

Hello September!

The Month of Saints!

Labor Day! The unofficial end-of-summer holiday. While its roots stem from the unrest of labor unions for realistic expectations within the boisterous workforce of the industrial revolution, its significance in 2023 is quite spiritual... and believe it or not, even ties-in with the readings for today.

The Oxford definitions of labor are “work, especially hard physical work (n); to work hard, make great effort, or to have difficulty with something despite making a great effort (v).” It’s not a warm, fuzzy word according to the “world”, but one that invokes themes of sacrifice, gratitude, and love... Godly virtues. “Work” is a part of life, no matter which way you go around it. And one could argue that anyone who tries makes “that” their own personal career. Sure, there’s the cliché saying that “do what you love and you’ll never work a day in your life”—and there’s meaning in that. But for all of us at some time or another we feel the weight of our jobs and the pressure from others. So where do we find the virtuous joy?

The First Reading from Jeremiah today doesn’t give us the context for why he’s feeling his particular way, but it’s quite clear that Jeremiah has reached a breaking point. He says, “You duped me, O Lord, and I let myself be duped.” He feels that his love of God should give him an easy life, and because it’s not easy he’s willing to throw away his relationship with him. But he can’t... because of the “fire burning in his heart” as he knows gold is tested in fire and purpose is earned through sacrifice and labor. God’s “labor of love”, his sacrifice of sharing his goodness, brought about the whole cosmos of creation and YOU. And then there’s his ultimate sacrifice, himself. When confronted with the easy path by Peter, Jesus responded so passionately as to call him Satan, to describe just how worldly the “easy path” is. “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.” God himself showed us that the Way of purpose is through sacrifice. It’s how we’re programmed. Of course there’s balance in all things. Even God rested on the seventh day. But when we wake up in the morning for the daily grind and our “why” lies in the motivation to deny the world and take up our cross, it won’t be the job title that defines us, but the knowledge of the one we serve—and in turn, he’ll prosper the work of our hands.

So thank you, Lord for the gift of work... for the chance to deny ourselves and give to others. Thank you, people of God for being laborers in his field! And for bringing him to others through the work that you do in your homes, offices, community and beyond. Happy Labor Day! Enjoy the rest!~ Sara

Happy Labor Day To ALL Of You

*Prosper the work of our hands!
“The basis for determining the
value of human work
is not primarily the kind of work being done but the fact
that the one who is doing it is a person.”*

~St. John Paul II, in his encyclical
Laborem Exercens

Fill us at daybreak with your mercy,
that all our days we may sing for joy.
Make us glad as many days as you humbled
us, for as many years as we have seen trouble.

Show your deeds to your servants,
your glory to their children.
May the favor of the Lord our God be ours.
Prosper the work of our hands!
Prosper the work of our hands!

Psalm 90:14-17

*St. Teresa of Calcutta, feast day
September 5th!*

I alone cannot
change the world,
but I can cast
a stone across
the waters to create
many ripples.

-Mother Teresa

Mother Teresa's "Anyway" Poem

People are often unreasonable, illogical and self centered;
Forgive them anyway.

If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives;
Be kind anyway.

If you are successful, you will win some false friends and some true enemies;
Succeed anyway.

If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you;
Be honest and frank anyway.

What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight;
Build anyway.

If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous;
Be happy anyway.

The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow;
Do good anyway.

Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough;
Give the world the best you've got anyway.

You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and your God;
It was never between you and them anyway.

Take Up Your Cross and Follow Me!

..."Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? Or what can one give in exchange for his life? For the Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father's glory, and then he will repay all according to his conduct." The Gospel, on this Labor Day weekend, clearly reminds us of the work of being a disciple of the Lord. It is not easy work. As we embrace God's work in our lives and in our community, the rewards and the blessings are eternal. Take a minute to read the passage again -and again. Take a few minutes in prayer asking God to give you both the wisdom and the strength to keep focused on the work of the Lord.

...On this Labor Day weekend, we celebrate the blessings of work and the amazing gifts, and talents, and energy that God gave each of us to use in the building up of God's kingdom. Special thanks to the team that works so hard every day at Saint Colette. As you will read in the bulletin, they are working hard to care for the community and create moments of prayer and celebration for all of us to come together. Special thanks to Sara, Lisa, Deacon Scott and Noah. Over the past five months, we have been coming together regularly to offer pastoral care and spiritual programs for all. We are blessed by the work they do for Saint Colette Parish.

...Speaking of Noah, he has the Mass Intention Book ready for you. The office is accepting Mass intentions (a loving and prayerful way to remember your loved ones). Stop by and schedule your Mass intentions!!

...Joining the team are Matt and Jennifer Lombardo. They are coming onboard to assist with the Youth Ministry Program. They are eager and excited to get started. Watch for details in the coming week!

...Special thanks to Chris and Larry Pizon for their work with the PSCF program. They provide steady care for all of our young people coming to learn the ways of the Lord. Thanks also to Aileen Armstrong for her great work with our Sunday School. Both the Pizon's and Aileen are eager to register your children and grandchild for the upcoming year which starts in two weeks.

...God bless Kathleen McDonald for leading the Lampstand Prayer Group each Wednesday at 10 am. Kathleen and her team welcome all who want to come together in prayer.

...This coming Wednesday is Mother Mary's Birthday. Join in a special prayer and celebration in her honor on Thursday at 6:30 pm. Sara can answer any questions and would love to have you.

...Next Monday, as we mark out 9/11, let's all come together in prayer at 7 pm asking God to guide us in the ways of peace and to protect all of our First Responders. This prayer service is such a special part of the rich tradition of Saint Colette. Spread the word.

...On Sunday, September 10th, the Medina Community Band will be offering a Concert for Peace at Saint Ambrose at 2 pm in Hilker Hall. All are welcome to hear some beautiful patriotic music along with some prayerful singing.

...As you have been reading, we would like to invite more of our members to consider serving as Eucharistic Ministers of Holy Communion. It's a special ministry. There will be a training on Wednesday, September 13 at 6:30 pm at Saint Ambrose. It's a diocesan training taking place in our backyard. To learn more or to sign up, please see Lisa or Deacon Scott.

...Over the next few weeks you will see a beautiful prayer path installed to the Good Shepherd statue. Thanks to the support of the Daughters of Saint Colette and Holy Name Society, this prayer path will be in honor of your good shepherd, Father Krizner. As we approach six months since he was called home to Heaven, our prayer is that this path will concretize his ministry and remind all of us of the 'work' we need to do to be disciples of the Lord and walk the path that leads to Heaven. You'll see some progress on this project by mid-September.

...Overdose and deaths from overdose are at crisis levels in our country and especially our State. National Overdose Awareness day was this past week. We are inviting people from our region to come together in prayer with families who have lost loved ones to overdose on Tuesday, September 12 at 6:30 pm at Saint Ambrose. Invite family and neighbors you know who have lost loved ones. There will be a special presentation and Catholic Charities support people available as well. This is one important way we can work to create awareness and care for those who suffer from addiction, and those who have lost loved ones to overdose.

...As you can see in today's bulletin, we are walking into the Fall season. There are so many working for the glory of God and the good of this community. It is a blessing to be able to work and walk with you!!! Happy Labor Day. God bless you abundantly.

Father Bob

WHERE DOES IT SAY THAT?

THIS CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT...

THREATENS PARENTAL RIGHTS

By using "individual" instead of adult or woman, anyone under the age of 18 could have an abortion or make any other reproductive decision without their parents' consent or notification.

PUTS WOMEN AT RISK

Current Ohio laws* require abortion providers to explain procedure risks and ensure access to hospital transfer if needed. These health and safety standards could be seen as a "burden" and be eliminated, making it even less safe for women seeking an abortion.

ALLOWS ABORTIONS THROUGH 9 MONTHS OF PREGNANCY

In U.S. law,** "health" includes age or physical, emotional, or psychological well-being. This means a woman's age or emotional health could be cited to justify aborting a full-term baby. An abortion-providing physician would decide when a baby could survive outside the womb, leaving no clear protections for preborn children.

IS MISLEADING

Referring to "miscarriage care" promotes a myth that a "right to abortion" is necessary to preserve care for miscarriages and ectopic pregnancies. This is false. Catholic hospitals have always provided comprehensive miscarriage care and will continue to do so regardless of the outcome of this vote.

ARTICLE I, SECTION 22

The Right to Reproductive Freedom with Protections for Health and Safety

1. Every individual has a right to make and carry out one's own reproductive decisions, including but not limited to decisions on contraception, fertility treatment, continuing one's own pregnancy, miscarriage care, and abortion.
2. The State shall not, directly or indirectly, burden, penalize, prohibit, interfere with, or discriminate against either an individual's voluntary exercise of this right or a person or entity that assists an individual exercising this right, unless the State demonstrates that it is using the least restrictive means to advance the individual's health in accordance with widely accepted and evidence-based standards of care.
3. However, abortion may be prohibited after fetal viability. But in no case may such an abortion be prohibited if in the professional judgment of the pregnant patient's treating physician it is necessary to protect the pregnant patient's life or health.
4. As used in this Section, "Fetal viability" means "the point in a pregnancy when, in the professional judgment of the pregnant patient's treating physician, the fetus has a significant likelihood of survival outside the uterus with reasonable measures. This is determined on a case-by-case basis"; and "State" includes any governmental entity and political subdivision.
5. This Section is self-executing.
