GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

January 15, 2023

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

When I was a kid, I remember the priest at Mass announcing, “The Lamb of God!” Frankly, it struck me as nonsense. I thought: Why in the world does God have a lamb? And where is this lamb?

John the Baptist sees Jesus coming toward him and announces, “Behold the lamb of God.” His Jewish listeners knew what he meant. God’s lamb is the thing that is sacrificed at the Jewish Passover and consumed by the participants. For almost a thousand years, lambs were ritually slaughtered and eaten in Jerusalem at Passover. The lamb meant sacrifice, freedom from sin, and communion with God. The Baptist is saying in effect, “This man will be ritually sacrificed and consumed so that God’s people may be free from sin and united to God.”

It’s crucial to relate to Jesus as a friend, brother, teacher, and Lord of our lives. But we should also learn to interact with Him as our lamb of God. That means we intentionally place on him our sins, sadnesses, and hopes, and offer him to God. Then we consume him to make us free. This is what we do at every Mass. That’s why he is the Lamb of God.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

John the Baptist had been told that he would see the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world. He listened, he believed, and he kept his eyes open. He was ready when God revealed the truth. Let's ask ourselves: are our eyes open? Are we ready?

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Showing Up

I broke my foot once, when my second child was only 12 weeks old, and I was about to move houses. For six weeks I was confined to a chair, a shrieking newborn in my arms, a toddler running circles around me, and my right foot rendered useless by a plaster cast. I couldn't do anything without assistance. I couldn't eat or get a drink or change my clothes or feed my children.

My family was in dire straits. A lot of people offered help, but there was a core group of friends and family members who really saved us.

These are the people who turned up in my driveway with empty vans and cooked meals. These are the people who blocked off their Saturdays to haul furniture, mow our lawn, and run after unruly kids. These are the people who said: "Here I am. Give me a job."

If you've ever really, really needed another person's help, you know that "showing up" means more than saying: "Let me know what you need." It means saying: "I'm already here. Tell me what to do."

So often, I pay lip service to the idea of submission. "What do you want, God?" I ask, and I secretly hope that what He wants isn't one of those things that I'm not willing to give.

What if I really strove to "show up" for God? What if I was ready to give what He asks of me, whatever it is?

Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will. — Psalm 40

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Reading the Bible

Question:

What is unique or different about the way Catholics read and are exposed to the Bible?

Answer:

Catholics are exposed to Scripture primarily through the Sunday readings from a book known as the Lectioary. The Lectioary is a book of selected passages from the Bible set in the context of a liturgical season, such as Advent, Lent, or ordinary time. There are four readings assigned to any Sunday: the first reading (usually from the Old Testament), the responsorial psalm, the second reading (usually from a New Testament letter), and the Gospel reading.

These readings together give them a new context. The selected readings relate to one another in a unique manner that is not present in the Bible text itself. In close proximity to each other, these readings now have the opportunity to converse with each other in a way that would have not been possible before. A homilist pays attention to all four readings, preparing a reflection that speaks of this conversation among the readings, enabling us to zero in on what this unique combination of God's word has to say to us this particular Sunday.

Next time you attend Sunday liturgy, try reading the Scripture ahead of time and see how this new relationship among the readings addresses and challenges you to be a better Christian here and now.

WHAT ARE THE REQUIREMENTS FOR GODPARENTS AND SPONSORS?

When a child or an adult is to be baptized, he or she must have at least one godparent or sponsor (the terms are interchangeable). It is customary for children to have two godparents. When there are two, one must be male and the other female. Godparents must meet all of the following criteria, which are established by universal Church law and which do not vary from place to place.

Godparents must: (a) Be Catholic (1 must be Catholic, the other can be Christian) (b) Have been baptized, confirmed and receive Communion (c) Be 16 or older (although there may be exceptions to this rule at the discretion of the bishop) (d) Must be living a life consistent with their own baptismal vows.

Godparents make a promise to God, to the parents, to the child, and to the Church. You proclaim aloud a covenant to witness gospel attitudes and values in your life and in the relationships that will develop with this child.

...the things we hold close to our heart...

Join the women of the parish for an uplifting two days of prayer, reflection, and celebration. Come share the spiritual treasures of this parish community as we Celebrate Jesus, Son of God and Son of Mary.

We will begin on Friday Evening, February 10, at 5:30 pm. A light dinner will be served by members of the First Men's Retreat. Mrs. Becky Williams Bihari & Fr. K will open the retreat with 'Mary, held all these things in her heart and treasured them.' Becky is a Holy Name HS Counselor and a member of our parish PSCF Team.

Friday evening will continue with an opportunity to introduce yourself and share in the opening first witness of the retreat.

After brief discussions we will close the evening with a prayer written by Father, Celebrating the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Saturday Morning we will return to the parish for a light breakfast, Morning Prayer, and the second witness of the retreat.

Included in the day will be time for personal prayer, quiet time, and social time.

The Third witness of the day will follow a substantial Lunch provided by the Brothers in Faith.

As we near the 4 o'clock hour for Saturday Mass, we will bring to a conclusion all that we have kept treasured in our hearts.

Our closing Mass will be the weekend Mass on Saturday.

The Men's RETREAT TEAM from the November Retreat will be meeting on Monday -
January 23 @ 7pm.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

In 2023, we will be highlighting holy men and women from the Americas who are canonized or in the process of canonization. We hope their stories inspire your faith!

Ven. Frederic Irenaeus Baraga

Known as the Snowshoe Priest, Venerable Bishop Frederic Baraga, was a lifelong missionary to the Native American people of the upper Midwest. He loved the people he served, knew their languages, and even published the first Ojibwe-English dictionary!

Prayer:

Prayer for the Cause of V. Frederic Irenaeus Baraga

O God, thank you for the life and holiness of your servant, Frederic Baraga.

I pray you will honor him by the title of Saint. He dedicated himself completely to missionary activity to make you known, loved, and served by the people who you love. As a man of peace and love, Baraga brought peace and love wherever he traveled.

Lord, grant Venerable Bishop Baraga the grace of beatification. We ask this in Christ name.

Amen. LPI

The next Sanctuary Candle will be lit for the Deceased of the Spooner family

~You are a child of God~

* Prayer List *

Please note that in order to keep our prayer list for the sick/hospitalized up to date, the names will be removed this week. Please call the office or leave the names of those to remain on the list in the office.

Thank you for your help and cooperation.
