GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

October 24, 2021

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

When we see God with true sincerity of heart and God passes us along our way, it is only then that we will be able to cry out, “Jesus, son of David, have pity on me!” We have to truly want to be healed by, and in union with, God in order for us to reach out to him. If God is only an abstract idea, theory, or someone found in the pages of a book, there is no motivation for a relationship and no desire to seek him. God needs to be real in order for faith to be real. It’s all about the journey.

St. Augustine reminds us that “to fall in love with God is the greatest romance; to seek Him the greatest adventure; to find Him the greatest human achievement.” We strive after many things and mercy is not always one of them. We think that we can find fulfillment and healing in other things only to discover that we are still short and empty. From the moment human beings were created, God has been calling us and seeking us. He has been walking right beside the human story from the minute He first breathed life into the first human soul. Are we able to recognize God as He walks with us? At some point we have to realize that there is only one way to satisfy the deepest longings of the human heart and that is in relationship with our Creator. We are called to this. However, we make the huge error of thinking that what we are hearing is coming from somewhere else. We become confused. Every human being would certainly profit with wisdom if they realized Who calls them and to Whom they belong.

Then and only then will we realize that it is only our Divine Master who can give us true vision and heal us. Once we recognize and reach out for the merciful presence of our loving Maker, we will be able to see with our soul, understanding the true nature and depth of all things. God’s mercy is always available. It doesn’t matter how far we have strayed or how blind we become, God patiently waits to console us, guide us and heal us. All we need to do is desire Him. Once we reach out, we also realize that there is no greater love to be found than God’s, no human adventure that comes even close to the thrill of a spiritual search, and no human achievement even remotely as satisfying as union with Him. This is where we belong. This is salvation.

Good Morning! Good Afternoon! People of God!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Giving as God does

Ask yourself this question — what would you pray for if you really believed God could and would do anything for you? In my experience, we all have something. We all have that miracle we're afraid to request, afraid we will be disappointed.

Do we doubt God's readiness to give because we ourselves have such an imperfect understanding of charity and love? Maybe if we had better faith in God we would be more ready to give of ourselves — and maybe if we were more ready to give of ourselves, we would understand more clearly the ways of God.

Because we're not really afraid that God can't do something. We know He can do anything. What we're afraid of is that He will do what He always does: give us what we need, not what we want.

Have you ever had a friend in need and you just wanted to give them something — a meal, a phone call, a text? Not because you knew it would help, but simply because you wanted to reach out. And have they ever said to you: It wasn't so much what you gave, but the fact that you did. You gave them what they needed even if it wasn't what they specifically asked for.

When we give in this manner, we are giving as God does. Sometimes we are afraid to ask because we don't want to be disappointed. But remember, the blind man on the road got what he asked for, but he would have gotten what he needed even if his answer had been the opposite. God's generosity is always reckless, and it's always perfect.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

“To fall in love with God is the greatest romance; to seek Him the greatest adventure; to find Him the greatest human achievement.” These words of St. Augustine are timeless. Every human being would certainly profit with wisdom if they realized Who calls them and to Whom they belong. There is only one way to satisfy the deepest longing of the human heart and that is in relationship with our Creator. When we seek God with true sincerity of heart and God passes us along our way, we will cry out, “Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me!” We will instinctively know that it is only our Divine Master who can restore our sight and heal us. The blind man fell in love with Jesus, embarked upon this life-saving adventure to reach him and achieved a goal many have only remotely thought possible. This is mercy in action. No matter how far we stray or how blind we become God patiently waits to console us, guide us, and heal us. All we need to do is desire Him with all our heart.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question:

I have a friend who receives communion, but who I know for a fact is in a state of mortal sin. Should I tell our priest? Is it my responsibility to say something?

Answer:

While we may always want to do what is best for our friends and family members, we have a responsibility to respect their privacy and their conscience. In its reflections on the Eighth Commandment (“You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor”), the Catechism of the Catholic Church states, “Respect for the reputation of persons forbids every attitude and word likely to cause them unjust injury. [One] becomes guilty: -of rash judgment who, even tacitly, assumes as true, without sufficient foundation, the moral fault of a neighbor; -of detraction who, without objectively valid reason, discloses another’s faults and failings to persons who do not know them; of calumny who, by remarks contrary to the truth, harms the reputation of others and gives occasion for false judgments concerning them” (no. 2477).

We will never truly know what is in a person’s mind, heart, and soul; only God knows those things. We should, of course, take our concerns to God and entrust the person about whom we are concerned to God’s grace and mercy. If we have concerns about the spiritual wellbeing of someone with whom we are close, we should go to the person themselves and talk about our fears and concerns. Unless it is a case of abuse or endangerment (which we have a moral and even legal responsibility to report to the appropriate authorities), we ultimately do not have the freedom to share another’s persons faults or sins, however good we think our intentions might be. ©LPi

Heavenly and Gracious Father, ever merciful, ever present! Hear the prayer of your people. We come to you with gratitude for the many blessings that fill our days—for the blessings seen and unseen. We come to You with humble and contrite hearts. Open the fountain of mercy and receive our intentions as we place before You the needs of the Church, the needs of our Nation, and the prayerful response we make in behalf of those who have asked us to remember them. God of wholeness, God of Healing, God most kind and merciful, hear us as we are Your Children and You are our Father. In Jesus Name. Amen.

“Please show me your envelope before entering!”

“Hello! May I see your envelope please and then kiss you endlessly!”

CORBIE LUNCH!

Tuesday, October 26—Prayer Service
at 12 followed by Lunch.

COSTUMES are highly encouraged—but optional
65 and over—

THANK YOU for supporting the Holy Name Breakfast and Daughters Bake Sale last weekend. It was a huge success and the many 'workers' are grateful for your patronage! It's an event that brings together the community and for that we are most grateful!

Coming Soon

Dear Parish Family,

So it is happening right before us! The Seasons are changing and, though nearly silent, there is a faint whisper of winter. And if we needed some more visible reminder there are signs of Christmas on the store shelves and slowly appearing in the Lily, Ann, Grace Shop. October will welcome November with the Feast of All Saints (not a Holy Day this year) and it will end with Christ the King! The many feasts of Autumn add to the splendor of the Season.

With the Atrium carpeted, we are working on a few 'upkeeps' in the rectory. The good people of Monarch Carpet, One Floor and Home, have surveyed the rectory kitchen and adjacent room. After 30 years it is time to revamp and I appreciate their expertise and the attention they have afforded us. We are simply doing an upkeep on things which need attention (and things that Annie has ruined). It is NOT a total remodel! I NEVER REALIZED THAT BEING Pastor meant that you needed to be attentive to plumbing, electricity, painting and flooring, roofing, carpeting, etc. etc.

The final meeting for our Building Project is slated for November 8— with an 'all go' we will proceed as promised. It has been a long and arduous venture but we are at the finish line for a 'beginning'! Your kindness has been the motivating factor in this: there were times when I thought we should scratch the whole Endeavor— but persistence mixed with the virtue of Faith and the realization of how badly we need the room won out!

I hope you will join us for Corbie Lunch on Tuesday. If you haven't called in a reservation please do so by leaving a message this weekend. The Staff awaits your presence—we haven't had this opportunity since the dismal days of Covid.

Last week I met with Fr. Damian Ference who has been assigned by the Bishop for work in Evangelization. He was a HN student, studied at Borromeo and in Rome and has now taken on a major task for the diocese as Vicar for Evangelization. Please remember his intentions and needs in your prayers. It is an awesome task and responsibility.

There are a number of people in our parish who have asked prayers for healing. Please remember them. Remember too that Perpetual Help Prayer meets every other Thursday at 7 to pray for the needs of those who are ill. Join them anytime.

May your week be blessed in the most remarkable ways.

Fr. Krizner, Gracie, Hurricane Annie, Cotton & us!
