

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

October 3, 2021

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Archbishop Fulton Sheen said, “It takes three to make love, not two: you, your spouse, and God.” Apart from the incarnation of God in Jesus Christ, nothing speaks better of God’s incarnate love than marriage. God designed it this way. We place great value on love and rightly so. What we fail to realize, however, is that love, its very presence and place in our lives, is not simply part of the human package deal. Love comes from God. It is one of God’s greatest gifts to human beings. When we begin to realize that our very ability to love is sacred, it changes up how we see the essence of life, and purpose and sanctity of marriage.

God is love. It stands to reason then that if we follow the path of unconditional, self-emptying love we will then stumble upon God. It is precisely this intimate wedding of God with love that gives such eloquence and honor to the love between husband and wife. As a living sign of Christ’s love for the Church and for humanity, husbands and wives speak volumes of God’s unconditional incarnate love for all of his children! The Divine power that brings unity and life to marriage is so strong that once joined, it really cannot be separated.

Admittedly, marriage covenants can be extremely difficult to negotiate and, at times, very painful to experience. God’s perfect divinity always meets our broken and imperfect humanity. God is okay with this setup as he created it this way. Our loving is never as unconditional as God’s and often tainted by our own imperfections, needs, memories, hurts, sinfulness, and weakness. All of this baggage negatively impacts even the most well-intentioned marriages, causing them to be hurtful and empty. We are love works in progress. God can succeed in perfecting our love only if we keep our eyes fixed on him as the source of that love. That’s why marriage is always about three and not just two.

The Divine intimacy at the heart of marriage is what can make them celebrations of great union and happiness. Couples who are still madly in love with each other after many years, still looking at each other with that timeless twinkle in their eyes, best tell the story of God’s oneness with humanity. Honor, celebrate, and support those who have accepted a vocation to marriage. Living in a world that easily pulls relationships apart, may they find hope and inspiration from their faith companions who are on the same journey!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

“What God has joined together.” We are all familiar with these words. Because man and woman are essentially of the same substance, although also distinctively different, there is an innate desire to be connected and united. Admittedly, marriage covenants can be extremely difficult to negotiate and, at times, very painful to experience. But they can also be celebrations of great union and happiness. This is proven by couples who have been married for many years who still have that same twinkle of devotion in their eyes that was present on their wedding day. God designed it to be this way. By God’s power, the two become one. This is not of human design. The true intimacy of marriage is a Divine Intimacy. It is a bond created by a power far greater than any found in the two people who are joined. Marriage is where the virtue of love is most fully expressed.

Autumn Months

O God of Creation, you have blessed us with the changing of the seasons.

As we welcome the autumn months, may the earlier setting of the sun remind us to take time to rest.

May the brilliant colors of the leaves remind us of the wonder of your creation.

May the steam of our breath in the cool air remind us that it is you who give us the breath of life.

May the harvest from the fields remind us of the abundance we have been given and bounty we are to share with others. May the dying of summer's spirit remind us of your great promise that death is temporary and life is eternal.

We praise you for your goodness forever and ever.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question:

Can a person (the mother, father, or provider) ever be forgiven for an abortion?

Answer:

For people of faith, any conversation of human sinfulness should always lead us to reflect on God’s loving mercy. Because God’s mercy is greater than any sin, the Church is clear that even those involved in the sin of abortion can be reconciled with God and the Church. To help make this grace more available through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Pope Francis extended the permission to absolve someone of the sin of abortion to all priests in 2016.

Even with the grace and blessings of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, the tragedy of abortion and the aftermath of abortion takes a toll on everyone involved. Ministries of outreach and support, such as Project Rachel, offer pastoral counseling, support groups, retreats, and other forms of care. As Christians, we are also called to help promote this healing and reconciliation in all its forms. To learn more, visit www.hopeafterabortion.com.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE
GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
Therein lies the...rib

“If I were God...” is a dangerous way to start a sentence, but how many of us do this? Probably more regularly than we would like to admit. Even if we don’t verbalize the sentiment, we likely think it from time to time. Most of us finish that statement with some genius, original idea for eradicating difficulty and pain from the world. If I were God, I wouldn’t let anyone go hungry. If I were God, all wealth would be equally distributed. If I were God, war wouldn’t exist.

I imagine that, when we think thoughts like these, God shakes His head and wonders why we don’t look a little harder at the whole of His creation — because I can promise you, it’s never lacking.

When Adam had a need for a companion, God used what was available: Adam’s rib. Everything that He had put into place was already perfect, already complete. Woman was a new creation, but not a new species. Adam searched through all of creation to find the perfect mate, but God had tucked the answer inside of His creation all along.

I’m guilty of it as much as anyone else — looking to Heaven with a chip on my shoulder. “Why haven’t you sent me what I need? I’ve been asking over and over again.” But have I even thought to look inside of myself?

Where is the rib you are missing today? What are the opportunities God has set before you? What are the needs that He is ready to fulfill, if only you would stop wasting time lamenting all the solutions that don’t fit the bill?

Mondays with Mary

We are very excited to introduce "Monday Mornings with Mary," a prayer ministry for Moms and their family intentions. Meetings will take place on the first Monday of each Month at 10am beginning October 4th. Each month will focus on a different Marion devotion as we ask her loving intercession upon motherly vocations in our parish and beyond. Bring yourselves, your kids (complete with toys, binkies and snacks J), and join us for this informal prayer time. As an extension of this ministry, you will find a mom intention book in the Mary Chapel called "Monica's Book". All moms of the parish are invited to write their intentions as they will be remembered at our sessions each month. Stay-at-home, working, young, old, mom of one or of many... know that you are supported in prayer by our parish family!

Prayer attributed to St. Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace;
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
And where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled as to console;
To be understood, as to understand;
To be loved, as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive,
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
And it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life.
Amen.

Annie appeared bewildered. Ordinarily she was energetic, mischievous, and eager to antagonize Gracie. But as the two dogs lay several feet apart watching a marvelous, red and orange evening give way to shades of gray Annie was unusually quiet. Ordinarily Gracie would be more than appreciative of the quiet but curiosity was overwhelming. Yet before she could speak Annie broke the calm silence. “Where is Lily?”, she asked, almost in a whisper, “I really didn’t have time to know her as well as I would like.” Gracie allowed a long minute to pass in silence. She looked over to Annie, “First of all she was not Lily she was THE Lily. There was always something regal about her and she always had been referred to as ‘the’.” Annie replied with a simple, “Ohhh.” and then continued, “Then where is THE Lily?” A long pause separated the two dogs then with a sigh Gracie continued. “It’s getting dark more quickly now as the Seasons are changing. Summer turns into Fall and Fall will turn into Winter, but of course you don’t know what winter is yet.” Annie returned with another, “Ohhh” but persisted with her original question, Where is The Lily? Gracie edged just a few inches closer to Annie, “It was time for Lily to go.” Annie turned quickly, “Go where?” Gracie looked to the sky. “Annie, do you see those stars up there in the sky?” Annie nodded as Gracie continued, “I think the Lily has joined the stars.”

Annie was puzzled, “She became a star?!” “No!” returned Gracie, “She is among the stars and maybe even looking down at us right now! We don’t become stars but we are caught up in a love that I can’t explain. And here is the wonderful part of it all: Even when the sun is out and the sky is bright blue and there are beautiful white clouds the stars are still in the sky. As night comes they become brighter and brighter but they are always there! Annie tilted her head to try to understand but Gracie continued. “You see I think she lives among the stars and she is joined with all of God’s creation. As the stars are in the heavens so we too must be within the wonder of God’s grand creation.” There was a moments pause and Grace went on, “You know the statue of St. John Paul II in the Church which you are constantly running past? Annie nodded! Gracie hid her smile and went on, “well he said that animals “are as near to God as men are.”

Annie was silent for a long time. When she spoke it was softly, “I guess I will have to just look to the sky at a special star to see The Lily.” Gracie nodded in agreement as she had one more story to tell, “Listen well Annie. It is said that Pope Paul VI was consoling a little boy whose dog has died. He said, “One day we will see our pets in the eternity of Christ.” Both of those Popes are saints and if a Saint said it then I am going with it.” Annie looked directly at Gracie and asked, “How do you know those kinds of things?” Gracie smiled, “Because—just because.” After a moment Gracie continued, “It’s dark out here it’s time to go in.” Annie jumped to her feet but didn’t move. As Gracie entered the rectory she called out, “Annie, come in!” But Annie, with her eyes focused on the heavens, replied, “I’m saying good night to Lily.....”
