GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

May 1, 2022

3rd Sunday of Easter

Could it be that God's image has become so soiled and distorted that it is hard for us to see it? Our self-serving agendas have done a great job twisting God's image into what profits us. We want our agenda to be God's agenda and use prayer as the convincing leverage we need. Worse still, our success and egocentric agenda often erases God's image completely, replacing it with our own. St. Oscar Romero instructs us that the Son of Man "dies on the cross to cleanse God's image, which is soiled in today's humanity, a humanity so enslaved, so selfish, so sinful." Striving to preserve control of our destinies at all costs, we fail to see the risen suffering servant, the Christ, standing right beside us.

Jesus, who suffered and died on a cross and was raised from the dead, corrects our soiled image of God. He shows us God as God is, not who we want to make God to be. God is the God of the poor, the weak, and the marginalized. He is the God who tenderly caresses us when we are suffering and hurting, assuring us that all will be safe and well. He is the God of equity, peace, justice, and compassion who wants happiness for each of His children, desiring their wellbeing and success. God goes where men and women are afraid to go, sitting with the lost, the broken, and the sorrowing. St. Oscar Romero challenges us to illuminate with "Christ's light ... even the most hideous caverns of the human person: torture, jail, plunder, want, chronic illness. The oppressed must be saved." The resurrection calls us to be God's microphone, a messenger, and a prophet (St. Oscar Romero).

Using eyes that see beyond the limited constructs and desires of our world, we can see the true and real Jesus standing before us, calling us to transformation and change. Asking us more than once, "do you love me?" We are beckoned to give an answer. Answering in the affirmative, it is now our task to feed the sheep and the lambs who belong to God. In short, equipped with the power of the resurrection and a corrected image of God our task is to make things better, brighter, holier, more life-giving, and just for all of God's children. Considering our choices, our interactions, our philosophies, and aspirations, how can we do this?

Dear Parish Family,

Just a consideration

This is one time that hearts and flowers and candy just won't do. It is the ultimate question and it calls for a well-considered response. The word love is sometimes used too casually and often misused. It goes beyond my imagination to envision Jesus, eye to eye, with Peter, asking 'do you love me?' It is even more challenging to hear those words addressed to me. Our immediate response is 'Yes, Lord, You know that I love You!'.....but we know that there may have been times when our words or actions did not signify that reality. HE is not talking about simple friendship love—as profound as that can be! He is talking about the kind of love that HE has for us...a love that was demonstrated by His entire life.

It is hard to be human and strive for the ideals that have been set before us by Jesus, Himself. It had to be difficult for Peter. After all, who is ready to answer such an unexpected question on the spur of the moment? And if we say 'yes' then are we ready to hear the rest? 'Then feed my sheep and take care of my lambs'. That is a whole-life calling. If doing what He asks is proof of our love for Him then we have an awesome task ahead of us. I love my family— all of my cousins and close relatives. I love my friends —especially those life-long buddies. I love my Church, my parish family, my pets, and friends who I may have lost contact with. I love, in a different way, beautiful days, holidays, a great meal with friends, Pennsylvania and Ohio. I love a lot of things!- and the list goes on.

But He didn't ask for that list. He asked one difficult question:

DO YOU LOVE ME?

then add to my list, 'MY sheep and my lambs'!

Fr. Krizner

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

What prevents us from seeing the Lord? We are not used to seeing Jesus in the ordinary, everyday events of our lives. We expect some kind of startling, extraordinary revelation to occur that definitely and unmistakably sends a signal that God wants our attention. We don't expect a visit from Jesus while we are having breakfast, doing the dishes, running after the kids, negotiating a deal at work, or taking a shower! Sometimes when God simply stands on the shore of our lives casually looking for us, we don't recognize him. Did we ever stop and think that God is really and truly interested in the routine, run of the mill events of our lives? So, "what did you do today?" God may ask. Maybe we don't think that God is concerned about such things, or we are so consumed with life's demands that we give it little if any thought. Perhaps we are determined to achieve our own success, desire to control things ourselves or not really sure what God cares about. God is there. One day, out of the blue, God will get our attention and ask, "Do you love me?"

The Regina Coeli

V. Queen of Heaven, rejoice, alleluia.
R. For He whom you did merit to bear, alleluia.
V. Has risen, as he said, alleluia.
R. Pray for us to God, alleluia.
V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.
R. For the Lord has truly risen, alleluia.

Let us pray. O God, who gave joy to the world through the resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, grant we beseech Thee, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen

(this replaces the Angelus during Easter).

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Gifts in Disguise

Have you ever opened a gift and wondered what the giver was thinking?

I won't call out any of my family or friends here, but suffice to say, I think we have all been the confused recipient of a sweater that wasn't our size or a gift card to a store where we don't shop. But we smiled all the same and said how much it meant to us, because we know that when it comes to gifts, it's all about the gesture.

Suffering is a lot like that — the gift you never asked for, and don't really want to receive. Sometimes we look at suffering and, like the apostles who see Jesus as a stranger on the shore, we don't recognize it for what it can be. We don't appreciate the catalyst suffering can be for change, for growth, for grace.

What was the gift that you received in disguise? Was it a relationship that confounded and frustrated you? Was it a job that tested your spirit? An obstacle that stopped you dead in your tracks? A rejection that threatened to break your spirit?

If I go back and look at the worst gifts I've ever gotten, chances are that I didn't like them because I didn't know what to do with them — they were more fitted for someone else's interests, someone else's life. It's the same with suffering. We're tempted to cast suffering aside when it comes our way because it doesn't fit the person we are. Suffering is made to fit the person God knows we have the ability, with His grace, to become.

Hang onto that suffering. Unlike the misshapen sweater, it really will come in handy.

“My Lord and my God!

Dear Parish Family,

Sorry about last weekend in the heat without the air-conditioner. I failed the Seminary course on air-condition repair.

Congratulation to our Second Graders & others who have prepared for First Communion. What an important day for them and for all of us! I am certain that the entire parish receives a blessing on First Communion Days.

The Holy Name Society and Daughters of St. Colette also deserve a huge thank you for cooking and preparing a great breakfast in a very, very warm hall!

So here we are in the month of Mary! May comes with the blue skies that resemble the mantle and veil of our Blessed Mother. May she intercede for us and for our needs. Remember the days of May altars in our homes? With May will come so many other events—Mother’s Day, Graduations, and a host of other celebrations. What a remarkable way to welcome warmer weather and a preview of Summer.

I hope your week is blessed. As always we remember those who have asked our prayers. Remember too the tragedy that takes place every day in the Ukraine. God have mercy on us and on the whole world.

Alleluia! Jesus, I trust in Thee. Fr K
