GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

January 16, 2022

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

God delights in you. How do you feel when you hear that? Delight usually comes with an exuberant flow of joy that seemingly arises from one's toes with the expression of great glee. Reflecting upon the deep measure of joy God has in us can be a source of joy for ourselves. Delight is infectious. A very young brother and sister were playing on the beach when the all too familiar ice cream truck made its daily rounds. The boy shook with excitement and delight as he took his sister's hand and exclaimed, "The ice cream man is here, isn't it great!" As they ran off toward the truck, one could hear the girl reply, "Yeah, I can't wait!" The experience of a child's delight in something so simple as ice cream, lifts our spirits from our burdens and transports us to the lighter, more innocent side of life.

Life is not meant to be a burden. Believe it or not, God actually wants us to be happy! In fact, the wedding feast at Cana shows us that God even puts His blessing on our happiness. It is okay to celebrate the wonder of ourselves and others. Life is good. It is always interesting to note that Jesus saves the good wine until last. You would think it would be the other way around. The superb quality of Jesus' wine points to the superior quality of life we find in Christ. It is not a life of burdens but a life of wonder and delight! In Christ, we are lifted from the superficial and mundane to a life of purpose, hope, and love.

God is with us through the long haul, through the challenges and sorrows as well as the successes and accomplishments. In spite of the fact that we often wander from the path, God's celebratory delight in us remains. As spouses are asked to remain faithful to each other through whatever life brings, God remains faithful too. This promise remains through this life and into the next. All we have to do is take the advice of Jesus' mother to heart when she says, "Listen to him." This wisdom saves us from foolishly giving in to the illusion that we can make better wine than Jesus.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Relationships are hard to clarify. Determining whether people in our lives are simply acquaintances and associates or a deeper level of friend is a journey that takes time. Identifying and celebrating those people who really care about us is a lifelong adventure that involves both moments of intense elation and heartache. Some relationships are more easily definable than others. Two people who are in love must decide whether the love they share has the freedom and depth necessary for lifelong commitments. Other relationships may look like friendship but may harbor grave dysfunction and toxicity. Discernment is needed on all fronts. Our relationship with God also needs definition and discernment. God has taken creation as His spouse and human beings as His children. God delights in us and all that He has made. The wedding feast at Cana demonstrates God's investment in all of this, especially our happiness. Life is a time for celebration and great rejoicing!

ASH Wednesday is March 2nd.
The conclusion of Ordinary Time and the beginning of Lent, 2022.

God, our Father, You redeemed us and made us Your children in Christ. Through Him You have saved us from death and given us Your Divine life of grace. By becoming more like Jesus on earth, may I come to share His glory in Heaven. Give me the peace of Your kingdom, which this world does not give. By Your loving care protect the good You have given me. Open my eyes to the wonders of Your Love that I may serve You with a willing heart . amen

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE
GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

It Takes All Kinds

“If every flower wanted to be a rose,” wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, “spring would lose its loveliness.”

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of “varieties of tongues” might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, “Do whatever he tells you,” her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God’s instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God’s word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED
Faithful Departed

Question:

How can we pray for the dead throughout the year?

Answer:

We commemorate the faithful departed on November 2nd each year. However, we can and should continue to pray for the dead. Our growth in Christian perfection takes a long time. At the time of our death, many of us might not be saints yet. But God, in His mercy, allows for those who love Him to experience purification after death. Our word for that state is Purgatory. It's the antechamber of heaven, so to speak. We know we're getting in the house, but we're not quite ready to go all the way in. There's rain to shake off our coats and dirt that's clogging our shoes.

Here on earth, we can pray for the souls in Purgatory. One way is to request that your parish offer a Mass for the intention of a specific loved one. We can also remember the departed in our daily prayers. Just as we have special intentions for family and friends here on earth, we can pray for those who have died. It's also a good act of Christian charity to pray for the forgotten, those who have no one else to pray for them. God knows who they are!

...the conclusion of the Christmas Season 2021....

AS January moves into a cold February, please remember to patronize our sponsors. The Christmas rush is over and things tend to slow down a bit. Have breakfast at the European, stop for a treat at Z's, enjoy a great dinner at Foster's, stop in at Wiant for a gift for your spouse, see your Dentist, call the painter, redo the carpeting that you've been putting off, have the spare room painted.....on and on! Our patrons look for your business and we appreciate both them and you!

Make the winter months an opportunity for change and enjoy! Check the bulletin there is something for everyone's needs! & thank you!

Dear Parish Family,

Don't let it get to you! January weather, the constant reminders of COVID, cabin-fever and the beginning of the year bills! Beneath the cold ground there are plants eager to bloom we just have to get through a couple of months of Cleveland Winter. If the blahs take hold of you go out and buy a puppy!!! Your life will change drastically!

Work behind the scenes continue to happen. You may have noticed that the polls over the back row of pews have been covered in wood to match the rest of the Church. We are waiting for the workers to set the gates around the Tabernacle—I mentioned that in the last bulletin. It was a major task taking down Christmas but the last remnants of the holidays will have been removed by this weekend. If you haven't seen how we expanded the Gift Shop, stop by. All of these little things are in preparation for the day they start the new building. Weather will now be a determining factor—but I assure you that it IS happening!

Also— YES, there will be Fish Frys in Lent!

I remind you that if you attend weekday Mass PLEASE park on the parish office side, that is the South Side. It will be the first that we plow and salt when winter takes hold! That is for your safety and it makes it easier for our Maintenance Team to concentrate on the area most used.

As always I thank you for your kindness to the parish. We were blessed with a great Christmas collection—that is your kind generosity and care for the parish. Thank you so much.

If you are new to the parish and would like to be a lector at weekend or daily Masses please let us know in the Office. If you have been commissioned as an Extraordinary Minister of Eucharist also let us know. We can always use the assistance at Masses.

In your prayers remember those we have promised to pray for —those seeking healing and wholeness! Blessings to your week!

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Sebastian | January 20

Not much is known about the life of St. Sebastian (256 – 287), except that he was a Roman martyr whose name has been mentioned throughout history since early 350.

We see St. Sebastian many times in art, especially from iconic paintings from Guido Reni, Andrea Mantegna and Hendrick ter Brugghen. Historical scholars now agree that a spiritual story has the beloved saint entering the Roman army because only there could he assist Christian martyrs without arousing suspicion on himself. Eventually he was found out, brought before Emperor Diocletian and delivered to Mauritanian archers to be shot to death. Pierced with arrows, he was left for dead, but managed to survive. He recovered from his wounds but still refused to leave. One day, St. Sebastian took up a position near where the emperor was to pass. He confronted the emperor, condemning him for his cruelty to Christians. This time the sentence of death was carried out, and St. Sebastian was beaten to death with clubs. Today he is the patron saint of athletes.

SS. Anne & Joachim Grandparent Workshops March 28 & 30, April 4 & 6

Grandparents are vital to passing on the faith. The Vicar for Evangelization, in collaboration with the Office of Missionary Discipleship, Marriage and Family Ministry, Youth Ministry and Young Adult Ministry, will offer Anne and Joachim Workshops. This will be an opportunity to talk about ways that grandparents can share their faith with their grandchildren and will offer some practical tools that can be used. The workshops will be offered at various sites throughout the diocese, and will include a closing Mass. Cost is $10 per person including brunch. Register online beginning January 3, 2022
