

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

June 6, 2021

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

As our world faces so much turmoil and change, it is now more important than ever to remember who God is, who we are and where we are going. It is easy to get distracted and lose focus, especially when we are being pulled in so many directions. We can not only lose sight of God but one another. Maintaining our well developed and mature relationships with God and one another is essential to continuing to live, healthy, happy, and focused lives. In a message to young people, Pope Benedict XVI said, “the happiness you are seeking, the happiness you have a right to enjoy has a name and a face: it is Jesus of Nazareth, hidden in the Eucharist.” What is true for those who are younger is even truer for those who are older. Regardless of how the particulars of life change over time, human beings are still hard-wired to seek the fullness of life and happiness. How we embark on this journey and what we choose along the way will indicate whether we meet success.

There is so much brokenness and pain in our world. Many people are lost, feeling lonely, anxious, marginalized, victimized, isolated, oppressed, and abused. Every time we receive the Body of Christ, we have an opportunity to become what we eat. The power and presence of Christ in the Eucharist becomes present in us and effects change in ourselves and in the lives of those we meet. We are given the grace to become temples of justice and peace, carrying God’s sacred Presence within us wherever we go. Our faith community is ignited with the fire of God’s love and stands out as a beacon of hope in a world that is lost. This is the only way we can discover peace-filled resolutions to violence and create innovative solutions to what is fueling its need in the first place. True happiness, for the young and old alike, becomes an obtainable goal.

St. John Maria Vianney says it so well. “There is nothing so great as the Eucharist. If God had something more precious, he would have given it to us.” Only the Eucharist has the ability to connect, sustain, strengthen, and properly orient us, not only on the road of this life but the road to life eternal. Knowing this, when life gets challenging, unsettling, and difficult, we can rely on and cling to this gift we have in the Real Presence of Christ. This actual encounter with God celebrates God’s unconditional love for us and grounds us to the truth of who we are in a way nothing else is able to do. Because through the Eucharist we really do become the Body of Christ, we are also bonded together in a most perfect way to one another as that Body. Nourished, united, and strengthened by the Eucharist, let us individually and collectively, bring this wonderful gift to all we meet, especially the poor with whom we have a special connection.

The Lily

Last weekend was somewhat difficult. On Friday, May 28, after trying everything to provide Lily with a healthy life I had to have her make her final visit to the Hinckley Animal Hospital. - I remember 13 years ago on Holy Saturday, here at St. Colette, when Shadow, my dog from Holy Name HS, took her last breath the Lily came to me remarkably the next day. It was on Easter Sunday! -thus the name Lily! She was 5 months old and had already demonstrated a 'regal' attitude, There is no doubt about it that she was in charge—of even me!

Gracie followed about two years later and they were actually sisters. (Annie comes from a different breeder and family!)

We had done everything possible for Lily and it was becoming more and more obvious that her time was to be limited. (So yes, Annie was in the early plans)

Lily was a great dog and loved being here at the parish. In her earlier years she anticipated weekends and seeing all of you! Her very last action here was on Thursday evening— as the Perpetual Help Ministry was praying all 3 dogs ventured into their meeting where they gather around the Tabernacle with Eucharist. Lily made the trip to the Tabernacle in her wheel cart. I think it might have been providential!

It is very difficult to lose a friend and companion but we take solace in the fact that we gave them a good life (unlike so many abused or abandoned dogs). Lily had a great life and a parish full of friends. I take sincere comfort in that! Thank you for welcoming her to St. Colette!

Somehow, someday, God must have a place for the pets who loved us as we loved them! After all, "Love never ends!" - Fr. Krizner

A PERSONAL NOTE OF GRATITUDE

I want to thank my office staff and maintenance staff who took such good care of Lily especially while she was in her wheel chair cart. There is a particular ministry that calls for an understanding and compassionate heart for all of God's creatures. My Staff are, indeed, ministers of an amazing sort. It was Kathy Plumb, our office secretary who stayed with Lily till the end. I am forever grateful to her and to all who took time to notice the 'parish dogs' and spend a moment or two with them.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: Why are some saints honored as "patron saints"?

Answer:

Each person is unique and each of us has different gifts, interests, talents, and, yes, even struggles and areas where we need to grow. This is no less true of those holy women, men, and children who have been canonized or beatified.

Because we believe that the saints and blessed are both models of faith and intercessors, Christians have looked to certain holy people as role models and heavenly protectors for occupations, spiritual charisms, and even places. Although the Church sometimes names a person as a patron saint (e.g. Saint Philip Neri as the patron of Rome, Saint Clare of Assisi as the patroness of television, or Saint Aloysius Gonzaga as the patron of youth and young adults), more often it is popular devotion that inspires lay Christians to turn to a particular saint or blessed for heavenly help and support. This is how, for example, Saint Cecilia came to be honored as the patroness of musicians, Saint Toribio Romo as patron of migrants coming into the United States, and Saint Gertrude of Nivelles as patroness of cat lovers. Although there are official and unofficial lists of patron saints, we should always feel free to ask any and all the saints to give us their patronage and protection in whatever it is that we need.©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

As we gather today to reaffirm our faith in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, we are reminded that we are also the Body of Christ. The mission of the Gospel calls us to be Christ for others. There is so much brokenness and pain in our world. Many people are lost and feeling lonely, marginalized and oppressed, victimized and abused. Every time we receive the Body (and Blood) of Christ, we are asked to become what we eat. Are we willing to step aside from our preoccupations and concerns so that we can be Christ for others? The power and presence of Christ in the Eucharist becomes present in us. In receiving this transforming presence of Christ, we can truly effect change in the lives of those we meet. We can show them God's unconditional, ever-present love and the beauty that can come from loving others. We are given the grace to become temples of justice and peace, carrying God's sacred Presence within us wherever we go.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE
GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
We Can Prepare the Upper Room

We all know that person, don't we? Hey, maybe we've even been that person.

"I have a great relationship with God, but I don't go to church regularly. God and I are on good terms. I can talk to Him just fine on my own."

There isn't anything false in these statements. It's important to have an intimate, even conversational prayer relationship with God. But the problem with this attitude is that it implies that churches don't matter. Community worship doesn't matter. Today, we are reminded exactly why that is so untrue. Why we need our parishes, our priests, and each other.

The Body and Blood of Christ — that's what it's all about. If it's not about that, it's not about anything. If we don't have the Eucharist, we're just like the ancient priests, making sacrifices that don't have the power to redeem anybody.

Where do we receive the Body and Blood of Christ? For most of us, it's in our parishes. The altar of sacrifice is also the table we gather in front of, as a family, to become one with Christ in the truest and realest way possible, recreating the scene in the Upper Room over and over again every time Mass is celebrated.

The disciples were commissioned by Christ to prepare the Upper Room for the Last Supper. How can we take up that work ourselves? How can we strengthen the bonds in our spiritual family? How can we serve our parish, always remembering that the table is not meant to be set only for two?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

In Remembrance of Fr. Ron

This coming Friday we will celebrate Vespers with Bishop Malesic at 3 pm here in the Church, Visitation will be in the Church beginning at 2 pm and will continue after Vespers until 7 p.m.

The Funeral Mass of Resurrection will be celebrated with Bishop Amos on Saturday at 11 a.m. also here at St. Colette.

You are welcomed to join us at both Vespers and the Mass and to make a visitation at the hours allotted.

Again, Fr. Ron found a 'home with us' during his retirement here at St. Colette and always expressed his happiness in being here and gratitude for your prayerful support.

We will miss his 'insightful and kind' homilies and his priestly presence—but we celebrate him as a good and faithful servant of the Lord and a priest of the Diocese of Cleveland. To Tim and his entire family- Peace.

Live in the Light of Christ!

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (1324-1327), states that, "The Eucharist is "the source and summit" of the Christian life. The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it. For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself, our Pasch.

Dear Parish Family,

The beautiful Feast and Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ! "This is the bread which comes down from heaven, that a man may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread which came down from heaven; if any one eats of this bread, he will live for ever; and the bread which I shall give for the life of the world is my flesh." John 6 50-51

How wonderful the mystery! How splendid the Mystery—that we might receive the very Lamb of God—our Redeemer, Savior and Friend. No wonder it is called the Bread of Angels!

Thank you to all who joined us on Memorial Day for Mass. Special thanks to the Music Ministers and to Sara for the wonderful, moving music. Thanks to Vince for live-streaming and to AJ and Owen for lowering the flag behind the altar. It was a great way to begin a holiday—solemn, meaningful, and holy! The Mass and message is still available on-line through YouTube, if you ever need a patriotic boost. The collection for Tunnel to Towers Foundation came to $330.00. Thank you it will go to disabled vets and their families.

This is Rummage Sale Weekend! Thank you to Dusty and the entire Crew for preparing, working, and celebrating one of our favorite activities. And thank you for shopping~ hoping you'll find a treasure.

As we come into the month of June we will continue to 'open' the parish. Holy Water is back! A reminder from the Diocese that masks are suggested for those who are not vaccinated or at risk.

I pray your days of warmth and sunshine bring a renewal of grace and peace as the Presence of God 'renews the earth'.

Blessings always~

Fr. Krizner, Gracie, Annie, Cotton & company!
