GOSPEL MEDITATION

March 27, 2022

4th Sunday of Lent

God's love story reveals itself in our stories, experiences, and aspirations. We are all prodigal sons and daughters. There are many times in our lives when we would "sell our souls" in order to pursue our passions. We pursued what we wanted without regard for others or God. We have sowed our oats, thrown ourselves into careless pleasures, spent what we know we ought to have saved, turned our backs on those we love and abused gifts we have been given. We even hit bottom and realized the silliness and self-destruction of it all. We needed to come home. We knew we erred and needed a gentle presence to show us God's unconditional love. This wayward journey home changed us.

As much as we need to be welcomed, we are also the one who needs to do the welcoming and mercy giving. Those we love need our guidance, but they don't always take it. We know that what they are doing is off the mark, self-destructive and wrong. We have to let them go and let it happen, even though they might get hurt. As we wait and hope, they choose to make their way back to us. They don't need us to judge them. They have done enough of that to themselves. We immediately embrace them and are just happy they're home. God uses us to help heal them. Knowing how much we craved understanding and forgiveness ourselves, we can now freely give it away. God uses what he has taught us to teach others.

We are also the entitled ones. At least we "think" we are entitled. After all, we work hard for what we have. We cannot get our heads around the idea that someone can get something that I really deserve! If I do what I'm supposed to do, I ought to be rewarded for that, right? If I do something wrong, I ought to pay the consequences. This is justice, isn't it? This is not God's justice. God is all about love, mercy, compassion, and forgiveness. God's justice is love freely given without merit. We carry the stories of the prodigal son, the unconditional forgiving father, and the entitled angry brother with us. When we make friends with all three, humbly telling those stories to others makes us Christ's ambassadors.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Face on God's Brochure

When a church is raising funds for a new building or a diocese is launching a stewardship appeal, there is usually someone — or several someone's — who serves as the face of the campaign. Maybe it's a married couple, or a family, or a group of folks who have been particularly active in the community and can speak to the worthiness of whatever endeavor is being undertaken.

Oftentimes, for better or worse, we fill that role for God. We are the face on the front of His promotional brochure. If we call ourselves Christians, that means that people will meet Christ through us. That's what being an Everyday Steward is — a steward, everyday; someone who conducts his Master's business when the Master is not seen.

It can be intimidating because we have so much baggage and no capabilities of our own. But then we remember that we are offered reconciliation through Christ — that “the old things have passed away, (and) new things have come” (2 Corinthians 5:17). We remember that we are the prodigal sons, and the fattened calf has been slaughtered on our behalf.

But it's a role that requires commitment. The story of the prodigal son is only compelling and only means something because the son, presumably, embraced his reconciliation to his father. He didn't go on to abandon him again.

So let us think to ourselves each day, “Whoever I encounter will meet Christ's ambassador. I was dead and have come to life again. How can I speak to the worthiness of that reconciliation? How can I make others desire it?”

“Let no one mourn that he has fallen again and again; for forgiveness has risen from the grave.”

--St. John Chrysostom

May the Immaculate Heart of Mary, filled with love and compassion, be for our world a refuge of peace, a source of His grace, and a place of comfort for a world suffering from the ravages of war and sin.

Mother of our Lord Jesus Christ, hear our prayer and in your love grace us with the Peaceful Presence of your SON. Amen

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Vicar General and Chancellor

Question:

I have seen the title of Vicar General and Chancellor used in our Catholic newspaper. Who are they and what do they do?

Answer:

A bishop is in charge of a diocese and appoints people to help with its administration. Two of those positions are the Vicar General and the Chancellor. Both play a role in the life of a diocese, despite the many jokes priests may tell at their expense! A chancellor is the archivist of a diocese, charged with task of keeping the records of the diocese. Often a bishop may add other responsibilities and the chancellor may end up being like the executive director of the diocesan office. The chancellor does not need to be a priest.

The vicar general is a priest, appointed by the bishop and acts in the name of the bishop in administering the diocese. He has an advanced degree in canon law or theology. He also has executive authority within the diocese. This means that he is involved in the day-to-day pastoral and temporal administration of the diocese. Canon law does not allow a bishop to appoint a relative to the position, nor the priest in charge of the sacrament of penance. In both cases, the purpose of the law is to avoid conflicts of interest.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK
Have you ever given thought to the fact that you are an “ambassador for Christ?” An ambassador is an accredited diplomat and official representative. We are asked to be ambassadors for Christ and his message of reconciliation. Within each one of us is a prodigal son who realizes the need to return home, an elder brother who struggles with entitlement and self-pity, and a forgiving father who simply wants to celebrate love. Realizing that all of these things are operative in our hearts, we can bring credibility to God’s ministry of reconciliation. Genuine witnesses are those who not only recognize their need for wholeness, mercy, and forgiveness but also their tendency to be over self-focused and stubborn. Then, discovering freedom from all that binds them, they can then extend the love they have received to others. These ambassadors embody unity, mercy, and reconciliation and can look on others with deep compassion because they know what it is to walk in their shoes. Can God count on you to deliver this message? ©LPi

Thank You!

Gratitude for your birthday wishes, prayers and greetings. Thanks also for joining in with the cake & coffee. Thanks to the Staff for the surprise and to the Women who took the time to serve in the Atrium.

I am truly grateful.!

We delivered over 15,000 rosaries that were donated by American people from around the world, along with another food donation of 150,000 pounds. Dear Parish Family,

It is time to say thank you again for the many who have helped with the Fish Fry, with Stations of the Cross, with the Wednesday Evening get-togethers, the Concert, and the Birthday Party for the old priest. So many hands help this parish to thrive. We'd never do it without you. It's amazing how 'Church' we are! Our identity is in the willingness of so many good people to take part in all that we do. I repeat the motto that Bishop Pilla set, "Together, we are Church". Thank you to all of you for your continued prayers, kindnesses, generosity and faith-witness!

As the tragedy of the Ukraine unfolds before our very eyes and rips at our hearts we are left with the hope of prayer as we place that torn country and the people of Ukraine in the mercy of God. As I reflect on the misery that has been brought about by evil, I can only conclude that this is not God's will. We humans make decisions that, beyond our imagination, can affect the whole world! God's plan is peace— it is among the final gifts that Jesus imparts: 'Peace, I leave you. Not as the world gives. Let not your hearts be troubled nor afraid.' I have felt helpless through these past weeks yet confident in prayer. May the Merciful God look upon our world and shower it with His grace.

As you may have known the consecration of Russia and Ukraine to the Immaculate Heart of Mary by Pope Francis took place during the Celebration of Penance on 25 March in St Peter's Basilica. May the ever-pure Heart of Mary, Mother of Peace, Solace to the afflicted, Comfort of Nations, interceded for the people of Ukraine and the people suffering throughout the world.

As this bulletin is printed early I am expressing sincere gratitude to Lidia Trempe and Dorota Tomszewski for joining us for our Concert for Ukraine. My thanks to Sara & Claudia and the Music Ministry Team for presenting an evening of Grace. It was our intention to do a small part to alleviate some of the suffering that has been brought about for so many people. Truly it is LENT in the Ukraine—may we anticipate Easter together!

ENDEAVOR

It's HAPPENING

You will begin to see the initial phase of construction. With this will come changes to certain parking areas as the general contractor positions construction trailers and equipment behind the church. They will be installing a fence around the construction site that will limit driving around the back of the Church. The side entrances will become our main entrance areas.

As we proceed we will update you with details relating to the building of a retention pond behind the St. Nicholas house (our guest house between Crestview and the Church) for water runoff and other parking issues.

As of today, we are planning on a full construction timeframe running through the summer—barring any material issues relating to supply chain problems.

Thank you again for your understanding, your patience, and the generosity that has made this possible.

~ Ed Pfahl

LAMPSTAND

I grew up in the Lee Rd. Harvard area of Cleveland. My Grandparents, who emigrated from Sicily, lived with us. We were a Sunday go to Mass family. I attended public schools. The Catechism classes once a week at St Henry's church was my only religious influence. My father had a strong faith but he was very private. We never talked about God. So my exposure to religion through my teens and young adult life was a 45-minute mass on Sundays.

I married my wife Karen who had a strong faith but I still did not have any desire to be a part of my religion. It continued to be only Sunday mass, except if there was softball game scheduled. We started a family and Karen insisted we enroll our children in St. Columbkille's catholic school. That was the first thing that started my awareness of my religion. We started participating in school and church functions and attending mass as a family. I got to know Deacon Ed Telepak as our children grew up together. In his own quiet way he made me start to realize how God is working in our lives. The next stepping stone was Fr. Krizner. At St. Columkille Karen became a member of his Youth Ministry group that provided activities and put on renewals for teens. I experienced the difference having God in their lives made to some of these kids.

In the mid 80's, through the urging of a friend, I made a Renewal. That really opened my eyes to another world. I heard lay men, not priests or nuns, witnessing about how God influenced their lives. It made me understand how much I was missing. At St Columkille Karen and I became Eucharistic Ministers, and RCIA, and PreCana team members.

As you can see I am a slow learner when it comes to my religion and I am still learning today. It is never too late. We joined St Colette in 2012 and my awareness and faith have continued to grow thanks to Fr. K.

We, like many other families have had set backs and health issues but they have drawn us closer to our faith, especially to Mary.

I thank God every day for my wife's strong faith and all the good people I have met. Without them I would still be struggling.
