

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

July 4, 2021

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

It's all so ordinary that we can easily miss it. The seagulls hunting and diving for mollusks at the beach offer a display of determination and precision as they gather their food for the day. It's simply what these creatures do. Yet, there's a magical artfulness and skill to their work that speaks volumes about the One who breathed life into their being. This is pretty much the way it is with God's presence. God comes in common ways through common things and ordinary people. Sadly, we are so engulfed in our little worlds of order and ideas to notice the beauty and wonder of it all. Many have numbed themselves to the Divine spark at the essence of all life because that's just the way it is. What's so special about it? A sunset is a sunset and a seagull is a seagull. That's precisely what they thought about Jesus too. After all, isn't he just the carpenter's son? What merit can his words possibly have?

If we're looking for God to come in an event that is so dramatic and intense that it knocks our socks off, then think again. When pondering God's relationship with His people and God's action in our lives, we have to go back to the stable and the recurring, creative, unending power of God's presence. It was a quiet, run of the mill kind of night. There was nothing spectacular or extraordinary. To the naked eye, a woman gave birth to a child and there wasn't anything extraordinary to see. We have a hard time understanding God's ordinary-ness. Jesus grew up in an ordinary town, had neighbors and did normal human things. Perhaps that's why we don't always like the Gospel. It doesn't dazzle us with extraordinary things but simply challenges us to take a different look at our ordinary stuff. That makes us uncomfortable. We prefer things as they are. Our lack of faith can even cause us to take offense at what Jesus says and does, dismissing it as folly.

God's life-giving presence continues to sustain that seagull in flight and keep all things in being regardless of whether we have the faith to see and understand this. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be hardened and blinded to what God is doing or desiring to do. While God continues to do what he has done for all eternity, faith is needed for God's presence to bear fruit. The blinders we wear and the expectations we bring to life can often prevent us from seeing graced moments that radiate with God's graceful presence. They also prevent God's transforming, healing, and hope filled vision for our world from being realized. Without faith, God won't be able to do much for us either.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE
GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Prophecy of You and Me

Prophet. There's a heaviness to this word. It's weighted down with meaning. We think of prophets and we think of Charlton Heston with wild hair and a booming voice, reaching out his hand to work wonders of nature by the grace of God. We think of prophets and we think of ancient Biblical history — someone far away, someone so removed from our everyday life. A prophet is someone who knows something we don't.

When I let you in on this secret, it might scare you at first: in a way, God is calling you to be a prophet. He is calling me. He is calling anyone who hears the truth of the Gospel. However, there is no need for the megaphone and the wild locusts. This prophet gig might not be what you're thinking.

What does a prophet do? He hears and testifies to the truth, even when it's uncomfortable, even when it's unpopular, even when it results in, as Paul says, "weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions and constraints." A prophet doesn't have to be smart or rich or ordained; heck, he doesn't even have to be particularly willing.

All a prophet has to do is listen to the truth. The truth we receive from Christ, through the Gospel and the sacraments, is a mighty gift. But it is a gift that we are not meant to simply keep for ourselves. In possessing it, we are compelled to also _____ pass it on, to share _____ it, to let the Spirit _____ set us on our feet.

LIVE THE LITURGY—
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God never ceases to proclaim His Word. His life-giving presence continues to sustain all things and keep them in being regardless of whether there is the faith to receive or perceive Him. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be so hard of heart and obstinate that we fail to see what God is trying to do. While God remains ever present, faith is necessary for God's power to bear fruit. As we celebrate our country's independence, let us not forget the difference between liberties and freedom. While the liberties we have are most welcome treasures, only freedom from what blinds, deceives, and weighs us down can bring happiness. God is all about healing, transformation, and hope. In order for God to do what God does best, we have to invite Him in and see Him for who he is. Otherwise, God's will for humanity will be something at which we simply take offense, a common reaction when something challenges or unsettles us.

*If My people who are called by My name,
will humble themselves
& pray, and seek My face,
& turn from their wicked ways,
then I will hear from heaven
& will forgive their sin,
& will heal their land.*

The Signers of the Declaration

IMPORTANT!

After my experience with the fake phone call and the threats that accompanied it (as mentioned at Masses last weekend) I have arranged for a presentation from Government representatives who deal with fraud and the like. This will be held on JULY 22, Thursday Evening at 7 p.m. Come to this event for your own security, safety and that of your parents/grandparents/neighbors. ALL ARE Encouraged to join us! These incidents are only going to intensify and I want you to be aware and secure with this knowledge. All are invited including anyone that SHOULD know this info.

“ spend a great deal of my day looking for people to jump on, to greet, and to get all the attention I can muster!” —
Annie

“And I spend most of my day avoiding Annie! But somehow she always finds me much to my dismay! And they call us ‘sisters!’ - Gracie”

From all of us—a Happy Belated Birthday to our pastoral Minister, Lisa- + BLESSINGS!

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: Our Catholic grade school is doing a penance service. Do young children really need to go to Confession? How much sin can they really have?

Answer:

Ask any mom about her children and see how many would say she has a brood of perfect angels! Parents know that kids do things that are wrong ... and they often know they're doing it! Even toddlers have a sense of right and wrong. The Church recognizes that their minds and consciences are not yet fully developed, however, and typically waits until age seven to offer the sacrament of Confession. Around that age and beyond, most young people, when asked, can easily explain why something is wrong.

Confession for children is an excellent way to help them reflect on their actions and accept responsibility for their behavior. It helps them to grow in their understanding of sin and how it affects others. This helps them to form their consciences and make better choices in the future. Most importantly, they learn the value of forgiveness, both given and received. Rather than singling out what's wrong, Confession offers hope and a new start! Children can grow in understanding God's unconditional love and develop a sense of inner dignity that transcends their failings. Not bad for five minutes and an “Our Father” or two!

Dear Parish Family,
 As I was working on this bulletin I came across some vintage post card pictures of July 4th. There seems to have been a time when we all truly respected the flag, appreciated our freedom, and cherished the independence proclaimed for us in 1776. The years past were not always prosperous for all and entailed a great deal of struggle. After all, this country has seen it's share of war and bloodshed, the Great Depression, unrest of the Viet-Nam years, 9/11 and, quite honestly, we could go on and on. But here we come to the 4th in 2021 and there are still difficult years for what is a rather young Nation. It must be so difficult for our Veterans to see the flag of our Nation ignored, tread upon and disregarded. You have a right to do so but you have a duty, a responsibility to those who have fought for Freedom since the days of Independence Hall to cherish the flag and the ideals that it represents. Respect seems to be missing in our country today! SO in the midst of your picnic and fire-works, your bar-b-q and gatherings take a moment to be grateful for that fragile delicate gift of America. There are still citizens who love the USA and revere her ideals. There are men and women standing guard over our Nation realizing always the risk and the possible peril. There are still children who Pledge Allegiance and fly their hand-held flags. Let's Celebrate our Nation—let's celebrate those 56 signers of the Declaration of Independence who 'mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor.'

Perhaps there is the key to it all: within the fabric of the red, white, and blue is a sacred honor which we are called upon to regard!

May your week be blessed. Imagine that— we have already come to the 4th of July. Get ready for the early Christmas commercials! God Bless your week and God Bless our Nation -

Fr. Krizner, Gracie, Annie, Cotton

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all!

Would you consider joining the St. Colette CARE Ministry?

The CARE Ministry is a group devoted to helping people through their grief when a loved one has passed. We do this through celebrating the lives we've lost with memorial Masses three times a year and a Christmas luncheon. We make funeral home visitations to let people know we are praying for them and their loved one and that we care. We also supply bakery at the funeral home if it is requested. In addition, we take Eucharist to the homebound. Meetings are held as necessary throughout the year and there are no dues. If you are interested in any or all of these, please call the office and leave your name, phone number and email. Someone from CARE will contact you. We'd love to have you!
