

Priesthood Sunday!

You Are A Priest Forever!

It's Priesthood Sunday! And it's the weekend before All Saints and All Souls Day so there's a lot of connections happening in this article. Priests are not gods.... they're fully human men who've sacrificed their lives in love for God, and his church. As Christ laid his life down on the cross, they do the same for us in many ways, but most profoundly through the sacraments. Sacraments are encounters with God. And while each brings about that encounter in a specific, necessary, and important way, it's through the Mass—The Eucharist, where literally, “heaven and earth kiss.” Priests act “in persona Christi”, in the person of Christ, and make the invisible a reality for the Church to be sustained and inspired. Priest's great sacrifice transcend time and space, yet they remain humble through their service. We've certainly gotten to know several priests over the course of this year. And none of them raise a banner for themselves in any regard. They do what they do for the purpose and calling as priests. For as Scripture suggests, “You are a priest forever in the line of Melchizedek” (Psalm 110:4), their calling is not only charitable, but eternal. And I think the perfect example of that is the eternal priesthood of our former pastor, Fr. Krizner.

This day first and foremost makes me think of him... I can't help it! For sixteen years he was “my priest”—and I often called him that... my priest... not because I think he only belonged to me, or that my relationship was anything special compared to others. His relationship with all of us was unique and beautiful. But truthfully no one has been more inspirational in my life. He made everything come alive from Church feast days to every day little things, like a donut in a car ride to nowhere. He made me laugh and brought me joy... and I miss him every day. Every single day. But the thing is, even though I miss him, I feel like I know him more profoundly now than I ever did... and that all the things he taught me are now just a part of me. Like he lives through all the goodness I share... and I all I want to do is share it. That there is the beauty of All Saints and All Souls Day. Our faith teaches us that we're not “done” here when we die. Rather, the fullness of our potential is realized as we're not bound to our imperfections any longer.

The Gospel today gives us the greatest commandment: to love God with our whole being and to love our neighbor with that Godly love. And God bless us for trying.... We try!!! But our own limitations make it impossible for us to do that perfectly. When we get to heaven, however, we can!! For we “know fully as we are fully known” as St. Paul says, and we love anyway... all that remains is love (1 Corinthians 13)! So maybe why I feel Fr. so fully and differently in my life is that all that's left of him is the love of God through him. And from what I've heard from your experiences in the last seven months, you feel that love too. And I hope you channel that for all the loved ones in your life now with Jesus! This week we celebrate them!

Fr. Krizner is still my priest, now more than ever. He's a priest forever, and he'll continue to be a part of my life every day. And every day I remain grateful to him for his ministry... and to every priest for who they are and what they do. So on this priesthood Sunday we remember and pray for all priests in heaven where they continue to pray for us, and on earth where they continue to work for us. And while they would never ask for this... it goes without saying that they deserve a shout-out: Abbot Gary—for his big-heart and joyful smile that just beams the love God; Fr. Caesar and his passion for the faith through stories of heroic saints and the tender mercy of God; Fr. Marc's witty insights to the Gospel message and love for his mother (it's always fun to have a personal connection); Fr. Dan's laugh, and practical, logical, easy- to- grasp approach to the Gospel and faith in Christ; Fr. Andrew's profound wisdom, down-to-earth-ness, and the unrivaled joy of Jesus he brings to each and every Mass; and to Fr. Bob... for his constant selflessness and self-sacrifice...if there was ever a priest who truly cared about every sheep in his flock and who would go to any length to make sure each sheep was cared for beautifully, it would be Fr. Bob. And these past months for our parish are so indicative of that. I hope you see that too and feel every bit of gratitude as I do. And to our future, Fr. Tim: may the Lord bless him, keep him, and continue to shine every beautiful blessing upon his priesthood. Thank you, priests of God! ~Sara

Celebrating All Saints Day!

Saint comes from the latin word “sancti” meaning, holy. So anyone in heaven is holy and a saint! But how does one get to be a “named” saint by the church?

First, the person’s local bishop investigates their life by gathering information from witnesses of their life and any writings they may have written. If the bishop finds them to be worthy of being a saint, then he submits the information that he gathered to the Vatican’s Congregation for the Causes of Saints. This process could take many years.

Third, if the Congregation for the Causes of Saints approves of the candidate, they can choose to declare that the person lived a life heroically virtuous life. This isn’t a declaration that the person is in heaven, but that they pursued holiness while here on earth. At this stage the person in question is called “Venerable”.

Fifth, a second miracle is needed in order to declare someone a saint. The confirmation of a second miracle goes through the same scrutiny as the first. After a second miracle, this person can now be officially canonized a SAINT!

The history of All Saints Day dates back to the 3rd and 4th centuries. During Roman persecution, there were so many Christians martyred for the faith that the number of them became too many to remember. The church needed a day to commemorate all the saint in Heaven, thus All Saints Day was born!. All the saints are remembered at each Mass and called upon in the Eucharistic prayer. This is image is depicted on the previous page. It’s from the Gesu Church in Rome, a painting from the sacristy ceiling of “when heaven and earth kiss.” Who’s your favorite saint?

All Saints Day IS a Holy Day this year!

Mass times:

All Hallows Eve (10/31): 5:30pm
All Saints Day (11/1): Noon and 7pm.

Second, the Congregation for the Causes of Saints can choose reject the application or accept it and begin their own investigation of the person’s life. An official investigation must wait 5 years after a person’s death. However, this waiting period can be waived by the pope if he deems necessary (as with Mother Teresa). At this stage the person in question is called “Servant of God”

Fourth, to be recognized as someone in heaven requires that a miracle has taken place through the intercession of that person. The miracle is usually a healing. The healing has to be instantaneous, permanent, and complete while also being scientifically unexplainable. Miracles have to be first verified as scientifically unexplainable by a group of independent doctors, then the person is approved by a panel of theologians and then the final approval lies with the pope. If this is the case, a person is declared “blessed”.

All Souls Day (11/2) recalls all of the souls in purgatory awaiting fullness of life in Heaven. We pray for them on this day!

Prayer for Our Deceased

Dear Lord,
Comfort us in our grief as we mourn those no longer with us on earth. Free those in purgatory quickly, and guide us in Your will, so that one day we may all be united with You, for eternity.

Amen.

All you holy men and women, pray for us!

Love the Lord Your God Above All Else!

..."Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Today's Gospel really should shape our lives and our decisions. We clearly hear what God expects of us – everything. God needs us to be 'all in' by loving God with our heart, soul, mind and strength. And then we need to love our neighbor as ourselves. Imagine how different the world would look if we simply love God and love our neighbors.

...Think about the implications across our world if everyone – and each of us – simply loved God and loves our neighbor. Given the challenges of our world, we desperately need to embrace the work of building a better world in the mind and heart of Christ. Lord make each of us instruments of your peace. Let us pray daily and fervently for peace in our hearts, homes and world.

...There are also some very practical things we can all do to help 'build the more loving world and community. As you have been reading, we are collecting gently used kids and adults' coats for children and their families in the Clark Fulton community. We will distribute the coats in two weeks at Clark Elementary and International Newcomer Academy. Please check your closets and invite your neighbors and friends to do the same. Jesus said, "when I was naked, you clothed me (Matthew 25, 36). It's one way to take care of our neighbors.

...Our Catholic Works of Mercy Team is working to feed over 9,000 people this Thanksgiving. As you can imagine, the needs are greater than ever. We need your help. On the weekend of the November 11/12, we are asking everyone who can to donate a turkey or a frozen pie. If all of us work together, we can collect the 1,100 turkeys we need and take care of our sisters and brothers in need.

...The Daughters of Saint Colette are selling pies in support of this Thanksgiving Meal effort. See the bulletin for all the information and an order form. "When I was hungry, you gave me turkey and pie!!!"

...Hold the evening of Sunday, November 19 at 7:30 pm for a Special Prayer Service – Thanksgiving in Word and Song!!! Watch for details.

...This coming week we celebrate the Feast of All Saints. Join us for this holy day of obligation on Tuesday at 5:30 pm and on Wednesday at 12 noon and 7 pm. We look to the saints to inspire us to walk the path that leads to Heaven.

...This coming Sunday after the 11:45 am Mass we will dedicate the new Prayer Path that leads to the beautiful statue of Christ that proclaims the Victory of Sin and Death – the promise of Heaven. The Prayer Path is in honor of Father Krizner. He had the deepest desire to help everyone (all of us) walk the path that leads to Heaven. This will be a lasting memorial in his honor and it's a perfect way to remember Fr. Krizner who showed us the path.

...This Sunday is Priesthood Sunday. We pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life. As we memorialize Father Krizner's ministry at Saint Colette, one way we can all continue his ministry is through the promotion of vocations. When Father Krizner was at Holy Name High School, I was the Vocation Director for the Diocese. He and I worked very closely to encourage and invite young men to consider the seminary and open their hearts to God's call. Let's continue to pray, invite and encourage our young people to give their 'all' to the Lord – mind, body, spirit!!!

...The 52 Club is ramping up for the near year. See today's bulletin. Thanks for your continued support for Saint Colette. Enjoy these autumn days. May God bless you abundantly. Have a great week.
