

Come Holy Spirit

Pentecost

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

May 23, 2021

Pentecost Sunday

Begin by taking a moment to calm yourself, focus on your breathing and become aware of the life force that flows through your veins. Center yourself in the words and affections of St. Augustine's Prayer to the Holy Spirit, "Breath in me, O Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy. Act in me, O Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy. Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit, that I love but what is holy. Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit, to defend all that is holy. Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit, that I may always be holy." Sanctifying, bringing things to wholeness, blessing, restoring and creating are just some of the fruits of the presence of the Holy Spirit. Being filled with the Holy Spirit is not always about proclaiming loud cries of praise or singing alleluia from a roof top. It is about unfolding and encountering the ordinary in an extraordinary way. Being filled with the Holy Spirit means being filled with the fullness of God's life and in touch with the power and wonder of God's presence. It's about becoming holy.

It is not just for saints or people who have a religious vocation. Holiness is for the ordinary, simple run-of-the-mill person who desires to love God, others, and all of creation. When an ordinary, humble person becomes connected with life and the wondrous power of God's love, they begin to live life more deeply, a bit more reverently, desire a simple fare and find themselves relishing in ordinary beauty. Their senses become attuned to the Author of life and they realize that they are not alone. The Holy Spirit connects all of the dots of human experience and existence, bringing everyone to center on the Divine Presence. The Holy Spirit does not just breathe "on me" but "in me" and is the force behind every breath I take. Take a moment to soak that thought in. There is the Divine Presence of the Holy Spirit in me, right now. When a person becomes in touch with truth, they know that when inspired by the Holy Spirit, his or her actions are not solely their own. They realize that they are moved by Divine Grace and drawn to things not found in secular affairs.

We live in a world where it is hard to discover truth. Real truth is veiled by so many imposters that it is hard to find, especially for those who are young. It is easy to get fooled and duped and often, without full conscious awareness of doing so, we choose to walk down a path of self-absorption and destruction. It is only the Holy Spirit, through the ministry of the church most especially, who guides us to truth and shows us the way to be the graced and holy human beings God made us to be. The wonders and inspirations of today's Feast of Pentecost are necessary to share with both those we love and those who only casually cross our paths. The first disciples, touched by the Holy Spirit, brought the Gospel to the ends of the earth one step at a time. Is it unrealistic to ask that we assist in that same mission by helping people understand who they are and who God is one at a time? Ask the Holy Spirit to alleviate the fear in your heart that prevents you from doing so.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
You Don't Have What It Takes — but You Will

Those of us in ministry love this saying: God doesn't call the equipped. He equips the called.

We all know that sort of queasy feeling we get in the pit of our stomachs when it becomes clear what we're supposed to do, in any situation. It's that feeling of: Oh, no. Not me. Not now. I can't.

We've all got our list of reasons why not, don't we? We do it for everything, from big life problems to small everyday choices. I'm not going to invite my neighbor to church because I don't want to come across as pushy. I'm not going to make amends with my cousin because she'll just walk all over me again. I'm not going to say a Rosary tonight because I'm tired and it'll just stress me out.

However, even if we all put our lists of "reasons why we can't" together, I don't think any of us have reasons quite as valid as the apostles. Their job was to convert the nations — and here they are, a bunch of fishermen who haven't been out of Judea, who speak only their own languages. Were they supposed to preach the Gospel via a particularly compelling game of charades?

But even that big, giant, stop-you-dead-in-your-tracks Reason Why We Can't was nothing, because God had a plan. He didn't call a bunch of equipped men. He called them, and He equipped them. Cue the tongues of fire!

God doesn't call us to do His will because we have what it takes. He calls us because He's ready to give us what it takes. Being a good steward is to answer the call of Christ knowing he will provide.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The phrase "being filled with the Holy Spirit" may summon forth images that are a bit too intense for some folks. They may conclude that when one is filled with the Holy Spirit that they immediately begin speaking in tongues, loudly praise God, sing alleluia from roof tops, and do other demonstrative things. In reality, being filled with the Holy Spirit means being filled with the fullness of God's life and in touch with the power and wonder of God's presence. It is the Holy Spirit that draws us together as a community of faith, inspires us with wisdom and right judgment, and turns us from the darkness of sin to the virtues that bring life. We live in a world where it is hard to discover truth. The Holy Spirit, through the ministry of the church, guides us to truth and shows us the way to be the graced human beings God made us to be. Come, Holy Spirit, and fill our hearts!

COMING SOON!

A Bible study on the Holy Eucharistwith Lisa!
Details coming soon!

THANK YOU AGAIN!

"Thank you & congratulations on reaching your parish goal for the 2021 Catholic Charities Appeal."

Patrick Gareau
President & CEO Catholic Charities

We have placed a candle near the Tabernacle for the intentions of Fr. Ron! Please continue your prayers. May the God of Healing and Hope renew his spirits and be comfort and peace.

 Normalcy! ?

Please read:

We have returned to some semblance of normalcy (PC-pre-COVID). All of the rows are now open— less seating in the atrium but more chairs in the church. We are holding off on holy water until we hear from the Bishop's Office. Please keep in mind since we do not know if you are vaccinated or not we will NOT distribute Eucharist on the tongue— no exceptions!

Communion stations return to normal (PC)! -and the ministers will continue to sanitize their hands before distribution.

As to live-stream: for the time being we will live stream only the 10 a.m. Mass. That too, however, will end sometime in June. With masks removed (it's up to you) we can regain some sense of 'praying together' again: you do not need to YELL through a mask. Stay with the congregation in an ordinary speaking voice.

Confessions will resume at 3 pm till 3:30 on Saturdays beginning June 12. It is so good to be 'gathered together' let's take advantage of the goodness & grace of God! -

Fr. Krizner

Dear Parish Family,
So comes the Day of Pentecost—a festival in solemn remembrance of the coming of the Holy Spirit and the beginning of the Church!

Happy Birthday!

How wonderful it is to see so many of you back in the seats of St. Colette! Needless to say—You were missed! What a year it was— and how better to begin anew than with Pentecost!

Thanks to those who worked the Hot Dog Sunday under the guidance of Dusty! It was an enjoyable success! Thanks to those who have served the Birthday Cake this weekend. ALL of you bring a helping hand to the parish that we could not do without!

Thank You repeatedly! Come Holy Spirit, Come!

St. Fiacre Ministry

Thanks to Mrs. Clemente for caring for the Good Shepherd garden and the side lot off the parking lot. Both look beautiful and welcoming. A definite difference to what was there before. Thank you so much.

Thanks to all who are working to make our property look clean and inviting! You have no idea how much you are helping!

Thanks to those who are tending to the Stations of the Cross. We will include pictures in the coming bulletin. St. Fiacre, patron of Gardeners, caretaker of the earth, pray for us!

THANK YOU!

Annie- (ANNE) comes from the Hebrew meaning ‘grace’/gracious. We’ll see how this little blue-eyed Beardie becomes gracious....

Father Dan Redmond—called by the Eternal Priest, Jesus Christ, to the place prepared for him by the Lord. Fr. Dan was a good and faithful servant of the Lord! When he entered the seminary his family belonged to St. Colette. His parents were very active in the parish and assisted with everything that we did. When Father Dan's mom, Joan, died he returned home to St. Colette to preside over her funeral. His father, Brian & wife Karen continued the Redmond legacy here until they relocated to Medina. The Redmonds left a lasting imprint on the parish and, in a very special way, gave their son to the priesthood of Jesus Christ.

Dan was ordained May 25, 1995 joining his first parish, St. Vincent DePaul. He then went on to serve at St. Albert the Great Catholic Church in North Royalton and St. Monica Catholic Church in Garfield Heights. He served as Pastor at Holy Family Catholic Church in Parma. He joined his last parish, St. Mary Chardon in 2011, serving as their Pastor. Father Dan also served as United States Air Force Chaplain, Second Lieutenant.

In the name of the entire parish we have sent a memorial gift to the Redmonds. Please remember Fr. Dan & his family in your prayers.

Fr. Art Bacher

Many of you will remember Fr. Art Bacher. He served the needs of this parish with Fr. Montavon and remained as a great help when Fr. Krizner arrived. We have been informed that he is presently at Regina Health Center. Please remember him and his needs in your prayers. Fr. Art is a good, gentle, kind, faithful priest. Loved being at St. Colette.

Vacation Bible School A Week of fun spent with JESUS, MARY & JOSEPH

VBS is the week of July 12th-16th from 9am-Noon.

Registration for our friends in PreK through Grade 5 for the 2021-2022 school year will begin the weekend of June 5th and 6th.

Adult and teen volunteers (Grade 6 and up) are still needed to make this event a success! Sign-up at the parish office or give us a call. Volunteer planning meetings are Tues. 6/1, Tues. 6/22, and Tues. 7/6 all at 6pm in the atrium. Contact Sara for more info.

Come Holy Spirit!

The Daughters of St. Colette

We had a beautiful May Crowning ceremony at Wayside Shrine, although it was a cold day. Even the Blessed Virgin statue had a scarf made by Belinda Charbonneau! Kris May prepared the area around the statue and planted new flowers. The fresh flowers that we added to the display were donated by Tom and Diane Hunt in memory of Helen Volk.

Helen's daughter, Irene Vickers, crowned the Blessed Virgin. Thank you to all who participated in making this a uniquely memorable May Crowning!

We will resume saying the Rosary at May 27th at 10:00. Please bring your own chair. All are welcome!

“Come as a stranger, leave as a friend.”

SEASON'S OF HOPE (A prayerful support group for the Bereaved)

Seasons of Hope is an opportunity for those who are mourning to come together to share in God's love. With the support of the faith community, we can give voice to our unique journeys of grief and find healing and spiritual growth. Seasons of Hope sessions help us explore mourning through scripture, prayer, reflection activities and faith sharing. We will meet for seven weeks beginning May 25th at 7pm. We will plan on meeting outdoors at the shrine, weather permitting. To register or if you should have questions please call Lisa at the parish office.

1st Mini Rummage Sale!

Drop off dates: Tuesday, June 1, Wednesday, June 2 & Thursday, June 3 from 9am-2pm

Sale Times: Saturday, June 5th 9am-2pm; after 4pm mass

Sunday, June 6th 9am-2pm

Clean usable items limited to 3 boxes or 3 bags.

Items NOT accepted: Clothes, Jewelry, Shoes, TVs, computers, Christmas Trees, Cribs, Play Pens, Car Seats and Strollers.

NOTE: We will not be able to provide pick up of any items.

Cemetery Pre-Planning Seminar

The Catholic Cemeteries Association invites you to attend a 1-hour pre-planning seminar on Thursday, June 10, 2021 at 7 p.m. in the Atrium at St. Colette Parish, 330 W. 130th Street Brunswick, Ohio 44212. Please join us to learn more about your Catholic burial options, including options for cremated remains. Attendees will receive a personal reference guide and savings certificate. We kindly ask that you RSVP to this event to prepare for the seminar with proper social distancing. Attendees are required to wear a facial covering throughout the seminar. RSVP to the Pre-Planning Department 216-539-7943.
