces of our lives are necessary parts of a greater whole. Along the way of our lives, God uses our omissions and failures to create new things and possibilities. When doors close, others open and we can be amazed by the joyful and unexpected surprises we receive. Once we know the power of God's creative, healing, life-giving, forgiving, and dynamic presence, it is no wonder we want to put ourselves at the service of others and show them what life can be.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Have you ever wondered what life would be like if you could see the future and know how things turn out? While it's intriguing to ponder what life would be like if we possessed this knowledge, actually knowing could easily rob us of the thrill, adventure, and soul-searching graces of our journey. Like Job, life does not always leave us on a happy note. Life experience can bring us face-to-face with our mortality and leave us with a profound sense of helplessness. We do not see the wholeness and fulfillment that will one day come and cannot grasp the certainty that a resolution to our plight will come our way. We need to learn how to reach for Jesus' hand and let him help us to our feet. Living a life of faith means realizing that we are not here to figure out life on our own. In order to drink deeply of what life presents us, we have to wrestle in the depths of our souls, agonize and search, possibly reach the lowest point of desperation, and cry out for the Divine healing we need to restore our faith, hope, and love. It is no wonder that those who are touched by God's healing power want to then serve others and show them the deeper waters that can be explored. Knowing too much can rob us of joyful surprises.

Come Lord, Splendor of the Father, bring to our days the light of a new month. We have passed from January to February in the warmth of Your Love. Renew us, body and soul, that we might serve You as Redeemer and Savior, the Lord of all Seasons. All to Your glory may each of our days be and in the fullness of Your will may each of us live!

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: Is it ever Ok to leave Mass before it ends?

Answer:

This is an interesting question because beneath the surface there seems to be an assumption that if it's okay, then why do we have to stay after we receive communion? The short answer is "no," but we definitely want to go a bit deeper as we consider why. First, when we think about questions like this, we must consider this in adult terms. If there is something gravely important that we need to do, then we must attend to that. However, if it is a matter of convenience or preference, then we really have to stop and think again. First, while we always want to recognize the importance of sacramental communion in the Mass, we also need to understand how important the time of thanksgiving and prayer after communion is. This is summarized in the Prayer After Communion offered by the celebrant and then we are also commissioned to "Go forth" during the Dismissal of the Mass, reminding us that we have been entrusted with a gift — the Word of God and the Presence of Christ in the sacrament — and that we are to share that gift with others. If we simply leave after we receive communion, we risk two things. First, there is the possibility that we will turn our reception of communion into a purely personal, individual experience that is separated from our common experience of worship — and communion in the fullest sense — and, second, we lose an opportunity for gratitude and serious reflection if we simply leave after communion. This time of thanksgiving, reflection, and, ultimately, missioning, are important and, in the end, an essential part of the celebration of the Mass.

GRIEF SUPPORT

Catholic Cemeteries Association Monthly Sunday Grief Support February 21st:

Catholic Cemeteries Association continues with our free monthly in-office grief support groups on February 21st with limited seating for social distancing. We offer a comfortable, private, and safe environment where you are free to explore your grief. Meetings are open discussion format, surrounding a monthly topic or whatever is on your heart. They do not build off each other so you can stop in any month and fit right in. If you are not yet able to talk about your grief, come and listen and be in the presence of those who understand. The February topic is “Experiencing God’s Loving Embrace”. We meet the 3rd Sunday of every month from 3:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m. at six locations:

Saint Joseph Cemetery, Avon (NEW office);

Holy Cross Cemetery, Akron (office);

Holy Cross Cemetery, Brook Park (office);

Calvary Cemetery, Cleveland (office);

All Saints Cemetery, Northfield (office);

All Souls Cemetery, Chardon (office).

Meeting sites are sanitized and seating is arranged so everyone is at a safe distance. Participants are asked to RSVP so we can plan appropriate social distancing at each location. We require all in attendance to wear protective facial coverings. To RSVP or for questions, please contact Rhonda at rabrams@clecem.org or 216-930-4866.

“A Closer Walk With Thee” – CCA Monthly Grief Support E-Newsletter:

Subscribe to the Catholic Cemeteries Association’s monthly grief support e-newsletter, “A Closer Walk with Thee”. We extend our sympathy to the family of Father Joseph Mecir and to the parish family of Our Lady of Grace.

Fr. Joe served as pastor of Our Lady of Grace until his retirement.

Father was ordained in 1980 and served the Lord faithfully until his death on January 25, 2021.

May he live in the Presence of our God.

Lenten Fish Fry!

The Fish Fry will begin on the first Friday of Lent, February 19th. Note there will not be an Ash Wednesday Fish Fry. It will be by phone orders (preferred method) on Friday only or in person. Phone orders will be accepted until 6:30pm. You will be able to pick up your dinners in the hall. Cashiers will be available. Cash or Check Only. We ask that ONE person come into the hall for the order.

If you are disabled you may pull up to the front of the hall and someone will bring your order. Please have the exact amount of money due to save further contact with change.

Next week we will print the phone numbers and an idea of our menu. Stay tuned.....

We can always use more volunteers. More volunteers Mean less work!!!

I will not text you or call you or send you an email asking for money or gifts for a particular cause that has been brought to my attention. It's a scam and I am sorry if you have been a recipient of the scam.

Fr. Krizner

BEWARE: * Sometimes referred to as 'Pastor' or very formally Father William Krizner! Or it may read that I am 'presently in a prayer session but need your help'!!! ?

SORRY, SON...THERE'S NO APP FOR THAT

We are working on a Lenten schedule and will inform you of what we will be able to offer.

Remember: ASH WEDNESDAY is Feb.17th!

It's all coming Soon!

"It's your obligation to speak the truth, and everyone can either take it or leave it. But truth must be in us. We live in such a poverty of truth today."

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS The Audacity of Holiness

Do you know a holy person? I'm not talking about piety — that's important, too, in its own way. But right now, I'm speaking of holiness.

St. Therese of Lisieux called holiness “a disposition of the heart that makes us humble and little in the arms of God, aware of our weakness, and confident — in the most audacious way — in His Fatherly goodness.”

The holy person sees a storm on the horizon of life, and rather than give themselves over to fear and despair (natural and understandable reactions), regards the gathering winds as an opportunity to rely more fully on God. The holy person takes a bad situation and sanctifies it with charity and understanding that defies our fallen human nature.

Peter's mother-in-law was still in the throes of a fever when Jesus grasped her hand. It wasn't until she took his hand and allowed him to help her up that “the fever left her and she waited on them.” Before the fever could leave her, she had to commit to holiness — to put her trust in him in a most audacious way. She had to find it within herself to lift her weakened hand to grasp his — and as soon as she did, she was rewarded. Her bodily health restored, she gave thanks, and attended to his needs.

God's hand is always outstretched to us. Will we take it, even if the fever of sin and pride and worldly concerns rages in our souls? Will we muster the strength? Will we be audacious enough to have confidence in His Fatherly goodness?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

MASKS may make us think we have to be loud in our responses at Mass. They don't. It is a distraction to the priest and to others around you....especially when you are one word beyond every other voice. We are to be of ONE VOICE. It also becomes a problem for those who are responsible for the live stream. Please keep it at a normal speaking voice –no matter where you are seated in the church. God hears our whispers.

You may have noticed that our numbers are increasing at our Masses— especially as many of us are able to get the vaccine. Know that we continue to sanitize the church and the atrium and all other public areas of the building. As we continue to increase in number we will do everything possible to fit you all in the church/atrium until other arrangements will have to be made under what are now changing circumstances.
