

Our Lord, Jesus Christ,
King of the Universe,
King of My Heart

My dear friends in Christ,

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King, the final week of the liturgical year. Next week we begin a new liturgical season with the First Sunday of Advent. We, as a parish, are in a time of transition as well. We turn to Christ the King, the King of hearts, to guide and direct us through this blessed time. It is a graced time for all of us as the Lord is guiding us through every step of the way. A new liturgical calendar year opens such incredible possibilities for all of us.

Let us look forward in great hope at what God can accomplish with and through us and our parish in the year to come. Thank you for your kindness and warm welcome to the parish.

The "King of Hearts" has been present through you and this grace-filled parish. As we prepare for Advent, let the King of Hearts find a place in your heart leading you to a closer friendship with Him and a profound celebration of Christmas. God bless and keep you.

Fr. Tim

Prayer for Christ the King

Dear Lord,
May your name be praised and blessed forever,
you who are our shield and comfort!
May your kingdom come!
Amen.
©LPi

Welcome, Fr. Tim!

Join us today for cake,
coffee and fellowship to greet our new pastor! Thank you Beth Becherer, her team, and Lisa Radey
for providing a warm, welcoming experience!

It

's easy to get lost in the poetic feel of today's Gospel... when I was hungry you fed me, sick, you cared for me, in prison, you visited me and so forth... Come, inherit the kingdom. Or, "you didn't do those things... eternal punishment for you." Grasping this concept refreshes the events of Holy Week—the Good Friday to Easter Sunday... and brings it all full-circle... how much are we willing to sacrifice for the sake of the kingdom? What are we willing to give, to do, to be that takes us out of ourselves, our own comfort, to extend that hand, go that mile, carry that cross. The movie The Passion of the Christ beautifully depicts the imagery of Jesus kissing his cross as he's handed it by his torturers to carry to his death... he kisses it, He loves the hurt because It means salvation, loves the discomfort because it will bring others peace, loves the long dusty road to Calvary because it leads to Easter Sunday morning. The Feast of Christ the King is a call to love the suffering as Jesus did. Whatever it is in our lives: the inconveniences, the care for loved ones, the pain of loss and loneliness,, or rejection.. That Christ be the King of our hearts and fill all of those "holes" in our lives with his purpose, his love, his companionship—the faithful lover who will never leave us. When we see Christ in all we do, and all we meet, we die to the things that pass away, and live for the one who died to love us. And that my friend, is not just good poetry...

it's everything. May Christ reign King of our hearts each and every day. Happy end of the church year! And here's to resurrection and new life in the church year ahead!

~Sara

"Prayer for Peace in the Holy Land"

from Caritas and Catholic Relief Services

God of our longing,
Remember those who wait and hope for peace. Hear our prayer and our lament for our brothers and sisters in Israel and Palestine. With them, we share a common story, set in a common homeland.

Make common also a will to forgive

to reconcile, to make a just peace for the sake of the ancestors,

for the sake of the children.
Open ears, eyes and hearts

And make a way toward justice

In our war-torn world.

God all merciful, you dwell in our human hearts
And the holy Land is wherever you make your home.

Heal these broken pieces where prophets preached

Where Moses and Jesus and Muhammad kept faith with you.

Be a sure support for those who work toward reconciliation

And make us all, however far away
Steadfast in their cause.

Amen

Let the King of my heart be the mountain where I run, the fountain I drink from, Oh He is my song!

From Bethel Music's King of My Heart

The Franciscan Sisters, TOR

OPLATKI

Oplatki are shared on Christmas Eve with the head of the table saying a prayer, thanking God for the family's blessings and asking forgiveness of anyone he or she has injured. A piece of the oplatek (singular form of oplatki) is broken off and shared, then the oplatek is passed to the next person and the ritual repeats itself.

Oplatki are available in the Atrium.

Limited Copies of The Word Among Us for December 3 through December 31 are available in the Gift Shop for $2 per issue!

Pick one up today to enrich your Advent Season!

PSCF CORNER

The 7th Grade PSCF students are busy at work, learning more deeply about Catholic dogma and history. This includes developing a better understanding of Catholic teaching, delving into the Catechism of the Catholic Church, and learning about inspiring Saints who may be great patrons as the students prepare for Confirmation!

The Seventh Graders have been energetic, fun, and engaged in learning by asking thoughtful questions and participating in classroom discussions! What a great group of kids!

Join us! Grades 5, 6, & 7 making Advent wreaths with parents on December 5 at 6:30
