GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

January 23, 2022

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God's transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the “gods” of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God's constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God's Word, God's life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one's soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn't forget. He always comes for us.

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God's Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God's fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away.

The last remnant of Christmas in our South parking lot.

This solitary tree stands in the snow that we had anticipated on December 25th! Instead it came on January 16th!

“If you believe what you like in the Gospel and reject what you don’t like, it’s not the Gospel you believe but yourself.”
St Augustine of Hippo

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

People can easily lose a sense of the sacred and transcendent. When we lose a sense of God’s special presence, we need to be brought back. Ezra brought people back to the word of God and they realized what they were missing. Jesus proclaims God’s word in the synagogue with true conviction and tells those gathered that he is the fulfillment of all that Isaiah taught. Even though people get lost, distracted, discouraged, and often journey down the wrong path, God’s timeless law remains. When we allow ourselves to truly hear God’s word and act on it, that living word slowly, over time, changes us. It has the power to soften and mold us, creating within us a joyful spirit. We realize the truth in what God speaks and become open to God’s love. Gradually and gently God leads us back where we belong. We discover again the sacred character of life and the wonder of God’s power. It is no wonder that Luke addresses his remarks to Theophilus. It is a name that means “beloved of God,” a name that can be used by anyone who desires friendship with God.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Plant Your Works in the Word

One of the things about Scripture is that even the smallest word and shortest phrase can be critical to the overall message. When you take a quiet moment to rest with the Word, you find how quickly the most mundane sentence can reach out and grab you, pulling you into a deeper contemplation of some truth you hadn't even considered until then.

But we often fail to act as the Israelites in the Book of Nehemiah, standing before the Water Gate "listening attentively." Whether it's at Mass during the Liturgy of the Word or at home poring over the Bible, time after time we find ourselves less mindful than we could be. Our ears accept the sounds of the words and our eyes glance over the shape of the letters.

But are we mindful — truly?

The best answer is hopefully at least sometimes. There are always tasks to be completed, problems weighing on our minds that we can't quite give over to God. We lose ourselves in these things instead of in Scripture. We "clock in" with Bible reading instead of "diving in."

We can never forget that the words of the Lord are spirit and life. They are the soil that quickens the seed of all stewardship. There is no mindfulness, no prayer, no graciousness, no gratitude or accountability or sense of commitment unless there is the Word.

So let us pray today for mindfulness, that our every action will be grounded in the law of God — giving it true spirit and life. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

Wondrous and Loving God, Father of Mercy, very source of our lives, hear the prayer of Your people. We come to You, Gentle Father, as your very own daughters and sons, fill our lives with the grace of knowing You more personally and serving You wholeheartedly. God of power and might, warm our hearts, enthuse our spirits, renew our joy and let Your Face shine upon us. This we ask through Christ Jesus, our Lord, who reigns with You and Spirit, God forever and always. Amen

LAMPSTAND!

My parents were both raised Catholic but married in a Baptist church while traveling through the South. My dad was a member of a dance band and they were heading for Miami. My mom agreed to go with them but they should get married. They got to Georgia and looked up a Catholic church. They were told they would have to wait for the bands of intention to be posted. Time did not permit that. Went across the street and the Baptist minister agreed to marry them the next day. This making my life raised Catholic and Baptist beliefs. I loved going to Sunday school and learning about Jesus. One Sunday i was told my parents would pick me up after class. Then came the start of my deep faith in Jesus. School wasn't over , just recess. I looked for my parents car and they weren't there!!! I did a foolish thing out of fear. I started to walk home only a little way when i didn't know how to get home or back to the church. I was lost !!! I remembered that Jesus was our friend and i just asked frantically for him to take me home. I began to calm down. I didn't hear a voice but the thought came to me to just go up to that house and tell them what happened. As i started to go another house a strong thought came to me that said "no not that house but next one". After knocking at their door the lovely lady said" oh its the Potter's little girl. "She knew me and said they would take me home they knew where i lived ! When i got to the top of my street i told them i could walk from there but they said they were going to get me home. I thanked them and ran out of the car to my front steps only to see my mom trying to figured out what happened. I told her those people brought me home only to turn around and saw no car there ! My mom called the church to see who that could have been because they didn't know anyone yet at that church. How could they know my name and where i lived ??? God knew and it was Jesus directing my safe return to home. I never forgot that and other stories that happened to me. too. I knew and felt Jesus was real and he must love me !!! I was raised with catholic rules and Baptist Sunday school ! Shortly after this story we did start attending the Catholic mass again. All i could see were the waist and coats in front of me but i felt that same thought from Jesus saying it will all work out and it did Today i love teaching bible stories and coloring pictures of Jesus and talking about our Catholic beliefs with that same Jesus in psr classes ! That was 73 yrs ago and i don't recommend a child to do that today ! But you can always ask Jesus for help and you will know he will !! He loves you too !

This photo of a reflection of the cross was taken by Christina Dinklocker last Sunday. She tells us that as we spoke of setting your Light on a Lampstand for all to see, the cross—a reflection from the windows—caught her immediate attention! (thanks!)

LAMPSTAND — an opportunity to share your

Faith experiences, to retrace your spiritual heritage and to share with others your journey in Faith. Each week we will highlight a contribution or two from within our community.

We have a great deal to learn from one another! This is a vibrant parish and each of us have a light to set high on a stand for the others to see!

Don't hesitate to shine!

500 words or less— email to info@stcoletteparish.com

Or drop it off in collection or office. We are all pilgrims on the same journey.

THANK YOU~ Fr.

Dear Parish Family,

We just made it last weekend. Shortly after the 11:45 Mass concluded the snow began—lightly at first but by evening it reached so high that Annie was covered in the drifts. (much to her delight!)

This is a good opportunity to remind you again that on weekdays please use the SOUTH parking lot for daily Mass or entrance into the Church. It is the first area to be plowed and salted. It is a major task to clear the parking lot and your safety is paramount!

We are moving ahead with our plans for the RUMMAGE SALE in February. Begin to collect your treasures. Speaking of February—it is ten days until Groundhog Day! Can you imagine that! With remnants of Christmas still around we are nearing the 2nd month of the year already!

Work on the Gates surrounding the Tabernacle began this week. Hopefully by the weekend (Today) it will be completed. I think it is a fitting addition to our Sanctuary and it is making great use of a treasure that we could not simply store in the basement of the Church.

As we were discussing this the idea came up to officially name our Shrine. When it was first put together with only a statue of Mary we called it a 'wayside shrine'. Now with the Stations of the Cross, a statue of the Holy Family and a statue serving as a constant reminder of Life Eternal in the Resurrection of Jesus, we are calling the entire area Gate of Heaven! That is actually a title given to the Blessed Mother and found in the Litany of Loreto. It seems a fitting title as the Shrine area is a bit of heaven—especially in the early morning hours or in the early evenings. Even now in the midst of winter we see cars pulling up to the Shrine. It is a great place to offer a prayer or two and to reflect.

I hope your week is blessed. Please remember those who have asked our prayers—those seeking healing and wholeness.

Remember too the needs of the Church throughout the world. Pray for the Christians who are persecuted in so many places.

As to the 'world' - I have heard from Fr. Julius who sends his greetings to the parish he calls 'home'. He has definite plans of visiting at the end of July!!!

God's Peace! Fr. Krizner, Gracie, Annie, Cotton ...

SAINT OF THE WEEK FAITH

St. Thomas Aquinas | January 28

One of the most famous members of the Dominican Order, St. Thomas Aquinas (1225 – 1274) is well-known by many for his theological work, "The Summa Theologiae." Born in Italy, his mother wanted him to become a Benedictine and had high hopes that he would eventually become abbot of Monte Cassino, where he spent much of his youth. To change his vocation, she had him kidnapped by his brothers on his way to Paris at the age of 19. He spent two years in their captivity. Despite this, nothing could shake him from his vocation to become a Dominican priest and he was eventually released. Once free, he went to Paris and then to Cologne, where he finished his studies with Albert the Great. His greatest contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. The unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge, encompasses his writings. The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology. The patron saint of teachers, theologians and students, St. Thomas Aquinas died in 1274. His life and the impact he had on the whole Church, however, remains alive today. ©LPi
