GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

July 18, 2021

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

There's an ordinary pine grove located on a tree farm not too far from town where life's stresses and demands seem to melt away. It is here that all that seemed so important out there no longer is and one can get lost in the rows of trees and majestic beauty. God is here and all is good. We need to connect with the Divine Source of all that is in order to understand what it is we are doing and why we are doing it. Otherwise, things stop making sense and bitterness can overcome one's spirit. It's okay to play once in a while and to discover that place of profound life and peace. People always have needs and there is constantly something to do. And while all of that is necessary and we are needed, there is also that inner solitude within that needs to be celebrated and released.

We all need a pine grove. It's that little place we can go and leave all that consumes us behind. It's a place where technology can be set aside and wonder, and awe given some time. We don't have to text, calculate, or orchestrate anything in the pine grove. It is a somewhat deserted place where all of that can be set aside and we can just be. The anger, frustration, exhaustion, discouragement, helplessness, and occasional apathy, all can fall to the ground like all of those pine needles that once held their place on the branch of a Frasier Fir. The needles can let go. We can let go. We are beings connected with Being and we all need to remember what really matters, who really matters and what life is truly all about. We need to find that place where we can rest and let go of all of the barnacles we accumulate. Rest, breathe, seek, and love.

The world will need us again when we leave the pine grove. It will all be waiting for us, beckoning for our attention. But we will have prayed and will have marveled at the silence and the beauty of goodness. We can go back, ready, and eager to listen, to help, to heal, to cry, to embrace, and attend to all that is asked of us. But, having let go of the distractions in that deserted place we will have a renewed sense of purpose. We will know better Who it is we serve and what we are meant to do. It will all be clearer now that we have been Divinely touched and refreshed.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Steward's Work Is Never Done

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock! When you hear these strong words from the Old Testament, you're probably thinking, thank goodness I don't have any sheep — dodged that bullet. Nobody misled here! No flock scattered on my watch! However, we are all shepherds of a kind, called to tend our own sheep: our families, our parishes, our communities.

But it's exhausting. Don't we all sometimes just want to take a break from being a steward? The excuses are so familiar: we're tired, we've done enough, we've given all we can, what more does the parish (or my spouse, or my kids, or my boss, or my friends, or my community) want? We give ourselves permission to be selfish. So, what if the flock scatters just a little?

Jesus gets that. We can just imagine him weary with exhaustion, can't we? We see him on his boat, attempting to sneak away for a quick break — maybe just a chance to eat a bite of food in peace. He is God, but he was still human, after all. Even the most dedicated shepherds need to sleep. But people couldn't leave him alone. They were hungry for him. They needed what he could offer, and they needed it now.

As tough as it is, that's the example we are tasked with imitating. Everyday Stewardship demands accountability. It demands our showing up even when we are tired. It demands that we look at our lives, our time, our energies, our talents, our hearts, our bank accounts and think: where do I still have more to give?

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We only have so much psychological and spiritual energy. We easily get tired. Responding to life's demands and people's needs can really zap us of all of our energy. Anger, frustration, exhaustion, discouragement, helplessness, and even apathy can run wild. We can find ourselves bitter and irritated by the fact that we have to do it all again. We need to rest, connect, and focus. Deserted places, free of unnecessary distractions and demands, are great places of refreshment and we all need them. Desiring to be alone for a bit and rest does not indicate selfishness. Rather, it radiates wisdom. God is the source of all we do and the satisfaction of every human heart. If we are going to use the gifts God gave us well, then we have to make sure our batteries are recharged and replenished. Jesus invites us to go to a desert place to rest and pray. Where is yours?

Jesus, Good Shepherd, lead us by your grace and protect us from all that is harmful. Hold us in Your Arms and never let us be separated from You.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED
Question: I've heard that we become angels when we die. Is this what the Church teaches?

Answer:

As human beings, we are both spiritual and corporeal. We are body and soul. This makes us unique in all creation. No other physical creature — plant or animal — possesses an immortal soul made in God's image and likeness. Like the distinction with plants and animals, angels have an entirely different sort of existence. Angels are pure immortal spirit, and they have been so since the moment of their creation. While they may take on an appearance of a body in Biblical history, they are not a body like we are. Angels are neither male nor female, despite the art we often see. As the result of the Fall, human beings experience death. Our souls are temporarily separated from our bodies. However, we do not become something other than human. Every Sunday in the Creed we profess "I believe in the resurrection of the body." As Jesus was united with his body on the third day, so too will we be united with our bodies at the end of time.

IMPORTANT!

After my experience with the fake phone call and the threats that accompanied it (as mentioned at weekend Masses) I have arranged for a presentation from Government representatives who deal with fraud and the like

This will be held on JULY 22, Thursday Evening at 7 p.m.

Come to this event for your own security, safety and that of your parents/grandparents/neighbors.

ALL ARE Encouraged to join us!

These incidents are only going to intensify and I want you to be aware and secure with this knowledge.

All are invited including anyone that SHOULD know this info.

Fr. Krizner

EUCCHARIST IN THE HAND!

once again— because we do not know who has been vaccinated against the pandemic I do NOT want to put the Extra-ordinary Ministers at risk. For your protection and for theirs PLEASE receive Communion in the hands!

We are still taking certain precautions to protect those who cannot receive the vaccine or those who have chosen not to.

Your spiritual preference is not greater than the risk of someone touching your tongue—even if you are last in line! The minister of holy Communion and the other faithful also have rights. By example I will use myself: I have an auto-immune disorder called rheumatoid. I need to be careful in my dealings with anyone who may be ill. I am susceptible as are so many others. COVID has not completely disappeared and precautions are necessary.

“People with rheumatoid arthritis are at increased risk for infection because of their disease and frequently because of their medications. Many of the medications used to treat rheumatoid disease suppress the immune system of the body that is responsible for defending against infectious microbes.” (medicinenet.com)

GOD'S blessings to Chris as he further pursues his career as a Traveling Nurse. We have enjoyed him and his talents since Easter. Chris has left for Seattle where he will continue to serve others!

While we will all miss CHRIS. Annie is at the top of the list. She became 'buddies' with Chris and anticipated his Sunday mornings. Hurry Back!

A HUGE THANK YOU to Jim Byrne for the beautiful sign announcing the Lily Ann Grace GIFT SHOP in the Atrium. Out of his kindness this artist shared his talents with our parish and presented a sign announcing the entrance to the Shop. THANK YOU!

THANK YOU to Sara and her wonderful and dedicated Team of Adults and young people who presented a fun-filled, remarkable Vacation Bible School! It was the largest number of 'kids' that we have ever had in attendance. Lots of work and planning went into the week and we are Grateful for the talent, the time, the dedication and all the work to make it a Fun in Faith Week!

We are the Sheep of His Flock!

Have you been coming to Mass for a while, but are not Catholic?

Do you have questions about God and Faith or do you know someone who does?

Do you have questions about the Catholic Church?

Perhaps you are searching quietly and need some answers.

Starting in the fall, our parish will begin a journey of faith, to share the richness of the Catholic Church and the love of our parish family. We invite you to learn what the church teaches and how we choose to live as Catholic Christians.

These gatherings are for those who are unbaptized, Catholics who have been away from their faith, as well as those who are baptized Christians from various backgrounds.

Please bring your own chair. There is some shade so you don't have to sit in the sun.

ST. COLETTE'S HOLY NAME SOCIETY

The Holy Name Society meeting on July 8th was a great success. It was good to see so many of our members coming back together after more than a year.

There was a lot of enthusiasm about growing our membership, good conversations, an informative and fascinating presentation on Popes, and really excellent food (Stromboli, coleslaw, apple pie and home-made ice cream).

Plan on coming to our next meeting at 7 pm on Thursday, August 12th. Details will follow in upcoming bulletins.

ALL MEN IN THE PARISH ARE

Would you consider joining the St. Colette CARE Ministry?

The CARE Ministry is a group devoted to helping people through their grief when a loved one has passed. We do this through celebrating the lives we've lost with memorial Masses three times a year and a Christmas luncheon. We make funeral home visitations to let people know we are praying for them and their loved ones and that we care. We host funeral luncheons by request and provide bakery for the luncheons. We also supply bakery at the funeral home if it is requested. In addition, we take Eucharist to the homebound. Meetings are held as necessary throughout the year and there are no dues. If you are interested in any or all of these, please call the office and leave your name, phone number and email. Someone from CARE will contact you.

We'd love to have you!
