

LAETARE SUNDAY

LAETARE SUNDAY

“The fourth, or middle, Sunday of Lent, so called from the first words of the Introit at Mass, "Laetare Jerusalem" — "Rejoice, O Jerusalem". During the first six or seven centuries the season of Lent commenced on the Sunday following Quinquagesima, and thus comprised only thirty-six fasting days. To these were afterwards added the four days preceding the first Sunday, in order to make up the forty days' fast, and one of the earliest liturgical notices of these extra days occurs in the special Gospels assigned to them in a Toulon manuscript of 714. Strictly speaking, the Thursday before Laetare Sunday is the middle day of Lent, and it was at one time observed as such, but afterwards the special signs of joy permitted on this day, intended to encourage the faithful in their course through the season of penance, were transferred to the Sunday following.”

Rejoice!

According to the Old Farmer's Almanac, the spring equinox in 2021 falls on Saturday, March 20 at 5:37 a.m. This will mark the astronomical first day of spring in the Northern Hemisphere.

Some Interesting Facts-

Easter is traditionally celebrated on the first Sunday following the full moon — officially called "Paschal Full Moon" — that lands on or just after the spring equinox (March 20). This year, the first full moon after the spring equinox won't happen until Sunday, March 28, which means Easter falls on the following Sunday, April 4. According to the Bible, Jesus Christ's death and resurrection took place during the Jewish Passover, which typically falls in March or April. Commonly recognized as the festival of freedom, Passover begins at sundown on March 27, 2021 and ends on the evening of April 4, 2021. This year Holy Thursday will fall during the Jewish Passover. Lent will end on Holy Thursday at sundown as the Mass of the Last Supper ushers in the Sacred Triduum—the three days of Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and the Easter Vigil of Celebration, Light and Life at the Easter Vigil!

EASTER BASKET BLESSING!

A wonderful and beautiful Eastern European custom is to have a basket blessed on Holy Saturday. These are the foods that will be shared at the Easter Feast! Below is a copy of the traditional foods but you are certainly free to add whatever you like

Don't forget the jelly beans and a nice bottle of wine!

Filling the Basket for the Holy Saturday Blessing—

A typical Eastern European Easter basket would include any of these symbolic foods.

- Bacon--boczek/słonina (BOH-chek/swoh-NEE-nah). A symbol of the abundance of God's mercy. (Easter Ham) Bread--chleb (hlehb). Usually a braided chałka, representing the staff of life given by God.
- Easter bread--babka (BAHB-kah). A round loaf of rich, eggy, yeast dough with raisins reminiscent of the risen Lord.
- Butter--masło (MAHS-woh). Dairy products are included to celebrate the end of Lent and the richness of our salvation. Butter is often shaped into a lamb (symbolic of the Paschal Lamb) and known as a baranek.
- Candle--swieca (SHVIEH-tsa). The candle symbolizes Jesus, the "light of the world," and can be lit when the priest blesses the baskets of food.
- Cheese--ser (SEHRR). Cheese is a symbol to remind Christians of moderation.
Colored eggs--pisanki (pee-SAHN-kee). Both colored and uncolored hard-cooked eggs indicate hope, new life and Christ rising from his tomb.

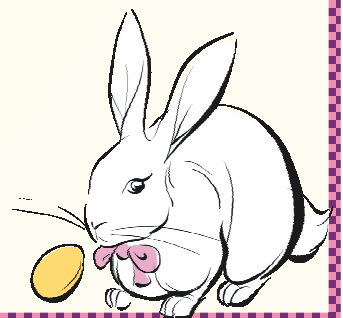

Add some of your Easter Ham or Kielbasa along with whatever delights you use to celebrate Easter! Some people add a small container of salt, some add Chocolate Easter Bunnies and peeps. (and something for the pets)

CREATE YOUR OWN FAMILY TRADITION!

ENJOY!

THIS TAKES PLACE ON HOLY SATURDAY MORNING at 11 A.M. in the Church.

just come as you are this is not a Liturgy— it's a blessing!

Dear Parish Family,

We are mid-way through Lent. It moves quickly—especially because of the weather changes and the turning of the Seasons. Included in this bulletin are the items used in the traditional basket blessing for Holy Saturday. Something to think on if you plan to join in this beautiful tradition. Also I remind you that when we arrive at Holy Week we will celebrate a Tenebrae Service—the very moving service of ‘darkness’ which ushers in the solemnity of Good Friday and Holy Saturday. Plan now to join us for the days of Holy Week beginning with Palm Sunday on March 28. The Church offers us this remembrance to hold sacred the passion and death of Jesus and invites us to celebrate the ultimate victory—the Resurrection of Jesus! Please clear your calendars for Holy Week....bring your children and young people that they too might experience the beautiful liturgies and traditions of Holy Week.

We are working on the seating problem for weekend Masses. As we await the orders from the Governor we still must observe the separation of pews etc. This is making it difficult as so many people have gotten the vaccine and many of us are feeling a bit more safe. We will figure it out! (I have received the vaccine and am grateful for it!)

If you are wondering about Endeavor be assured it is still a work in progress. As you can imagine building supplies have sky-rocketed and are difficult to get. Jeanette Webster continues to work hard at finalizing plans and gaining final approvals from the Diocese. Thank you for being patient. Thank you for your continuing support. We will get there and we will keep you apprised of our progress.

Thank you for all that you do—thank you for patronizing our Fish Fry—it has been a great success. I pray that your Lent continues to be holy. Remember the needs that are brought to our parish daily....especially for those who are ill. REJOICE! Easter grows near! Fr. Krizner, The Lily, Gracie, and Cotton!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God's messengers always seem to get mocked. They speak a truth that some folks do not want to hear. While on the one hand we admire them, we also are quite happy keeping them at a distance. After all, they are not referring to me but someone else, aren't they? We often wrongly conclude that because we may be more avant-garde, contemporary, politically sensitive, and untraditional, we are somehow more in the light than others. People tend to prefer darkness more than light, even the most spiritually sensitive among us. The light always carries with it the richness of God's mercy and compassion which see beyond ideologies and concepts to relationships that cultivate life, earthly and eternal. Every hand of compassion and mercy extended to a human being must always point back to God. The call always involves ordering our lives in accord with our truth and essence of being. As God never forgets us, we must never forget God. Now is the time to take stock of our infidelity and return to the light, even though it is difficult to look at.

Rejoice O Jerusalem!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Awake, O Sleeper!

This morning came a little earlier than I would have liked — Daylight Savings Time always does. Sometimes that morning sunlight seems more intrusive than illuminating. You're still half-lost in sleep, and that sun is demanding of you a lot more than you're ready to give.

I've said it, and I'm sure you've said it, too. "Just five more minutes." You hit the "snooze" button on your iPhone once (maybe twice? Show of hands?) and turn away from the window.

So many kings of the Old Testament were steadfast in their sleepy ways, rejecting the light their God tried to share with them. Likewise, John tells us that, though Light — Christ — was sent into the world, the world preferred darkness.

Sometimes it seems, when reading through Scripture, that all throughout salvation history, God has been trying to pull back the curtains, to rouse us from our defiant slumber. And we resist Him. Time and time again, we resist Him.

Light brings a certain responsibility with it. It seems to compel productivity. Furthermore, there's no hiding in the light. Any photographer worth his salt knows how to manipulate it, highlighting the good and casting some merciful shade on the bad.

As we enter into the fourth week of Lent, we're getting so close to the main event. Can we handle the light that will come on Easter morning, bursting into the tomb as the stone is rolled away? Can we keep ourselves from hitting the "snooze" button on our souls, and sit up to face the dawn of a new day?
