To God What Belongs to Him!

Parish life has certainly been bustling over the past few months. And if you've been in the atrium for the many events or to purchase OktoberFEAST tickets (last chance to do so, btw!), you may have noticed this new statue gracing our atrium entranceway. There's a wonderful story behind it, and perhaps Fr. Tim will share it in time. This rendition of the Good Shepherd is Fr. Tim's personal statue that he got while studying in Rome some years ago. With the completion of the Good Shepherd Garden in the Gate of Heaven Shrine, the timing of it couldn't be more appropriate.

By the time you read this, it will be just under one month until Fr. Tim officially becomes a part of our parish family, becomes our Pastor... our new "Good Shepherd." In getting to know him, it's easy to see that Fr. Tim certainly has the heart of Jesus to lead his sheep to him, a characteristic not foreign to us. Like the Gate of Heaven Shrine encapsulates, Fr. Krizner always led us through the way of the Good Shepherd to the promised Resurrection for all who believe. That was his ministry. In a similar light, Fr. Tim bringing his statue to our parish symbolizes that he too wishes to follow in these same footsteps, the Way of the Good Shepherd to a fulness of life.

The Shepherd knows his sheep and leads them down the right path... He KNOWS his sheep... In the Gospel today when tested by the Pharisees about paying taxes, Jesus famously responds with, "Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God." This could go in many directions, but at the heart of it, what belongs to God is us. The Shepherd KNOWS his sheep. Just as we have a natural inclination to our parents, a draw to and love for our mothers and fathers, so too do we have a natural desire for the one who willed us into being, God the Father. As our human tendencies at times lead us astray, we're reminded through the image of the Good Shepherd that Jesus will always come looking for us. That he desires us more than anything, and to pick us up on his strong shoulders and carry us through both the wonderful and the wretched parts of life.

So we hope you enjoy the new image of this Good Shepherd gracing the walls of our parish. It's Fr. Tim's gift to us, and a gift to communicate that he understands our past and wants to carry us into our next chapter in security and peace. May it and all of the hopeful images of the powerful presence of God we have in our church be a reminder of the God to whom we belong, the "Good Shepherds" who have guided us to him in the past... Fr. Montavon... Fr. Krizner+... and the hopeful and bright future with Fr. Tim, our Good Shepherd to come. God bless your week! ~Sara

The Autumn of Spring

It was inevitable. Separation was their fate
And no poetry, no philosophy, no extraordinary
Expressions of a reconsideration could alter that
Which had to happen. They could cry out the heavens,
But the winds would reply,
“It is done. It is done.”

So it was that the time that they had spent with one another
Would be last on their mind and heart, a simple glance in leaving
An echoed farewell— and then forever,
Back to earth from which they had been born.

So came the autumn of departure after the spring renewal
And the summer’s sun. Warm rains, gentle breezes,
Rolling thunder, even the great streaks to light that glided
Through dark, rumbling skies had only encouraged them,
And they grew and prospered and blossomed,
Bound ever so closely like the vine and the branches
Which the Master spoke of.

But day pours out to day and night gives way to night.
A golden sun and a harvest moon. Two light evenings of stars
And nights when clouds ruled thick and dark and ominous.
And on those nights when the wind whipped across the land,
They were forewarned. A time would come... and so it has.
But, not before the great radiance was expressed,
And their brilliance glistened with morning dew
And beneath moon beams of an autumn sky.

So came the transformation. For a moment they were all alike.
They, we, were one among millions— more countless than the starts of the sky.
But it was their time and maybe their time together that had allowed them to change.

In that they beheld each other in splendor and radiance, dressed by God himself, kissed by nature, and let go— off on a separate journey Where mother earth awaited them
To a place where, with rock and stone, tree and grass, Hill and mountain, stream and ocean, They would be one again.

What splendor! What magnificence! What wonder the creator had predetermined.
And from their dust there came new life!
A Poem by Fr. Krizner

So Much to Be Thankful For!

..."We give thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in our prayers, unceasingly calling to mind your work of faith and labor of love and endurance in hope of our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father, knowing, brothers and sisters loved by God, how you were chosen. For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with much conviction."

Saint Paul has such a pastoral sense. Can you imagine if every day we started by giving thanks to God and held all of our loved ones in prayer? Can you imagine if we really took the time to reflect on what it means to be chosen by God? Can you imagine if we knew that not only are we called and chosen by God but God's Spirit will strengthen you?? We would have happier homes, stronger families and each of us with live the Gospel with a holy boldness – with conviction.

...We are chosen by God to do the work of the Gospel. Many thanks to all who took time to browse through last Sunday's Ministry Fair. God bless you for your openness to the Spirit and to the work of the Lord.

...God bless the Holy Name Society, Daughters of Saint Colette and all who helped make the Pancake Breakfast such a special gathering for the community!

...Speaking of 'chosen', some of the extras on The Chosen will be at Saint Colette on Sunday, October 29 at 6pm to share some reflections on their experience of being part of this powerful series that helped them (and all of us) remember the journey and teachings of Jesus. All are welcome.

...Up next is OctoberFEAST on Saturday, October 28. Come for great food, music and friendship. Tickets are on sale this weekend for $15. The planning team needs a good count so this is the last opportunity to get your ticket for a fun night out at Saint Colette.

...Can you believe how quickly time is flying by?? We are cresting into the end of October...crazy!!! Even crazier, the 2024 Catholic Calendars are available in the Parish Office. You'll need it sooner than you can imagine!!! God bless Noah who is back from his pilgrimage. As you can see, the office is being cleaned and organized. Stop by and take a look, pick up your calendar, and say hello to Noah, Mary and the team.

...You can feel the shift of seasons in the weather this past week. Cooler temps are here...and more on the way. Many, many, many thanks to all who participated in Blanket Sunday last weekend. The Catholic Works of Mercy Team will put them all to good use to blanket those in need with the warmth and love of the Lord.

...As the weather shifts, we are also collecting gently used winter coats and gear for kids and adults. We need to collect thousands and thousands... so please clean out your closet and invite your neighbors and family members to do the same. You can bring them to the atrium of the Church over the next few weeks. They will be sorted and distributed to those most in need in the Clark-Fulton area of Cleveland. God bless you for your thoughtfulness.

...Please take some time to read the information in today's bulletin about Issue One and Two. It will lead you to the website prepared by the Ohio Catholic Conference of Bishops and offers best information for your prayerful reflection. It is always important to take the time to be informed and reflect on the Church's teachings.

...Reflect on Saint Paul this week. Allow the second reading to the Philippians to guide your actions and thoughts. Let's hold each other in prayer. Let's give thanks to God for all the blessings we have received. Have a wonderful week.

Father Bob

Fall Happenings at St. Colette!

PSCF Corner!

A very special thanks to Deacon Scott for inviting the PSCF Classes to the closing of Adoration on Monday and Tuesday. He was able to tell them about the importance of adoration as well as the miracle of the Eucharist and the significance of the Mass. Because many children have not experienced the Blessing of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Deacon Scott was also able to make them aware of the significance of sacramentals like bells, incense, and the monstrance in the liturgy!

The Catholic Conference of Bishops urges us to:

Vote No: Issue 1 and Issue 2

Issue 1

The Right to Reproductive Freedom with Protections for Health and Safety, Issue 1, would enshrine the "right" to abortion in the Ohio Constitution, endangering the health and safety of women, threatening parental rights, and allowing for abortion through all nine months of pregnancy. Learn more at: ohiocathconf.org/protect VOTE NO on Issue 1 to protect women, families, and children.

Issue 2

To Commercialize, Regulate, Legalize, and Tax the Adult Use of Cannabis, Issue 2, would legalize recreational marijuana in Ohio while threatening public health and endangering children and communities. Learn more at: protectohiofamilies.com

VOTE NO on Issue 2 to protect workers, children, and our communities.

Issue 1 is an extreme amendment on the Ohio ballot this November that threatens the health and safety of women, the rights of parents and the lives of preborn babies up to 9 months.
