GOSPEL MEDITATION

September 24, 2023
25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Once I gave my three-year-old niece a certain toy for Christmas. When she opened it, she was happy. Shortly thereafter her five-year-old sister opened another present from me: the same toy, along with some play jewelry. The three-year-old cried out: "That's not fair! Why'd she get the jewelry, too?!"

Let's face it: there's something about God's grace in our religion which bugs us. We love to look at others' blessings and cry out: "That's not fair!" Catholicism is not fair in the sense that it is a religion founded on God's grace which is unmerited favor. God pours his mercy, love, and divine life upon us not because we're good but because He is infinitely good.

If you think the "not fair" quality of grace is easy to accept, consider how typically angry we get when we hear the parable of the workers who get paid way more than they deserve. The hyper-generous landowner says to the indignant hard workers, "Are you envious because I am generous?" Well, yes, they are, and so are we! Therefore, we have to reckon with this painful truth in order to move into the divine sphere of gifts, which is the world of Christ and his Church. Then we are able to move beyond a tit-for-tat world and into one where gifts are poured forth on those who don't deserve it — namely, upon us.

— Father John Muir

GLORY BE TO THE FATHER,

AMEN.

Prayer for Priests

Dear Lord,
Thank you for the priests who have ministered to us through our lives, the ones who baptized us, gave us communion, offered absolution, prayed for us, inspired us, and nurtured our faith.
May they know your goodness and our gratitude!
Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

Dear Lord,
How lovely are your ways!
Guide each of us closer to your will.
Pour your courage into those you are calling to the vocations of married, religious, consecrated, and single life.
Help them to respond boldly,
and with trust in your provision.
Amen.

Every Day Seek the Lord!

..."Seek the LORD while he may be found, call him while he is near. Let the scoundrel forsake his way, and the wicked his thoughts; let him turn to the LORD for mercy; to our God, who is generous in forgiving. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD. As high as the heavens are above the earth, so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts." Isaiah, in our first reading this weekend, invites us to a great wisdom. Seek the Lord...who is generous and forgiving. Every day....every way...seek the Lord. Seek what is above. Seek the Lord. How blessed our lives would be if at every moment, we seek the Lord in our lives?

...This weekend, in the atrium, you will have an opportunity to sign up for a 'slot' during Eucharistic Adoration week (October 9-12). It's the perfect way to 'seek the Lord' by spending some time in prayer and adoration in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Imagine the blessing that will come to you and to this parish community if hundreds of people seek the Lord and spend some time in Adoration. Take some time to check out all the details in today's bulletin.

...We are working to make the Eucharistic Minister schedule easier starting in January. In order to build a bridge between the end of the current schedule (October) and January, we need each of our Eucharistic Ministers to stop in the Atrium (or at the Parish Office during the week) to outline your availability for the next several months. You will really appreciate the 'new program' in January. It's so much easier to schedule, mark your availability and keep up to date.

...God bless Marty Morisky who has taken care of the scheduling for years. Marty is recovering from some serious sickness. Please keep him and Lillian in your prayers. Speaking of prayers....

...We are updating our Prayer List for the bulletin/prayer list. If you have a loved one you would like to see on the Prayer List, please contact the Parish Office at 330-273-5500 or nschrader@stcoletteparish.com. It's such a comfort to know that we hold each other in prayer in our moments of need.

...If you stop by the office, you'll see some desks moved around. The parish staff is moving around a little bit both to make things flow easier and also to create room for Fr. Tim. When you walk into the office area, you will receive such a joyful greeting from Mary. She's such a blessing for the parish.

...PSCF is up and running for a new school year. There's still time for you to register your child(ren) and grandchildren. Contact Chris and Larry Pizon for information and to register. It's so important to help our young ones 'seek the Lord.'

...The Holy Name Society is collecting socks and underwear for kids in need. Both the kids and the HNS would be so grateful for your support.

...Modern technology is both a blessing and a responsibility. Over the past few weeks, several members have received emails from Fr. Krizner asking for a wide variety of things. I am not sure that Father Krizner is emailing from Heaven (he's with us in so many ways just not via email). Never click links in your email. Always check email addresses (for any email). If you have even a whiff of a doubt...call the person. It's important to keep yourself and your computer and information safe.

...Deacon Matt Harley's presentation has been rescheduled for next Wednesday, September 27 at 7 pm. Deacon Matt is going to offer some insights on the language and direction of the issues up to vote in the November election. Come and learn more.

...By the time you read this, we will have officially entered into the autumn season. It's a time to reflect on the blessings of God in your life. Seek the Lord. See the many ways that God is blessing your life and is active and present to you. God bless your week. Seek the Lord while He can be found.

Sometime ago, in a conversation with my colleagues, the topic of the upcoming election in November came up. As we were discussing the issue of the amendment regarding reproductive rights, I realized that I did not have enough information about the amendment to have a meaningful and insightful conversation. My colleague was asking me questions about the amendment which I did not have clear answers to. I needed to read the language of the amendment before I could comment on the teaching of the Church with respect to the amendment.

As a result of the conversation, I decided to study the proposed amendment. I would like to share the fruits of my study with you.

Join me for a presentation on the Church teaching surrounding the issues from 7 - 8pm on Wednesday, September 27th."

FULL TEXT OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Art. I is the Bill of Rights

Be it Resolved by the People of the State of Ohio that Article I of the Ohio Constitution is amended to add the following Section:

Article I, Section 22. The Right to Reproductive Freedom with Protections for Health and Safety (mostly for abortion providers)

more accurate title should be: The right to reproductive decisions

A. Every individual has a right to make and carry out one's own reproductive decisions including but not limited to decisions on:

any age including minors not gender specific

1. contraception;
2. fertility treatment;
3. continuing one's own pregnancy;
4. miscarriage care; and
5. abortion.

without limits
gender selection abortions harvesting body parts chemical castration
trans surgeries on minors

cloning

throughout all nine months

B. The State shall not directly or indirectly, burden, penalize, prohibit, interfere with, or discriminate against either:

no age restrictions
no parental consent

1. An individual's voluntary exercise of this right or
2. A person or entity that assists an individual exercising this right,

Does this write Planned Parenthood into the Constitution?

includes group/activists in schools instructing

minors on sexual practices

unless the State demonstrates that it is using the least restrictive means to advance the individual's health in accordance with widely accepted and evidence-based standards of care.

undefined

undefined includes mental health

undefined shall not

However, abortion may be prohibited after fetal viability. But in no case may such an abortion be prohibited if in the professional judgment of the pregnant patient's treating physician it is necessary to protect the pregnant patient's life or health.

possible but not likely subjective judgment of abortionist not age or gender specific

C. As used in this Section:

The abortionist is now protected by the Constitution regardless of the outcome of aborting a fully viable human child.

1. "Fetal viability" means "the point in a pregnancy when, in the professional judgment of the pregnant patient's treating physician, the fetus has a significant likelihood of survival outside the uterus with reasonable measures. This is determined on a case-by-case basis."
2. "State" includes any governmental entity and any political subdivision.

D. This Section is self-executing.

by the abortionist up to the point of a full term delivery including a zoning board or city council or school board

FINAL THOUGHT

The Ohio Legislature will have no power to mitigate against the abuse of this language because this would be a Constitutional right. Thus the people of Ohio will be silenced on this subject.
