GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE
July 11, 2021
15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Maybe the work is best left to the professionals. That's how many people view the preaching of the Gospel. That's the stuff priests, religious, deacons, lay ministers, and other professional Church people do. It has little to do with me. Well, that's not really true. The fact of the matter is that preaching the Gospel has everything to do with you, with all of us who are baptized members of the Body of Christ. Nobody gets off the hook from that job. The question is, however, how do we do it? Well, there's a safe way, which many choose, to preach the Gospel — and the risky way. The safe way pretty much keeps the Gospel in church and around like-minded people. I say my prayers, go to Mass, contribute to the food pantry, tithe, and attend Bible Study. That pretty much covers the bases, right? Wrong.

The risky way is the more challenging way and for many, the “road less traveled.” Imagine those first disciples going out and into people's homes. They must have had some amazing conversations with folks about God's kingdom, changing their hearts, forgiving sins, and looking at the world differently. They must have met people who were hurting, exiled from their communities, neglected, lost, or living self-insulated lives in a society that served the rich and neglected the poor. While there were many who welcomed what they had to say and the conversations they had, there were others who no doubt rejected them and literally tossed them out on their ears! The Gospel, while being a message of joy and hope, is not always received well by those who are very comfortable keeping things as they are.

The risky way involves example and conversation. We have to take the Gospel from church and carry it with us wherever we go. What kinds of conversations do we have with others? We interact with those closest to us, in our work, social circles, institutions, corporations, in politics, and beyond. Our conversations with others reveal a great deal about how we see things and what we consider important. If we are really interested in seeing God's vision for the world succeed, then we will talk about it. It will become a part of our everyday conversation and find its way into our interactions with others. How will we preserve the dignity of human life and encourage others to have a relationship with God? We must be the example, live value centered, virtuous lives, stand against injustice, combating racism, and learn ways to resolve conflicts without violence.

If we are going to succeed going forward, we have to find a way to bring our prayer centered lives into the marketplace. Our conversations have to change. Not everyone wants to hear what the Gospel has to say. That's a risk God asks us to take.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

What We Carry from Town to Town

In my experience, there are two kinds of people: the folks who kick off their shoes the second they walk through the door, and the ones who don't.

People can feel strongly about this on both sides. The main thrust of the Shoes-Off Brigade seems to be this: we track a lot of weird stuff on the soles of our feet. Little reminders of all the places we've been — whether it's a private home or a public bathroom — cling to our shoes long after we leave.

This same theory applies to our spiritual lives. As human beings and as disciples, we visit a lot of figurative towns and pick up a lot of figurative dust. Sinfulness. Shame. Defeat. Anger. Fear. Doubt. No matter how hard we try to keep free of it, these things have a way of attaching themselves to us, sometimes without us even noticing. We need to take a good look at what unhelpful and unconstructive baggage from our past we're tracking into our present and future encounters.

What is the "town" God is asking you to visit today in His name? Is it a tough conversation with a friend, a brief witness to a stranger in the checkout line, a call to be present to someone in your family? Before you go, remember, shake off the dust. Don't let a past disappointment constrain you. Don't allow yesterday's failures or burdens to keep you from the joy of today's witness, whatever form it might take.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God calls us to bring His Word to all corners of the earth. What does that mean for you and me? We are just simple and humble folks trying to find our way through the Gospel and our world. After all, we are not professional preachers but gentle servants. Jesus summons us to take his message on the road and bring it from the pew to the pavement. We cannot keep the joy of the Gospel to ourselves but must bring it into every aspect of our lives: our families, our schools, our work, our corporations, our politics, our social circles, and our philosophies. We cannot just accept the wisdom of the world as true and conduct our lives as if the Good News is a separate matter. They are one. Jesus never asked his friends to go and construct buildings where people could come to hear the truth. He asked them to go to their homes and meet them one on one, face to face. When the rubber meets the road and the message is challenging, rejection is quite possible. That's the litmus test for whether we're really doing what we have been asked.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: What kind of religious practices should we begin, once we marry, to help us practice our faith each day?

Answer:

Your spiritual life as a couple is important. The sacrament of Marriage is a gift and a grace, but living it well isn't always easy! It requires intentionality and perseverance. Growing your spiritual life as a couple also requires a plan. Life can be incredibly busy. There's never "enough time" for everything we want to do. But we can live by our priorities. If we don't prioritize prayer, we'll find it slowly disappear from our lives. If you're not already praying individually, that's a good place to start. If your schedules are similar, take some quiet time at the same time to help hold each other accountable. Praying together is also important! You could start by looking at the religious practices of your family and of families around you that you respect. Talk with your spouse about the ones who make the deepest impression on you or were most meaningful when you were young. Think about what you want your future children to experience. Making faith a commitment now will mean it is engrained habit when you grow your family. Ultimately, these faith practices should help us grow in our love for God and for one another.

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Prayer for our Nation

Loving and Merciful God, look upon our Nation dedicated to our Mother through the Immaculate Conception. Look with tender mercy upon a Nation in need of Your guidance and wisdom through the Holy Spirit. Extend Your Hand in blessing upon those who call upon You and be present to those who have neglected You. Do not forsake us, O Lord, but in Your clemency bring us Peace through Christ the Lord. Amen.

IMPORTANT!

After my experience with the fake phone call and the threats that accompanied it (as mentioned at Masses last weekend) I have arranged for a presentation from Government representatives who deal with fraud and the like.

This will be held on JULY 22, Thursday Evening at 7 p.m. Come to this event for your own security, safety and that of your parents/grandparents/neighbors.

ALL ARE Encouraged to join us!

These incidents are only going to intensify and I want you to be aware and secure with this knowledge. All are invited including anyone that SHOULD know this info.

Help Wanted

If there are any high-school students or college students that can give some time to preparing, setting up and being present for the Amazing American Penny to be held on July 30/31 please give the Office a call. We could use your help and creativity. Thanks!

Dear Parish Family,

The photo on the front cover is the backyard of our property. In the evenings during these months of mid-summer there are spectacular sunsets. Stop by the SHRINE or the Stations and witness the Hand of God in His handiwork. It makes for a relaxing and uplifting evening! The Wayside Shrine of our Lady looks wonderful. The Daughters have lent their handiwork and I have seen Chris May several times working at the Shrine. Our Maintenance Crew under John Twardzik refinished the entrance way and, as mentioned above, it is a beautiful and serene place to visit. I hope before summer ends that you'll be able to visit. Thanks to ALL who continue the upkeep of the grounds in so many ways! I will say it again that it has not looked this good for some time!

Remember that you can have a candle lit at the Shrine. Make arrangements through the office and one of our maintenance staff will make certain it is lit. Outdoor candles are a separate kind of candle and the offering is $3.00.

Our Vacation Bible School has filled up nicely. May their week be a true experience of Faith & Fun. Much gratitude to the VBS Staff and Sara! May blessings be over-abundant! This coming Wednesday Lisa begins the Bible Study, 'My Lord and My God'! She has shared the program with me and it is both enlightening and uplifting. Enjoy the journey!

We are hoping for and planning an Amazing American Penny Carnival –July 30 /31. Mark the date for your little ones. The 30th will be for Adults only. Details to follow! Peace to your week. Pray for us as we pray for you!

Is the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) for Me? All who are not baptized, baptized into another Christian faith denomination or a baptized Catholic but have not received the sacraments of Confirmation or Eucharist are invited to take part in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

The RCIA is a friendly and informal journey of welcoming and ministering to those who seek to join our church. Our weekly gatherings are to help you experience the church through an understanding of our teachings and Sacramental life. Anyone who is thinking about becoming a Catholic or who would simply like more information can call Lisa Radey at the parish office 330.273.5500 or lradey@stcoletteparish.com

Would you consider joining the St. Colette CARE Ministry?

The CARE Ministry is a group devoted to helping people through their grief when a loved one has passed. We do this through celebrating the lives we've lost with memorial Masses three times a year and a Christmas luncheon. We make funeral home visitations to let people know we are praying for them and their loved one and that we care. We also supply bakery at the funeral home if it is requested. In addition, we take Eucharist to the homebound. Meetings are held as necessary throughout the year and there are no dues. If you are interested in any or all of these, please call the office and leave your name, phone number and email. Someone from CARE will contact you.

We'd love to have you!

Sanctuary Candle

Parishioners are able to have the Sanctuary Candle lit for their intentions. The candle cost is $5.00 and it usually burns for about a week. The forms are available in the Parish Office or you can call the Parish Office at 330.273.5500 to purchase one over the phone. We cannot guarantee when the candle will be lit. When your candle is lit, it will be written on the white board in the Mary Chapel and also appear in the bulletin. Regular Devotional Candles $2, Tea lights $.50
