GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

July 17, 2022

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Our families need to ask for the gift of the Spirit! Through prayer, even in the busiest times, we give time back to God, we find the peace that comes from appreciating the important things, and we encounter the joy of God’s unexpected gifts. Through daily prayer may our homes become, like the house of Martha and Mary, places where Jesus always finds a warm welcome (Pope Francis).” While it is necessary to attend to the details of hospitality, learning how to be present to people, experiences, and God is sometimes more important. Creating homes that are welcoming environments requires not only organization and structure but members who truly enjoy being there and celebrating life with one another.

Details can often get the best of us. While attending to details is important to success, our obsession with them can be problematic. Whether wanting to make a good impression, fear of failure, insecurity, or emotional immaturity, throwing ourselves into the “details” of hospitality can distract us from being present to those we want to serve. Conversely, focusing exclusively on being present without any attention to detail also sets our attempts at hospitality up for disaster! We need a balance of both. But creating a truly welcoming space in our homes and within ourselves requires still more.

We have to be empty of ourselves. Becoming a welcoming, hospitable person is not possible in someone focused on their own needs and desires. If the one we serve is the one who looks back at us in the mirror, then there is no space for anyone else. While Martha and Mary had different ideas of what it means to serve, they both had the inner space and freedom to do so. They were detached from themselves. Detachment becomes the challenge to hospitality and creating a God-centered, open-hearted space in our lives. When we impulsively act out of our personal agendas, violence, abuse, pride, greed, lust, power, control, passion, and self-aggrandizement encroach upon the space needed to be present to another human being. Not only can others not find a home in us, but even God cannot find a home in us!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We become a welcoming person when we can step aside from our own needs and desires to create space for someone else. Welcoming involves a quality of listening and presence that communicates to another person that what they are sharing and who they are have importance. When we shift attention and focus from ourselves and direct it toward someone else, positive things can happen. When someone knows that their story matters, it can be life changing and life-giving. Hospitality brings forth life and celebrates relationships. Whether we are actively tending to the business of serving the needs of others or opening ourselves to listening to their story, devotion and attentiveness are friends of love. Becoming anxious and preoccupied with one's personal agenda leaves no room for the creative, nurturing and spontaneous power of God's love.

Many Thanks!

As Vacation Bible School week has come to close, I would be remiss to not acknowledge the wonderful experience. This year's theme was "St. Colette and her Friends" (Sts. Francis, Anthony, and Clare). Nearly 70 children graced our parish hall throughout the week singing songs about the saints, going on Scavenger hunts, creating "I Spy" bottles and musical instruments, and so much more... even baking their own loaves of bread! Special thanks to all of the volunteers for their time and generosity; to Jon Gorczyca for the t-shirt design, The Holy Name Society for teaching the children how to make bread, the Armstrong/Krupla family for donating so many of the art supplies, and Sr. Anna Rose for sharing her faith witness. What makes our week so special and anticipated throughout the year is the creativity of the amazing volunteers and families who share the light of their little ones with us! Thank you to the many hands that made this week fun and memorable. Honestly, CAN'T WAIT FOR NEXT YEAR!

St. Colette and her Friends, pray for you always! ~

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Weddings

Question:

This time of year, I attend a lot of weddings. Why do Catholic weddings need to take place in a church?

Answer:

Technically, there is a clause in Church law that could allow for weddings to take place outside of a church, in a suitable space under special circumstances, but it requires the rare permission of the bishop. But the meaning of marriage goes very, very deep, and the Church has a vested interest in protecting that meaning. As Catholics, we don't see a wedding as an event that needs a pleasing backdrop.

Marriage is a sacrament, both an occasion of joyful promise and symbolic solemnity. It is a spiritual event. The loving bond of marriage symbolizes the mystical union between Christ and his Church. The man and woman profess lifelong vows of fidelity, and they receive supernatural grace from God to keep their promises. Receiving the sacrament of Marriage in a church has broader symbolic meaning for the couple as well. Marriage isn't simply two people in isolation from the world around them. Marriage is the joining of families and the beginning of a new, holy mission in the life of the couple. Weddings are sacred occasions, and it's fitting that they occur in sacred spaces.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Be Ready for God to "Stop By"

In my experience, most people can be divided into two groups: those who are old enough to remember when you kept food on hand for company, and those who aren't.

For those of you in the latter group, let me explain. Before text messaging and social media made us all unconditionally, mercilessly reachable, people would do this thing called "stopping by." They would be passing by a friend's house, maybe on the way home from work or shopping, and they would just ... stop. With no warning. No notice whatsoever. "I was just in the neighborhood," they would say. I remember my mother and I would do this on many a Saturday. It wasn't an everyday occurrence, but it was common enough that you had to be ready.

"Crazy," you might exclaim. "People just appeared on your doorstep? How did you cope with the uncertainty?" Well, most of us had moms who kept a little something on hand to eat or drink that was extra nice, just in case anyone stopped by. That way, we were always ready.

Today's readings are about a lot of things: prayer, hope, redemptive suffering. They're about what it means to be a Christian, and not just what it means to do Christian things.

Most of all, though, they're about readiness. If God showed up at your door, would you be ready for Him? Would you be ready for what He gives you, or what He takes away? Would you be ready for Him to interrupt the plans you have for yourself? To disrupt the idea you carry in your mind of what a servant or a steward is supposed to be?

Read your Bible. Say your rosary. Go to Mass. Get to Confession. Talk to God — every day, not just when you think you need Him. That way, you are always ready.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

The Amazing American Penny Carnival

During my first assignment at St. Columbkille (1979-85) the idea came that we should have a Penny Carnival—but a huge event! In 1980 we celebrated just that: A HUGE Penny Carnival always with an American theme. In the years that followed we celebrated all sorts of themes from Abe Lincoln to Donald Duck, from the Ole South to Benjamin Franklin. With the size of the parish we had literally hundreds of kids to put on such an extravaganza! Now the Ministry Team has turned into adults with lawyers, teachers, professionals of every kind including our own Lisa Radey, Pastoral Minister, Sister Denise, OSU, Joe Cronauer from the FISH, a Captain of the Fire Department, a Disney artist, Karen & Tom Bandwen, who were advisors to our group and on and on.... But in those days we were young people with the full spectrum of Church—from young to old as the Church belonged to EVERYONE regardless of age! Each summer the Amazing American Penny Carnival was reborn for a wonderful weekend of good family fun!

THE STORY

In 1981, I had the honor of meeting Ed Chukayne, the author of EUCLID BEACH Books (Volume 1 & 2) and an avid collector of memorabilia of the old Park. That year we celebrated the Park— a famous landmark in Cleveland. Mr. Chukayne lent us some wonderful memorabilia and one of the Team Members built A RECREATION of the famous Arches of EBP. For 6 years the Penny Carnival continued until I was transferred to Holy Name High School. For 22 years the arches remained in my parent's basement until I was assigned to St. Colette. Following a sign that graced the gates of Euclid Beach we were “OPEN FOR THE SEASON” once again!

THE theme was always the same, Celebrate America! Celebrate Freedom! Celebrate the USA! We received letters from President Reagan, had Bishop Pilla as a Guest of Honor, and always the support of the Mayor of 7Hills: Mayor Kelly!

While we are smaller in size and number we have managed to continue this Adventure and we will welcome you to this year's Amazing American Penny Carnival— enter beneath the arches where Laughing Sal is still Laffin!

In your kindness
if you would like to donate small prizes for the little kids we would welcome that Too!and thanks!

July -the Holy Father's Intentions~

We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.

"Act in a way that all those who come in contact with you will go away joyful. Sow happiness about you because you have received much from God."
- St. Faustina

Prayer for our Nation

God our Father, giver of life, we entrust the United States of America to your loving care. You are the rock on which this nation was founded. You alone are the true source of our cherished rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Reclaim this land for your glory and dwell among your people.
Send your Spirit to touch the hearts of our nation's leaders. Open their minds to the great worth of human life and the responsibilities that accompany human freedom. Remind your people that true happiness is rooted in seeking and doing your will.

Through the intercession of Mary Immaculate, patroness of our land, grant us the courage to reject the "culture of death." Lead us into a new millennium of life. We ask this through Christ Our Lord.

Amen. Source: BostonCatholic.org

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Bridget of Sweden | July 23

Saint Bridget or Birgitta was born in 1303, the daughter of Birger Petersson, governor of Uppland and his wife Ingeborg Bengtsdotter. She was married to Ulf Gudmarsson, who became governor of the province of Nericia. They had eight children, all of whom survived past infancy which was rare for the 12th century. One of their daughters would become St. Catherine of Sweden. Saint Bridget was hailed as a mystic and her visions, which began in her early childhood when she had visions of Christ Crucified, made her somewhat of a Middle Ages celebrity. Her vision of the Nativity of Jesus even influenced the art of the Nativity through the Baroque era! She is said to have predicted the Vatican State. Saint Bridget's Revelations, which she dictated to Peter Olafsson, the prior at the Cistercian monastery of Alvastra near which she retired after her husband's death in 1344, were published in 1492. They have since been published in many languages and can still be purchased today. Some of her most profound visions regarded the founding of a new religious order which would be primarily for women, ruled by an abbess, but with a separate house for monks who would serve as order chaplains. Her visions detailed everything from the abbey church to the clothing that would be adopted as the nun's habit, and how the order would be ruled. King Magnus II of Sweden granted Bridget land and buildings. The order, called the Bridgettines or the Order of the Most Holy Savior was approved by Pope Urban V in 1370. Saint Bridget was canonized in 1391 by Pope Boniface IX and in 1999 Pope John Paul II named her one of the Patron Saints of Europe. ©LPi

The next Baptism Class will be held Sunday, July 31st after the 11:45am mass at St. Colette.

Diocesan policy requires attendance at a Baptism class for parents who are planning to present their first child for the Sacrament of Baptism. To register, call the Parish Office at (330) 273-5500.

MARYKNOLL LAY MISSIONERS

Jillian Foster

Speaking July 23-24, 2022

Jillian Foster is originally from Loveland, Ohio, and attended the University of Dayton. She graduated in 2018 with a degree in human rights studies along with three minors: computer science, religious studies and sustainability. . In 2019, Jill applied to Maryknoll Lay Missioners and was placed in Haiti. Jill's transition to life in Haiti has come at a time when the whole world is transitioning to a different reality.

*Maryknoll Lay Missioners is one of the largest U.S. Catholic organizations sending laypeople into global mission. Over the past four and a half decades, we have prepared and sent more than 700 missionaries who have accompanied people experiencing poverty and marginalization around the world. Your donations will allow Maryknoll Lay Missioners to prepare and sustain laypeople in global mission and to help build a more just, compassionate and sustainable world. This once-a-year opportunity is a wonderful way for all of us to participate in the on-going global mission to bring the Good News of Jesus Christ to the ends of the earth! NOW HIRING

Because of the growing numbers in our PSCF Program, we are in need of teachers and aides for the next year starting in September. This is an excellent way of sharing your faith and witnessing Evangelization according to the Gospel. The need is especially for the younger children who are a pleasure to relate with. Consider this is something God is calling you to do. God Bless
