

CORPUS CHRISTI

CORPUS CHRISTI

Good Morning! | Good Afternoon!

...Jesus said to the Jewish crowds: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." This weekend we celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi – The Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ. It's a special moment for us as Catholics to celebrate and remember that central to our faith is the gift of the Eucharist. We come to the Table of the Lord to be nourished and strengthened on the journey to Heaven. We come to remember the sacrifice of Christ for us. And we come to renew our commitment over and over again to the Living Body of Christ – the Church.

...This Feast was always very special to Father Krizner. He had a great love and devotion to the Blessed Sacrament. It was what strengthened him in his life, ministry and journey home to the Lord. "Whoever eats this bread will live – forever!!" It's appropriate that this weekend we host the first of our summer special activities to help us remember Father Krizner's life and ministry. We celebrate his new life with God in Heaven. And, we come together as a parish family to renew our commitment to continue to follow the example of service, compassion and devotion to the Lord and the Blessed Sacrament that Father Krizner witnessed his entire priestly life and ministry.

...Special thanks to all who have worked hard to create this special celebration for us. God bless Dusty Shell, along with the Holy Name Society and the Daughters of Saint Colette, for their time and efforts to make this special celebration – this summer celebration – so special for our community.

...The Penny Carnival is rapidly approaching. It will be another highlight of the summer season. Please plan to join in the fun on Sunday, July 9. Come for free burgers and hotdogs, chips and soft drinks. There will also be penny carnival games, inflatables and more. Watch for details in the coming week to RSVP and also to sign up to help. Many hands make for light work. It also makes for a great Penny Carnival. Even more, it's a way of living out the Feast of Corpus Christi – all of us coming together to build up the Body of Christ.

...BTW – Sara is eager to hear from you if you can volunteer. Contact her at skronholz@stcoletteparish.com

...Lisa did a great job offering grief support for the community as people grieve and heal from the passing of your pastor. It's a real loss. She's open to doing another if people are interested. To learn more, please contact Lisa at lradey@stcoletteparish.com

...This past Monday Jeanette Webster, Deacon Scott and I met with the Parish Finance Council. As we look to bring to a close the fiscal year at the end of June, over and over again, God bless you for your support for Saint Colette. Over the past few months, Ed Pfahl and Deacon Scott have been working to get bids on some important repair work for the parish. The PFC affirmed the need to address these projects which include: roof repair and remediation ($6,000); concrete work for both drive ways and front circle (approximately $80,000); paint/carpet/repair the rectory/priest living quarters ($20,000). Watch for work to commence on these projects over the next couple of weeks.

...Blood Drive coming on July 16. Watch for details.

...God bless you abundantly on this Feast of Corpus Christi. It's a great blessing to spend Sunday morning with you this weekend. Prayers always for you and your family. Take care. —Father Bob

Doubt, fear, uncertainty, boredom, anxiousness, anger, confusion, grief, pain... as human beings is natural and often seasonal in our lives so-to-speak to experience negative emotions. There's a LOT going on the world today that doesn't help that either... well, it offers solutions to that negativity... or does it? In the Gospel today, taken from John (Bread of Life Discourse to be exact), Jesus is basically telling us that life is going to be hard... and the world is going to try and offer us ways, oh so many ways, to "feel better" whether it be through the good things like vacations, relationships, food, shopping, entertainment (I love all those things!) or other not so great things. But "guess what," he says, "that stuff will never satisfy. The only thing... the ONLY THING that will be ME— my flesh, my blood, for you." I went to confession last week and for my penance, Fr. Andrew told me to sit in front of the Tabernacle for 10 minutes and "see what happens... see if there isn't something Jesus needs to bring to light." I did... and because I was expecting something to happen, I thought "shoot, now I'm going to get nothing." And just like that, a memory that I didn't realize I was carrying with me came to light like a beacon. And then so many things going on in my life today made sense... it was a total God moment... and I'm grateful to have given him a moment of my time both in the sacrament of confession and prayer. So where is this going? Today is the Feast of Corpus Christi— the Most Holy Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, a day solely focused on Christ's real and true presence in the Eucharist. Because Holy Thursday, the institution of the Eucharist, has so much going on— washing of the feet, Last Supper, Triduum, agony in the garden, etc., the emphasis on "Christ's Body and Blood" loses its place of prominence... so the church created another feast for our focus and appreciation. Today is all about the Eucharist. On this day and since the 1200s, Catholics have processed the Eucharist throughout the neighborhoods as a sign of faith, a beacon of light for those under the weight of all that makes life hard... for us. That piece of bread, that sip of wine isn't just a symbol, but our God who doesn't want to be a memory or Words in a book, but an actual part of us, the "Source and Summit" as the church calls it for our everyday existence in a world that's often cruel, in a life that's often hard. I'm grateful for the "revelation" I had in prayer before Jesus that day. Not every prayer is like that for me, and while I take the faith very seriously, there's always going to be things I need to learn and ways to grow in holiness... to be the person he made me to be. But I'm grateful, SO GRATEFUL for the sacrament of Eucharist and for a God who knows me so well and loves me anyway. I hope as the Eucharist is processed today at Mass it's a beacon of light for you as well!... Continued on page 2!
