GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

October 10, 2021

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to be expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing, and in following a voice other than our own. St. Teresa of Calcutta rightly instructs us that for “love to be real, it must cost, it must hurt, it must empty us of self.” Being in love with God requires more than just checking the boxes of the commandments. It requires a sincere and unconditional self-investment. Desiring God with our whole heart, mind, and soul means that I must also desire a relationship with my neighbor with that same degree of fervor.

Biases and prejudices usually occur when people are kept at a distance and treated as objects. We cannot truly know our neighbors, especially if they are different than us, if we keep them in boxes and do not listen to their stories. When we open ourselves to listen to another person’s story, we begin to realize more how similar we are than dissimilar. Being overly attached to our possessions, ideologies, agendas, lifestyles, and personal needs are absolute barriers to achieving the type of personal investment love demands. This is why following Christ can be difficult. It is less a matter of intellect and more a matter of heart and soul. It requires that we transfer our treasure from an investment in tangible secular things and move it into the Kingdom of God. It is only the gift of wisdom and discernment that can help us decide what to do and how to do it.

Contemporaries of Jesus would know that a camel could not enter through the portal of a city weighed down with the baggage it was carrying. In order to enter, the baggage must be removed so that the animal could fit through the entry way. The same is true for us. We carry a lot of excessive baggage around with us that keeps us tethered to our past histories, wounds, myopic world views, prejudices, fears, and suspicions. To invest ourselves in the Kingdom of God, do God’s work and live out our love relationship with God, we need to shed the extra weight. While it may seem that a lot of that stuff is necessary, it really is not. We are much more than the things that we think define us and more secure than we think. The more there is to hold on to and the more that we carry with us, the harder it will be to leave it all behind. Many choose not to and walk away sad because they are not ready to trust.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

If Heaven were like Harvard

There's no getting around it: life on earth can seem easier if you're rich. Most of the bodily and material needs a person could have are fulfilled if you've got a little bit of money behind you. So why doesn't this same theory apply to entering the kingdom of Heaven? Why isn't Heaven like an Ivy League school, where a connection and a hasty tuition check might open a lot of doors?

When you think about it, the virtues required to enter Heaven — things like charity and justice and courage — should be even closer within the grasp of those who never had to worry about where their food is coming from. In theory, your capacity for good works should only increase with the resources at your disposal.

The same is true for stewardship potential. Let's say I've got a lot of talent. Maybe I've got a lot of free time. On paper, it should be easier for me to give freely of these gifts, because I have the luxury that eluded the widow and her two coins: I can see my ample gift being put into action, when so many can only offer what they have and remind themselves that God sees it and appreciates it.

But here we get into the mess of humanity: if we have a lot of something, it means we have a lot of something we could use any way we want. And then we hear the whisper of the serpent: Think of what this (money, time, talent) could do for you.

May we pray for God to give us the heart of the widow, no matter our resources.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Presumption can be a great sin. We can easily convince ourselves that as long as we do the bare minimum or master the basics, it is sufficient. Love doesn't operate this way. If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to get expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing and in following a voice other than our own. This is what those who are truly in pursuit of wisdom come to realize. Just like any human relationship worth achieving reveals, we never reach a plateau in following the Gospel or growing in wisdom and holiness. Wisdom is the rudder that guides us through all of life's attractions and options. It alone determines what is worth pursuing and what must be left behind. That is why those who are only concerned about checking the boxes and doing the least amount possible often walk away sad when offered God's gift of life eternal. They are not truly in love.

FEAST DAY—OCTOBER ELEVENTH

“The Ecumenical Council will surely be, even more than a new and magnificent Pentecost, a real and new Epiphany, one of the many revelations which have been renewed and are continually being renewed in the course of history, but one of the greatest of all.”

—John XXIII. Apostolic Exhortation 'Sacrae Laudis' 1962

St. John XXIII, pray for us and the Church that you loved and served. Remember through your intercession the needs of our parish and we pray bring to us the blessings, grace and mercy of our Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ.

Known as ‘The Good Pope’, St. John XXIII served as Pontiff from 1958 – 1963 but in those few short years he brought about a renewal in the Church and ‘opened the windows to let fresh air in’. At 76 years old John was a man of vision and saw the need for the Church to be a part of the world and not apart from it. Elected by the Conclave because of his advanced age and the assurance that he would be ‘a safe’ choice, John captivated the hearts of the people with warmth, humanity, wisdom and humor.

On June 3, 1963, John was called home to heaven. A newspaper article featured a drawing of the earth shrouded in mourning which read, ‘A death in the family’.

Good St. John brought about Vatican II and it is through that Council that changes happened in the Church all throughout the world...priests faced the people at Mass, the altar was turned to face the people, the congregations spoke in their own languages, and there was a warmth and presence which brought as truly a ‘holy’ ‘father’.

Though the Church continues to experience the results of ‘change’, John saw the need to allow the Holy Spirit to be the true guide of the Church.

From humble and poor beginnings Pope John lived as a simple parish priest and not a prelate of the Church.

In his last will he bequeathed each of the living members of the family a legacy of less than $20—his total personal fortune.

I love Pope John for his humanity, his warmth, his humor, his insight and his holiness. May he intercede for us here at St. Colette that we be ever faithful to the promptings of the Holy Spirit!

BLESSED CARLO
FEAST DAY,
OCTOBER

Can a 15 year old become a Saint in today's world? The answer is YES—look to Carlo. While he did nothing we might consider extraordinary, (as did some of the great Saints), his spirituality, his love for the Lord, his desire for Eucharist was so strong that among converts to the faith through his example are his own mother.

Carlo received First Holy Communion a year earlier than his class and then attended Mass daily. He had a love for the Blessed Mother and prayed the rosary daily. He referred to Mary as 'the only woman in his life' and said the rosary is the shortest ladder to climb to heaven with'.

Carlo learned computers to design websites to spread his love of the Eucharist and Mary and to teach about angels and the four last things. He cared for the poor and the homeless and would use his own allowance to buy them sleeping bags and blankets.

It is his life that is extraordinary—so in love with Eucharist that he designed a website on Eucharist and Eucharistic Miracles. HE was 15!

Between the two statues of the Popes, John XXIII and John Paul II is a picture of Blessed Carlo. On Saturday, Oct. 10, 2020, in Assisi, Carlo Acutis was beatified. On Oct. 12, the Church celebrated his feast for the first time, on the 14th anniversary of Blessed Carlo's 2006 death of acute leukemia. BLESSED CARLO, pray for our young people that they grow in the love of Jesus.

Land of Happily Ever After

FEATURED
MEDINA

Dear Parish Family,

My favorite quote from St. John XXIII is “We are not here to guard a museum, but to cultivate a flourishing garden of life.” Could anything be more true than that? I think we have attempted to do just that in our parish. Last weekend was incredibly busy with activities that involved the youngest members of our parish all the way to the oldest. While the Daughters held their Tea, the Teens put on Land of Happily Ever After for the little ones, there was even a pet blessing all in the mix of weekend Masses, prepping the atrium for flooring, and preparing for Monday meetings and a funeral. Channel 5 came to interview Ed Pfahl and myself concerning our efforts for the Safety Forces on 9/11.....I think that is ‘cultivating a garden of Life’!

This week we welcome the senior class from Holy Name High School for their annual retreat. Benedictine was here a few weeks ago for their Frosh Retreat. These are all signs of life and the wider Church. I think St. Pope John would be pleased.

Gratitude goes to the Daughters for their very successful Tea and for their assistance with the Donuts for Land of Happily. Gratitude to Mrs. Jo Ann Papa and Mrs. Jo El Fuller for their help (in every way) with the Land of Happily. Gratitude to the Kids of Celebration and the Confirmation class for their role in the Land of Happily—what a Tremendous job they all did! Gratitude to the Maintenance Staff who worked overtime this past week with activity set-up, funeral set-up, and atrium prep— along with all the other things that had to be done. Thanks to John, AJ, Vince, Owen & Giuseppe for their dedication! Thanks to Ed for his guidance! Thanks to Bill Gorey and John Desmarteau for setting up the character boards!

Thanks to all of you who came to the events last weekend and to the dogs, cats, bunny that showed up for the Pet Blessing!

We welcome Michael Bindeman to our Music Ministry Team! Welcome aboard!

God bless your week. Know His love for you in small ways and great ways! Remember those who have asked our prayers.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question:

Why are Catholics required to get married in a church, and not outside or at a different venue?

Answer:

Because the sacrament of marriage is a sacred covenant between the husband and wife, the celebration of the sacrament of matrimony is much more than simply a social or family event. So, the rule that the sacrament be celebrated in a church is a way to help reinforce the deeper meaning of Christian marriage. To help make this clearer, the Church’s tradition also normally includes the celebration of the Mass when the marriage is being celebrated between two Catholics, and so a church or chapel is the ideal setting. For special reasons — which vary from diocese to diocese — the local bishop can give permission for the marriage to be celebrated in another suitable place.

SAINT OF THE WEEK – EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH

St. Teresa of Ávila | Feast Day October 15

St. Teresa of Ávila (1515-1582) was a Spanish Carmelite nun who lived in the 16th century. She was a mystic and author of spiritual writings and poems. The originator of the Carmelite Reform, she founded numerous convents throughout Spain and restored a contemplative life to the order. She became well known for the mystical experiences, many of which she described in her autobiography.

The first of only four women to be named a Doctor of the Church, St. Teresa's ascetic doctrine and Carmelite reforms shaped Roman Catholic contemplative life, and her writings on the Christian soul's journey to God are considered works of art. Her writings, especially the "Way of Perfection" and "The Interior Castle," have helped generations of believers.

St. Teresa of Avila died on Oct. 15, 1582. She was canonized on March 22, 1622, along with three of her greatest contemporaries: St. Ignatius Loyola, St. Francis Xavier, and St. Philip Neri.
