GOSPEL MEDITATION

May 8, 2022

4th Sunday of Easter

“Human beings, while capable of the worst, are also capable of rising above themselves, choosing again what is good, and making a new start.” (Pope Francis)
We have a difficult time figuring out what is true and best for us. There are many voices talking and so many trying to get our attention. We wrongly convince ourselves that the true voice is the voice of progress, the one that speaks of contemporary wants and desires, enticing us with the latest trends and causes. We are taught, by listening to the voices around us, that truth is found in feelings and thought, and ideals must match current and popular human wants. Because we feel a particular way it must be true. Then, we find a shepherd who empathizes with us and affirms us. We follow that voice even though listening to that voice will render us powerless and lead us to harm. There are many with me in this procession to this pasture. I must be on the right path and listening to the right voice.

We are very confused. What can keep us safe and from harm? Where do we go to find life, love, and happiness? Jesus tells us that he is the way, the truth, and the life. The only way to get to Truth, who is God, is through him. There is no other way. The Church, the gate around God’s pasture of life, is charged with the mission of directing us where God desires that we go. In the midst of all of the conflicting voices around us, the voice of truth is often muffled in all of the noise, but it beckons us to a life of virtue and grace. Helping us understand who we are and where we have to be, it discerns the voice of God, providing us with the safety net we need to stay straight on our path to life eternal.

We have to trust the voice of God, the true Shepherd, even when it does not mirror what we want and what others may believe. Faith goes way beyond feeling and involves a radical trust in Someone who can lead us and form us. At day’s end, if we do not know to find our way home, we will be truly lost.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Reluctant Sheep

Sheep get an awfully bad rap, linguistically. Some are quick to label people as “sheep” if we think they haven’t sufficiently questioned authority or if they’re too willing to go along with someone else’s plan. We say someone has “the wool over their eyes” if they aren’t willing to see what we think is very obvious. “A wolf in sheep’s clothing” is what we call someone looking to take advantage of those too gullible to identify a real threat.

Taking all this into account and considering how often we are referred to as sheep in Scripture, you’ve really got to wonder if God trying to tell us something about ourselves.

If you look at the phraseology associated with sheep, it’s no wonder that nobody wants to be one. Sheep are innocent. Sheep can’t protect themselves. They’re vulnerable and easily misled.

We want to see ourselves as the opposite of all that. We like to think we’re shrewd, with plenty of common sense. We want to believe that we don’t have to rely on anybody for anything. We would sooner identify with the wolf than with the sheep — at least the wolf can take care of himself.

We do this because we often resist the need to rest in the greatness of God. Like a child walking to school alone for the first time (forgetting his mom is following watchfully in the car), we want to think we can handle it all by ourselves.

The truth is that God is trying to tell us something by comparing us to sheep: You don’t have to do this on your own.

Every time I look at an obstacle and think that there is no way around it, I am forgetting that I have a shepherd who knows the location of the gate.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Do we hear and follow? Before we can welcome Jesus as the Good Shepherd, we have to hear his voice. God’s voice breaks into the dialogue of our lives in myriad ways, but we have to be attentive and receptive in order to hear it. It comes through the beauty of creation, the warmth and energy of love, the gift of compassion both received and given, the sacred miracle of life, and the orderly and purposeful design of things and in the truth found in God’s commandments. Once we see the wisdom behind the commandments and teachings God places before us and are attentive to listening for His direction, we can begin to take the necessary steps and follow Him. We are easily misled and there are many convincing “shepherds.” Only one is Good. It is only the Good Shepherd who can lead us away from the evils that can hurt us and bring us to the good. We may not always like where God asks us to go, and it may not be the path others prefer to take. But we have to follow it because we trust that our kind Shepherd will keep us safe.

To our HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES of the class of 2022

We would like to acknowledge your success and bring you the blessings of the Lord as you begin another step in your personal journey. On Sunday, June 5th, we ask that you and your family join us at the 11:45 Mass. We will reserve rows for you and during the Liturgy acknowledge your accomplishments. Following the Mass we will join together for a brunch in the Parish Hall.

PLEASE call the office and share your good news with us and reserve your place for Mass & Brunch.

330 273 5500

Please RSVP by May 30. ALL grads are invited.

Please let us know if you are a '22 Grad!

V. Queen of Heaven, rejoice, alleluia.
R. For He whom you did merit to bear, alleluia.
V. Has risen, as he said, alleluia.
R. Pray for us to God, alleluia.
V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.
R. For the Lord has truly risen, alleluia.

Let us pray. O God, who gave joy to the world through the resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, grant we beseech Thee, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED
Daily Prayer Versus Mass?

Question:

I have a friend who says she doesn't need to attend Mass because she prays to God every day. What are your thoughts on this justification?

Answer:

If the only reason for going to church were to talk to God, your friend might be right. Prayer is not something limited to a physical place or even a holy place. If the sole purpose of the Church were prayer, it would be a narrow purpose indeed. The Church is a community of believers, formed by "one Lord, one faith, one Baptism." It is an outward sign of our faith in God instituted by Christ, and the purpose of the Church is to give us grace, that is, a share in God's life.

Coming to Mass is not really for God's sake, but for ours. If we believe that Jesus is truly present in the holy Eucharist, then we will want to be in his presence. We will want to be fed by him. Our daily prayer and good works are strengthened by our authentic encounter with our Lord. For Catholics, it is at Mass that we celebrate the source and summit of our faith. If this is true, why would we ever stay away?

Dear Parish Family,

Blessings to our First Communicants. Yesterday (Saturday) they received their First Holy Communion. As I have mentioned so many times before this is a day of grace and blessings for the entire Parish. May they know the love of Jesus who has come into their hearts! Once more thanks to the parents and to the teachers and aides who have provided these little ones with guidance in the Faith.

With First Communion behind us we joyfully anticipate Confirmation which will be held on June 2, 2022 with Bishop Roger, OSB. Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Your faithful and enkindle within us the fire of Your Love!

While we are still in Eastertide we have also come to the month of Mary. We pray to her for her intercession before our Lord Jesus. May She look upon our shattered world and bring us the peace which we implore of Her Son. Our Lady of Peace, pray for us. Mother of God, pray for us. With the news from Europe we need to pray for the mothers in the Ukraine who have suffered greatly at the evil that has over-taken their lives. Remember them and their children today in a prayer.

You will have noticed in this bulletin an invitation to all of our high-school graduates. It is an invite to celebrate with us their accomplishments. If you or your daughter or son is graduating in '22 please join us. RSVP is necessary for the brunch that will follow Mass. (Sunday, June 5, @ 11:45 Mass)

Please note that on May 11 the priests of the Diocese are meeting with the Bishop for a special Convocation. There will be no Mass here at the parish that day.

I pray your week is touched with blessings and peace. Once more a very Happy Mother's Day with hearts full of gratitude for all that our Moms do. Thanks to the Grandmas, God mothers, and the women who have instructed us in the ways of Faith. Your vocation is a blessing to all of us.~ and to our Moms in heaven, with Love we ask your prayers! Yours is a Happy Day!
