

One Teacher, One Father, One Master...

The Christ

The Christ

A Reflection on Fr. Krizner on this dedication of the Good Shepherd Garden weekend. Ben Emerson, a senior at St. Ignatius High School and active member of our parish, wrote this beautiful essay for a college entrance exam. Keep on doing all the things you've learned and seen, Ben! Fr. is proud of you and so are we!

I entered the living room and my heart sank. I stood frozen in disbelief as Annie the dog closed in on the helpless bunny called Cotton. After realizing what was about to happen, I shouted, "NO," and bolted towards them in hopes of liberating Cotton. I swooped in and grabbed Cotton before Annie could lay a paw on him. I was able to bring Cotton back to his cage, from which he, by some means, escaped. "You're lucky that bunny wasn't eaten," said Father Krizner, "I would have had no bunny, and you would have had no job," he remarked jokingly. I paused and, smiling, realized why I loved this job so much.

I met Father Krizner when I was a little boy. He was a man who helped form my character slowly and intentionally through service, sacraments, discipleship and virtue. The first decision he influenced was for me to become an altar server with him after First Communion. After my inaugural Mass as an altar server, I was hooked on religion and my faith. Spending so much time with Father over the following years allowed both our friendship and my faith to blossom. He instilled in me an understanding of how to be a disciple of Christ throughout all aspects of my life. He would inculcate this discipleship in people through service, sermons, or conversations. Through him, I shaped my conscience to respond to adversity with God as my guide. I learned to stand by my faith and never be afraid to defend it. Eventually, Father asked me to come and work for him as a church maintenance employee. I often spent time at work just chatting with him about God or how to be a disciple in the world. Through long conversations, bunnies on the loose, and so much more, I was given the opportunity to become the best version of myself.

Father passed away earlier this year and his death was harder than I thought it would be because I lost more than just a pastor; I lost a mentor, a friend, and a guide on my journey to becoming a Christian man and developing virtue. I have long thought that it wasn't right to show any negative emotions or vulnerability. This loss taught me that it's healthy to let my emotions run free. It's okay to be vulnerable at times because vulnerability makes us human. Despite the grief Father's death caused, it reminded me that it was my mission to execute what Father had long worked towards. It was now my mission to make disciples of Christ as he had done for me.

His wisdom turned into action in my life allowing me to be awarded the Jim Skerl Award for varsity golf. Jim Skerl co-founded many of the service programs I am proud to be a part of today. He was a sincere example of a man who lived for others. The award is given to an athlete in each sport who most emulates Mr. Skerl's character. He was a man that taught, worked, and served for the greater glory of God. As I lay in bed the night I received it, one thing was stuck in my mind: I didn't earn this award randomly. Someone saw the traits of Mr. Skerl inside of me, which is an incredible honor in itself. There have been so many influential people in my life who have led me closer to God, but one person stands out in particular. I have become this person because of Father Krizner. He has molded and shaped me into a disciple of Christ. Now, it's my turn to go out and seek new disciples of Christ just as Father did. As Jesus said, "Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Matthew 28:19)

This is the week.. May the truth illumine our mission, our purpose, our vote.

The Catholic Conference of Bishops urges us to:

Vote No: Issue 1 and Issue 2

Issue 1

The Right to Reproductive Freedom with Protections for Health and Safety, Issue 1, would enshrine the "right" to abortion in the Ohio Constitution, endangering the health and safety of women, threatening parental rights, and allowing for abortion through all nine months of pregnancy.

Learn more at: ohiocathconf.org/protect

VOTE NO on Issue 1 to protect women, families, and children.

Issue 2

To Commercialize, Regulate, Legalize, and Tax
the Adult Use of Cannabis, Issue 2, would legalize recreational marijuana in Ohio while threatening public health and endangering children and communities. Learn more

VOTE NO on Issue 2 to protect workers, children, and our communities.

The 54-Day Rosary Novena will continue until Election Day on Tuesday, Nov. 7

Please continue to pray for the defeat of this dangerous amendment. For the final 3 days of the novena the Glorious Mysteries will be prayed each day.

Give Thanks to God Unceasingly!

..."And for this reason we too give thanks to God unceasingly, that, in receiving the word of God from hearing us, you received not a human word but, as it truly is, the word of God, which is now at work in you who believe." Saint Paul to the Thessalonians reminds us that we too have reason to give thanks to God unceasingly. In these autumn days, take some time to reflect deeply on the blessings of God in your life. Try not to miss 'counting' any one of the blessings. By the time the day is done, you should be overwhelmed by the goodness and graciousness of God. This should lead to your giving thanks and praise to God – unceasingly.

...It's hard to believe that we've landed in November. Thanksgiving is soon upon us. It's a national day of giving thanks – of being mindful of the blessings. We are so blessed. I can share with you, first hand, that the needs of so many in our local community and in our region are great. We've been receiving the calls for help, support and Thanksgiving Food. Many thanks to all who are so supportive of our Catholic Works of Mercy efforts to care for those in need in our local community. We are working to take care of 9,200 people on Thanksgiving. This means that we need 1,100 frozen turkeys and lots - and lots - and lots of pies. Next weekend we will be collecting turkeys and pies so that so many in our region can receive a great meal for Thanksgiving – thanks to your goodness.

...Congratulations to Joseph Anderson for earning the Ad Altare Dei Award. This is a special religious medal award through the Diocesan Committee on Scouting. Joseph took the extra time and effort to learn more about the Lord in His life. Congrats Joseph!!!

...This coming Thursday, November 9th, the Holy Name Society is inviting you to join them for the Blessed John of Vercelli Holy Hour. Come Let us Adore Him. ...The 52 Club tickets will be sold again this weekend in the Atrium. As always, thanks so much for your support.

...This coming Tuesday is Election Day. There are two important issues facing all of us – Issue One and Issue Two. It's important that you take time to learn what's in the law and prayerfully discern the good and holy decision. The Bishops of the State of Ohio have taken a clear and strong position on these two issues. They call all of us to vote NO on both issues. Issue One that legalizes abortion is poorly written law. Issue Two which legalizes marijuana will only accelerate the breakdown of our society and family life. Please go to <https://www.ohiocathconf.org/category/election-issues> to learn more about these important issues so you can make an informed and prayerful decision for yourself and the good of the community.

...This Sunday, after the 11:45 am Mass, we will dedicate the prayer path that leads to the Resurrection statue. Father Krizner wanted to help all of us – young and old alike – walk the path that leads to Heaven. This prayer path is a lasting reminder of Father Krizner's priestly ministry. We give thanks to God unceasingly for his life, ministry and the lessons he taught. May we walk in the ways of the Lord to that glorious day when all of us will be united together again in the joy of Heaven.

...This past week the parish staff had some good opportunity to come together, to reflect on their ministry and God-given gifts and talents. The person leading the day of reflection shared with me that "Saint Colette is blessed with wonderfully talented individuals who love God, love the parish and love working together." What a blessing!!! Please pray for Lisa, Sara, Noah and Deacon Scott. ...May these autumn days be a time for all of us to pray and give thanks to God unceasingly. God bless you and keep you in His care.

Father Bob

PSCF CORNER

Last Monday, Fr. Stec graciously met the parents of the second graders who are preparing to make the Sacrament of Reconciliation and encouraged the parents to support their children in this major step to developing their faith.

Attached is a picture of the 4th Grade Class! Our theme this year is becoming a disciple of Jesus. The fourth graders are learning one way to do this is to put the Beatitudes into practice. They created a Beatitude path. Each stone shares a Beatitude that they intend to put into practice.
