“The washing of the feet and the sacrament of the Eucharist: two expressions of one and the same mystery of love entrusted to the disciples, so that, Jesus says, “as I have done... so also must you do” (Jn 13: 15).

– St. John Paul II

FOLLOWING THE FOOD BLESSING THE EASTER BUNNY WILL BE HERE TO Hand OUT Easter Eggs to the ‘little ones’. This will also happen in the Church. Join us for the Basket blessing & visit!

Please note that the church is at the intent of the Governor and cd standards. While many would like to be rid of the masks we are Not Permitted to make such a decision on our own. Please for the sake of peace and consideration of others continue to use your mask. Hopefully we will soon have new directives.

Through the stark and solemn Liturgy of the Friday we call “Good”, we stand at the Altar of the Cross where heaven is rejoined to earth and earth to heaven, along with the Mother of the Lord. We enter into the moment that forever changed – and still changes – all human History, the great self gift of the Son of God who did for us what we could never do for ourselves by in the words of the ancient Exultet, “trampling on death by death”. We wait at the tomb and witness the Glory of the Resurrection and the beginning of the New Creation.

– Deacon Keith Fournier

RUMMAGE SALE– !
MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND
We are looking for a limited number of volunteers to assist with a Rummage Sale for Memorial day weekend. We’ll give details after Easter—it will be somewhat more limited than what we are use to but nevertheless— a Rummage Sale! Let us know if you are interested.

Thank You for the Birthday wishes, prayers, and kindness. Turning 51 has been rather amazing. OK 61! It’s Lent, OK 72!

Know that I most grateful!
Blessings to You all! Fr. K

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

What an ironic twist of events! Jesus is hailed with palm branches as he comes down a street one minute and faces agonizing suffering and death on a cross the next. Does any of this make any sense? They shouted, “hosanna to our King,” out of one side of their mouths and, “crucify him,” out of the other. At first glance it seems like such hypocrisy. Yet, when we step back there may be more truth to the story than we care to admit. We struggle with Jesus. We hail him in our churches but struggle to figure out what to do with him on our streets. We are fine when we hear pious renderings of his messages and preaching but wince when it gets to the part about changing the way we conduct business and becoming more sensitive to the disadvantaged, poor and marginalized. We invoke God’s name when we want victory and keep silence when it comes to global solidarity. We talk out of both sides of our mouths too, looking only to what works or suits us at the time and leaving the rest. There exists in each one of us a person who hails our King with hosannas and a person who is all too willing to choose Jesus over Barabbas for the cross. Something to think about this Holy Week!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE March 28, 2021 Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Many struggle with Jesus. Some who consider themselves faithful hail him in their churches but still struggle to figure out what to do with him on our streets. The message is somehow more palatable when it echoes pious renderings and sentiments and involves singing hosannas during worship. It becomes a bit trickier when it gets to the part about changing the way we conduct the business of our lives, becoming more sensitive to the disadvantaged, poor, and marginalized, and living as servants of our Loving Creator. Ultimately, it is a struggle between wanting to be God ourselves and letting God be God as God is. That's why it's so easy to become hypocritical. We, like those who hailed Christ as he arrived in Jerusalem and sent Christ to the cross to die, also talk out of both sides of our mouths. We entertain what suits us at the time and walk away from the rest.

Many neglect God's beautiful creation because they prefer what humans have made instead. Progress isn't seen in preserving and enhancing what God has made but replacing it with something we believe is better and more useful. The earth, flowers, and animals are all expendable if they stand in the way of the "more" we want to achieve. We seek to remove as many obstacles and hurdles as possible in search of the easiest, quickest, and most efficient path we can find. We have created drugs and laws that preserve our free choice, even though it may mean setting aside God's vision and example. Why suffer when we can easily be put to rest? Why endure insult or injury when we can retaliate, eliminate or subdue? Why accept life when it is acceptable to choose otherwise? We want to be God and resist accepting the fact that our real Creator has already given us the blueprints for the life we need to live in the Beatitudes and in the example of his Passion. We don't like being stewards and managers and really want the power to do as we wish and desire. We want to create our own way.

Where has the true, effective Christian voice been through all of the wars and violence, prejudice and unjust conquests, abuse of human beings and attempted extinctions of nationalities, the establishments of procedures and protocols that serve only a few and not the many and all of the injustices and exploitations that are a part of our human history? A few courageous prophets have stood up and out throughout all of the comings and goings of our human journey with many receiving the same fate as the Crucified One we hail this week. Some still walk among us as shining stars showing us how it really can be. How would Jesus' journey have ended if he lived life as we do? Unless we encounter the good with the bad, the just with the unjust, the grace with the sin, the glory with the cross, the death with the life we most certainly risk rendering God obsolete. After all, haven't we already convinced ourselves that we can do better?

EASTER BASKET BLESSING!

A wonderful and beautiful Eastern European custom is to have a basket blessed on Holy Saturday. These are the foods that will be shared at the Easter Feast! Below is a copy of the traditional foods but you are certainly free to add whatever you like

Don't forget the jelly beans and a nice bottle of wine!

Filling the Basket for the Holy Saturday Blessing—

A typical Eastern European Easter basket would include any of these symbolic foods.

- Bacon--boczek/słonina (BOH-chek/swoh-NEE-nah).

A symbol of the abundance of God's mercy. (Easter Ham –Kielbasi)

- Bread--chleb (hlehb). Usually a braided chałka, representing the staff of life given by God.
- Easter bread--babka (BAHB-kah). A round loaf of rich, eggy, yeast dough with raisins reminiscent of the risen Lord.
- Butter--masło (MAHS-woh). Dairy products are included to celebrate the end of Lent and the richness of our salvation. Butter is often shaped into a lamb (symbolic of the Paschal Lamb) and known as a baranek.
- Candle--swieca (SHVIEH-tsa). The candle symbolizes Jesus, the "light of the world," and can be lit when the priest blesses the baskets of food.
- Cheese--ser (SEHRR). Cheese is a symbol to remind Christians of moderation.
- Colored eggs--pisanki (pee-SAHN-kee). Both colored and uncolored hard-cooked eggs indicate hope, new life and Christ rising from his tomb.

Add some of your Easter Ham or Kielbasa along with wine & whatever delights you use to celebrate Easter! Some people add a small container of salt, some add Chocolate Easter Bunnies and peeps. (and something for the pets)

A personal note: CREATE YOUR OWN FAMILY TRADITION! I PERSONALLY ADD EGGS WITH THE NAMES OF FAMILY MEMBERS & OTHERS WHO ARE ACTUALLY SPENDING THEIR EASTER RESURRECTION IN HEAVEN. It's a great way of 'remembering' and incorporating them in the festivity of Easter!

Note: THIS TAKES PLACE ON HOLY SATURDAY MORNING at 11 A.M. in the Church. It is followed by a visit from the Easter Bunny!!!

Holy Week is a week for being mindful. We must set loose the baggage of Lent, and not be deterred by the dazzling sunrise of Easter morning beckoning in the distance.

It's okay for us to be excited for Easter. We've waited so long, after all. In my opinion it's one of the best feelings there is: the yearning we have in our hearts for the Resurrection as we embark on Palm Sunday. And in a purely logical sense, many of us have Easter celebrations for which we are preparing, and practical considerations to contend with. It's going to be a busy week, one likely full of happy distractions.

But my friends, we simply must keep our feet on the ground. Let's not "skip" Holy Week. Resist the urge to flip to the last page of the book, to fast-forward to the final scene of the movie. Don't rob yourself of the journey. This week is a blessed opportunity. It is this week that teaches us who we are. In the span of the Triduum, we have the birthday of the priesthood, the institution of the Eucharist, the sacrifice on Calvary and so many other vivid and meaningful scenes.

It may sound strange, to advise someone to savor the moments of Holy Week. There are so many violent and heartrending moments, after all. But this is the valley of tears, remember — we are not in Heaven yet. And here, in our fallen, sin-filled world, it is the heartrending moments that seem to matter the most.

These are the moments that define us as Catholics. Live them. Cherish them. Be present for each one.

A LOT CAN HAPPEN

IN THREE DAYS

Dear Parish Family,
We come to Holy Week recognizing our need for the Risen Christ. In a world so torn by dissent, argument, disagreement and persecution we come as the believers in both the cross and in Resurrection. I hope that you will truly join us throughout this coming week. It was a year ago that we were 'closed' and with this Easter there is a renewal of joy, community, hope and light. Please make every effort to be a part of the Liturgies of Holy Week –especially the Sacred Triduum of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Saturday.

We will follow the continued Covid standards but also welcome those who are returning for the first time in a year. We are a hospitable, warm parish and I know that there are so many who anticipate Easter (above all) but also the sense of Community that we have not been able to share in a year. Please keep the parish in your personal prayers. There is a great deal to prepare and be ready for and your prayers will be more than appreciated. I pray for you every blessing of this Sacred Season—get ready for the Alleluia!

Paschal Blessings—Fr. Krizner & us!

Pope Francis has asked us to support the Pontifical Good Friday collection which helps Christians in the holy land. We stand in solidarity with Catholics in parishes, schools and shrines and caring for refugees in the Holy Land. Thank you for your Good Friday offering.

Pope Francis' prayer to St. Joseph:

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father

Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage, and defend us from every evil. Amen.
