

FATHER, SON, HOLY SPIRIT

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

June 12, 2022

The Most Holy Trinity

In creative celebration of the Most Holy Trinity, pray a rosary with creation. Find a quiet place outside or sit near a window. Contemplate the amazing Divine Gift that is before you. Admire it. Study it. Become one with it. Ask for the guidance of Brother St. Francis as you pray: “You, Holy Father, are King of heaven and earth. You are three in one, God above all gods. You are good, all good, and supreme good, Lord God, living and true. You are love. You are beauty. You are gentleness. You are joy. You are hope and happiness.” Admire the wonder and majesty of God in all that is around you. Ask for wisdom and understanding.

Begin each decade with the Our Father and conclude with the Glory Be.

Decade one: Contemplate God the Father. As you pray each bead with a Hail Mary, get lost in the grandeur of all that you see. Imagine the thousands and thousands of years of history that is before you. Envision a time when nothing existed. What is nothing? Lift your eyes, heart, and soul to the power and magnificence of the universe, its expanse and its endlessness. You are one with it all. God’s creative power.

Decade two: Contemplate God the Son. Behold the squirrels, birds, and critters all conducting life’s business. They have heartbeats just like yours. Praying each bead, become one with the incarnate divine life that flows through you and flows with the smallest of creatures. It is holy innocence and blessed life. Tenderness. Compassion, Mercy. Reverence. All want to be held, have a home, and be loved. God in all things. Emmanuel.

Decade three: Contemplate God the Holy Spirit. The changing of times and seasons happens often without notice. It is all within God’s care and guided. We all belong. Behold the living, dying, and rising to new life. You are one with all time from beginning into eternity.

Decade Four: Contemplate God as One.

Decade Five: Contemplate God as three. All different while remaining one. The divine dance is being danced before you. Rest in what you see. Become what you see. We are all connected: God of the Holy Trinity, creation, our brothers and sisters, the animals, and the plants.

The rosary you have prayed celebrates the circle of connectedness and the intimate relationship we share with all things: a glimpse of the Trinity.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC
LIFE EXPLAINED
Stem Cell Research

Question:

Why is the Church against stem cell research, especially if it offers the possibility of cures for diseases like Alzheimer's and Parkinson's?

Answer:

Like so many issues, the truth about stem cell research is more complicated than a few sound bites and vague promises of cures. For the Church, the problem is with embryonic stem cell research, not the research itself. The destruction of human life, even for a seemingly noble cause, is never acceptable. The ends cannot justify the means. Stem cells can be obtained in other ways, including from the placenta as well as from adults. So research is possible without the destruction of other life.

On the other hand, stem cell research shows much promise, but no concrete results. Some scientists also dispute what diseases might be cured by new discoveries. The research is still in its early stages. The question for our country is whether we should invest a lot of money in research now, looking for cures that will probably remain out of reach for most people, or should we invest that money in other programs with more immediate benefits, especially those that stress prevention and education. It is indeed a complex issue that requires close scrutiny and investigation before we jump to inaccurate conclusions or make decisions based on good, but misinformed, intentions.

LIVE THE LITURGY -
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Life can leave us feeling very distracted and detached. Perhaps this is why many people seek things that make them "feel good," wrongly believing those things actually provide a sense of meaning and purpose. In truth, they are simply more distractions. When we discover real silence, we can realize that the stirrings and impulses in our hearts desiring connection, meaning, and purpose are really God desperately trying to pull us toward His Divine Heart. Once we submit to God's pull, we are led to the beauty of God's presence. This holy presence carries us to the heights of mountains, the vastness of ocean depths, the beginning of things and their end, and the majesty of universal wonder. We meet the Father. Then, gently carried to the tenderness of compassion, love, mercy, and forgiveness we touch the innocence and vulnerability of life. We see the poor and those who are broken. We meet the Son. Finally, we are directed toward the seasons that change, the ebb and flow of life, the inspirations that surprise, and the wonder, awe, and joy of life. We embrace the Holy Spirit.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Up to the Job

Have you ever had a job for which you didn't feel qualified? I think we all have, whether it was a paying gig or not. A lot of us parents often feel in awe of the magnitude of that role and lose sleep worrying that we made the wrong decision in one situation or a bad call in another. Some of us feel intimidated by what our communities need from us, on the parish level or in our personal relationships. Or maybe we are simply dreading a task that seems too big, too overwhelming — that necessary basement cleanout, or the weekly organization of family schedules.

When we don't feel qualified, we don't want to do the work. We get stuck in our own fear. That's the birthplace of procrastination, self-doubt and bitterness. When we look inward at our own abilities, we can only see all the traits that aren't there. The intelligence, the dexterity, the ambition — whatever it is we lack, we get stuck on it.

I've got good news and bad news. I'll start with the bad news: none of us are qualified for the call of discipleship. We simply aren't. We don't have the love or grace or strength to get the job done.

Now I'll give you the good news: God knows this, and He doesn't care. Stewardship does not insist that we possess every good quality — no, as a way of life, stewardship recognizes that we lack so many qualities. But it shows us where to find the love and grace and strength we need. Stewardship does not demand that we know every answer; it merely reminds us who to ask when we don't.

Prayer to the Holy Trinity!

I adore You profoundly and with the deepest humility, Oh Most Holy Trinity one God in three Persons; Father, who is my hope, The Son who is my refuge and The Holy Spirit who is my protector.

I believe that you are here present and I sacrifice to You the most Precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ present throughout the world in all Holy Tabernacles.

I offer this in atonement for our sins, outrages, sacrileges, blasphemies and indifferences through which You are all offended.

Most Holy, Undivided and Adorable Trinity, I adore you and Glory You now and forever. Amen

Lampstand

I was brought up as Catholic where I would attend church on Sunday, attend some Catholic school, and went to Catechism (as it was called way back then). But religion wasn't really used in the house.

In the late 70's I moved to Broadview Heights and attended Assumption Church. It was run by the Cleveland Diocese and then was run by the Benedictines. So Benedictines have always been special. In fact, my husband Tom and I were married at Assumption and Abbot Koval performed our ceremony.

My husband and I joined St. Albert the Great and were there 25+ years and were very involved in different groups. After Fr. Viall passed away, we decided it was time, after a few years, to move on. I was losing my faith and it was putting a strain on us. I was ready to go Grace Missionary when my husband said why don't we try St. Colette's which was closer to our home anyway. I agreed and we have never looked back. I have learned so much from Fr. Krizner and Lisa Radey that of course my faith is back to what it should be.

We have been here now about 7-8 years and have met so many friends (both new and reuniting with old) that it has been a blessing to us to be parishioners of St. Colette's.

Thank you Fr. Krizner and St. Colette's for having such a warm, friendly and religious place to pray and learn.

The conclusion of the Easter Season!
Extinguishing the Paschal Candle!

ASCENSION SUNDAY!

Dear Parish Family,

With Pentecost the Easter Season is concluded. Ahead of us is Corpus Christi, the Body and Blood of Jesus. Otherwise we are in Ordinary Time –all the way until Advent! We had a beautiful Easter Season followed by the Sacrament of Confirmation with Abbot Gary. It has been a busy time, indeed!

The building goes on within the time frame. It is exciting to see the progress. We are getting there! The drainage pond is pretty much complete and the building is on track.

June 6 was the commemoration of D Day. The operation was launched on June 6, 1944 with the Normandy Landings. A 1.200 plane airborne assault preceded an amphibious assault. It included over 1500 vessels. The lives of so many were lost . By May 8, 1945 we were celebrating VE day. It seems so far away but it remains near to those who witnessed the tragedy and viciousness of war. Never forget the price of freedom is NEVER free!
May your week be blessed and your days be peaceful. Pray for us as we pray for you!
Fr. Krizner, Gracie, Annie, Cotton & us

Daughters of St. Colette

Nearly 15 years ago Ruth Landreth began the DOSC. It was an idea that was born of a spiritual/social gathering of women to enjoy the company of one another and to serve the Church as vibrant witnesses of love and devotion. Since that time the Daughters have branched out into various ministries and has become one of the cornerstones of the parish.

It is opened to any age group. It is a multi-talented group with various activities that encompass a whole range of directions.

They bring to the parish community an exciting and vital dimension!

The spirituality of the Daughters reflects the spirit of St. Colette in doing good always in the Name of the Lord.

Consider joining the Daughters of St. Colette ~ they are a solid gathering of faith-filled women who love the Lord and His Church and the parish honoring St. Colette!

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Germaine Cousin | June 15

Saint Germaine was born in Pibrac, France in 1579 to poor parents. Her story is a heart wrenching one. She was born with a deformed right arm and hand, and her mother died when she was an infant. Her father remarried, but her stepmother brutally abused and neglected her.

As a child Germaine suffered from scrofula, a disfiguring form of tuberculosis which causes swelling and lesions on the side of the neck. Already sick, abused, and starving, she was forced to sleep in barn with sheep she tended.

Despite everything, Germaine lived each day tending her flock with joy and in prayer. Mary and Jesus became her friends. She shared what little she had and taught the children of the village about God's love. A rosary made of string knots was her constant companion. She attended Mass every day, leaving her sheep in care of guardian angels. Her flock was never attacked by wolves and never wandered. Some claimed to see the waters of the flooded river part so she could get to Mass.

She is often portrayed with an apron full of flowers because one winter day her stepmother accused her of stealing bread from the house and hiding it her apron. But when she was seized and forced to open the apron an abundance of spring flowers tumbled forth. It was this incident that compelled the villagers and even her parents to recognize her holiness.

Germaine died at 22, her poor body was found by her father, in the barn where she slept. She was buried in the village church. More than forty years later, her body was accidentally exhumed and found to be incorrupt. She was canonized by Pope Pius IX in 1867 and inscribed into the canon of virgins. ©LPi

ONE GOD in THREE PERSONS!

The story goes as follows: the Legend...

“While Augustine was working on his book On the Trinity, he was walking by the seaside one day, meditating on the difficult problem of how God could be three Persons at once. He came upon a little child. The child had dug a little hole in the sand, and with a small spoon or seashell was scooping water from the sea into the small hole. Augustine watched him for a while and finally asked the child what he was doing. The child answered that he would scoop all the water from the sea and pour it into the little hole in the sand. ‘What?’ Augustine said. ‘That is impossible. Obviously, the sea is too large and the hole too small.’ ‘Indeed,’ said the child, ‘but I will sooner draw all the water from the sea and empty it into this hole than you will succeed in penetrating the mystery of the Holy Trinity with your limited understanding.’ Augustine turned away in amazement and when he looked back the child had disappeared.”

ANNUAL GLOBAL ROSARY RELAY

In 2002, Pope St. John Paul II declared the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus as an annual occasion for the Universal Church to pray for the Sanctification of Priests.

The Annual Global Rosary Relay for the Sanctification of Priests will again take place on June 24, 2022, the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Each of the participating prayer location countries prays a particular mystery of the Rosary at a specific allocated time on the day in thanksgiving to God for our priests and to implore the protection and loving care of Our Lady, Mother of all priests, for all her priestly sons. With the coming of midnight on June 24, 2022, the entire world will by then have been encircled yet again in prayer on this The Worldpriest Annual Rosary Relay Day.
