GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

May 16, 2021

Seventh Sunday of Easter ~ ASCENSION OF THE LORD~

God remains where love remains. When a believer realizes without doubt that God is love, it is a powerful moment. Being able to place our resurrection trust in this fundamental truth allows us to experience God's presence in all of our experiences: the good and the bad, positive and negative, life enriching and destructive events we encounter. It is no wonder that St. Paul so accurately tells us that it is love that endures all things and lasts. How can God not endure or ever fade away? Because he is God, Jesus also guarded and protected his disciples as the endearing shepherd who always had their best interest at heart.

If we become too immersed in the world, we lose touch with these deeper realities. We can become so preoccupied with preserving what we have created or think that we need, forgetting that it is not building our city that really matters, but God's. Jesus clearly did not belong to the world and, by virtue of his resurrection, he tries to get us to understand that we do not either. The truth brings us to other worldly, more divine places and takes our eyes off of the concerns that often captivate our fears and storm our senses.

Life can easily erode our faith. Think of your life over the last couple of weeks. What challenged your faith and distracted your divine glance? Even being overly stimulated with technology and social media can erode our sense of confidence and cause us to forget who we really are. We need to distance ourselves from the world in order to experience the joy that Christ offers. The world will never like the word of God. It is too challenging and too perplexing. The world mistakenly believes that it can survive on its own. It is a mistaken judgment that may cost people a lot in the end. It is all so very simple: God remains when we love one another. If in all the business of our lives and all that each day brings, the good and the bad, we follow the call and path of love, we will walk with God. There is nothing to fear and anxiety finds no home.

And it came to pass, whilst He blessed them, He departed from them, and was carried up to heaven. Luke 24, 51.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE
GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

There's No Place Like Home

Where do you get the best night's sleep? For me, it's in my own bed. I don't even really know why. There's something about the texture of the sheets, the groove I've worn in the pillow. The mattress seems to recognize my shape. I've got a job that sees me traveling often and I've stayed in plenty of nice places. But there's just no sleep like the sleep you get at home.

There's a feeling that we have when we're at home. Our bodies seem to recognize it when we walk in the door. There's a relaxation that kicks in, a peace that falls over us. I think that's what Heaven will be like. It won't be pleasure or happiness — those words aren't enough to describe what it feels like to be at home, are they? It's more than that.

If you ever wonder why there is pain in this world, it's because we're not at home.

That's not to say we don't belong here. Through God's mercy, this beautiful world is where we live out our earthly existence, and those existences can be filled with amazing relationships and profound experiences. In fact, we might enjoy our time here so much that we don't want to leave.

But there's a reason this life has so many things that don't make sense: loss, fear, anger, sickness, hatred. It's because we weren't made for this place. For our souls, it's like a never-ending night in a hotel bed.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

When Jesus was physically with his disciples, he guarded and protected them. One of his greatest desires was that they share his joy completely. God's love is the source of all things and their sustenance. As we conduct the normal routines of our lives it is easy to get caught up in the immediacies of this world and lose focus. We become very self and worldly dependent, forgetting that God wishes to guard and protect us. The joy the resurrected Christ can offer cannot be found in this world. It takes a bit of faith to realize that God's will is a constant in our lives and that God desires only the sustenance and goodness of both our bodies and our souls. We need to trust in God's constant and rejuvenating love. This radical resurrection trust allows us to experience the joy of God's presence in all of the good and the bad, positive and negative, life building and life destructive events that we encounter. God remains where love remains.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: What is the meaning of the letters that professed religious have after their names?

Answer:

The Catholic Church includes hundreds of religious communities. The priests, religious brothers, religious sisters, and nuns of these communities (which are often referred to as “religious orders”) are committed to particular spiritual traditions and often to a particular charism (such as teaching, healthcare, social work, or pastoral care).

To help identify a person as a member of a particular religious community, the custom developed of including post-nominal letters that provide a sort of shorthand for the name of the community that the priest, brother, sister or nun is part of. So, for example OSB after a person’s name would indicate that they are a member of the Order of St. Benedict (the Benedictines), just as SJ would indicate that a priest or brother is a member of the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits) or RSM would show that a woman is a Sister of Mercy.

Other common examples include:

DC = Daughters of Charity

FSC = The Brothers of the Christian Schools/
Christian Brothers

OCist = The Order of Cistercians

OCD = Order of Discalced Carmelites

OFM = The Order of Friars Minor (the Franciscans)

OFM Cap = The Capuchin Franciscans

OP = The Order of Preachers (Dominicans)

OSF=Franciscan Sisters

SC = Sisters of Charity

SDS = Society of the Divine Savior (Salvatorian Priests and Brothers and Salvatorian Sisters)

SSND = School Sisters of Notre Dame

SVD = Society of the Divine Word (Divine Word Missionaries)

Queen of Heaven

V. Queen of Heaven, rejoice, alleluia.

R. For He whom you did merit to bear, alleluia.

V. Has risen, as he said, alleluia.

R. Pray for us to God, alleluia.

V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.

R. For the Lord has truly risen, alleluia.

Let us pray. O God, who gave joy to the world through the resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, grant we beseech Thee, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

This is one of four Marian antiphons, with following versicles and prayers, traditionally said or sung after night prayer, immediately before going to sleep. It is said throughout Eastertide. (That is, from Easter Day through Pentecost, the seventh Sunday after Easter.)

We await the gifts of the Holy Spirit and the great Solemnity and Festival of Pentecost!

50 days after Easter the Spirit of God descended upon the apostles and those gathered in the Cenacle—so was born the Church! Prepare for the Feast with a simple prayer that can be recited all throughout the day:

Come Holy Spirit!

May the Spirit enkindle within us the fire of His Love!

Dear Parish Family,

Last weekend I mentioned at the Masses that we have a new ministry, St. Fiacre, Patron of Gardeners. I have included pictures of the wonderful work that has been done on the front of the building by Mr. Laughlin, a parishioner who has taken time out of his Painting Business to clean up the front of the Church.

While there have been many hands involved in various works—and we will eventually cover them all—please take notice of the front area of the garages. Mr. Marunowski has diligently worked on this and has made it once again presentable. All of this started through the good works of Mrs. Ruth Ann Dolan, who has tended our gardens (in secret) not wanting to be thanked. The Spring garden off the Atrium is her handiwork! We have so many people doing so many good things for the parish! I know that the Daughters have been tending to the Shrine under the guidance of Chris May! As soon as school is out for the year our Maintenance Crew will be out in full force.

Thanks to Dusty and the HN crew for HOT DOG SUNDAY! Thanks so Much! Next weekend we will share in birthday cake as we celebrate PENTECOST and the birthday of the Church! It is a tradition that I brought with me from HN ~ last year we were not able to share in the festivity! We will this year!

We have not forgotten about Project Endeavor—Jeanette Webster & Ed Phal are working on it endlessly. COVID truly hurt us a great deal but we are not without Hope! Thank you for kindly continuing your generosity toward that endeavor!

Remember in your prayers those who have asked us to bring them to the Father—we remember the continuing needs of Fr. Ron. Blessings on your week!

COME HOLY SPIRIT!

After 10 & 11:45 masses. Outside the Atrium doors. CDC guidelines will be followed. Masks and Social Distancing.

I will be with you till the end of time!

SEASON'S OF HOPE (A prayerful support group for the Bereaved)

Seasons of Hope is an opportunity for those who are mourning to come together to share in God's love. With the support of the faith community, we can give voice to our unique journeys of grief and find healing and spiritual growth. Seasons of Hope sessions help us explore mourning through scripture, prayer, reflection activities and faith sharing. We will meet for seven weeks beginning May 25th at 7pm. We will plan on meeting outdoors at the shrine, weather permitting. To register or if you should have questions please call Lisa at the parish office.

Baptism Class

The next Baptism Class will be held Sunday, May 30, 2021 after the 11:45am mass at St. Colette.

Diocesan policy requires attendance at a Baptism Class for parents who are planning to present their first child for the Sacrament of Baptism.

To register, call the Parish Office at (330) 273-5500.

The Daughters of St. Colette

Please join us for the Rosary followed by an informative talk by Sister Rosanna Mellert SND, on Saturday, May 22nd at 12:00 outside the church atrium. Sister Rosanna served as a missionary in Nicaragua for 10 years and she has recently returned from Laredo, Texas where she witnessed activities at the border while giving assistance to refugees.

Please bring a chair and place it on the atrium driveway (not on the grass).

Everyone is welcome to attend!

"Come as a stranger, leave as a friend."
